37 BEDFORD SQUARE LONDON,
Matriculated Member of the University of Ediuburgh, Honorary Member of the London Hospital Medical Society, Licentiate of Apothecaries' Hall, London, &c., &c.

The essential object of this treatisee is to point out the fearful consequences resulting from certain habits, irregularities and excesses, which have produced more misery in Youth, degradation in Manhood, and premature decay at all stages of Life, than, perhaps, any other class of disease known to modern pathologists Its perusal is White Warps, Flannels and Blankets, Hosiery and particularly recommended to persons entertaining secret Gloves, Kid Gauntlets, Velvet Bracelets, Habit doubts of their physical condition, and who are conscious of having hazarded the health, happiness, and privileges to which every human being is entitled.

> It is absolutely necessary that all men should know that there are principles of personal management which cannot be violated without incurring grievous penalties, and when wisdom and regret succeed the heydey of inconsiderate self-indulgence, how these penalties may be mitigated, how the sting of their bitterness may be removed. and how the evil and its consequences may be avoided, and, above all, that there is scarcely any degree of physical infirmity or functional derangement to which the timely aid of science cannot apply a dure.
