ADDRESS.

THE earthly career of Arthur Duke of Welling ton has closed; one of the greatest men of the nineteenth century, the foremost military commander of any age, has paid the debt of nature The time has now arrived for giving to the world a History of the Great Captain-of the Events of his Life and Time-a life marked by fluence will be felt upon society till the end of time .- | the authorized Agents, Such a work must appeal to the best and proudest feelings in the heart of every Briton-the glory of his country, the honor of its name and position among the nationsnay his own existence as a freeman, are recorded and engraven in the annals of "the well-lought fields," and the "deadly imminent breaches," the immortal battles and the glorious seiges in which Wellington and his Companionsin-arms gathered unfading laurels placed their country's honor and renoun on the highest pinnacle of fame and glory, and tore the victor's wreath from the brows of heroes decorated with the trophies of Itaty, Egypt, and Germany.

To supply auch a desiratum in English literature the publishers of The Life and Times of the Duke of Wel- Colored Silk, Painted Cashmere, and Barege. Black and lington have determined to produce a book which shall | Colored Silk and Satin Visites. present to the reader, not only the dry details which a mere biographical sketch would afford, but a compre hensive work, embracing the contemporaneous history for the Million Ribbons, Muslin Collars, Sleeves and of the period; exhibiting the circumstances which Habit Shirts Black and white lace veils, Parasols, Kid. brought about the great events in which the Dike and Silk, Lisle Thread, and Berlin Gloves Hosiery, Silk his contemporaries were engaged, and giving to the reader a connected parrative of the lives and actions o the Warriors and Statesmen of the nineteenth century, and this from the pen of one who was a companion-inarms of the great hero, and participated with him in many a well-fought field.

In order to carry out their views, the Publishers have determined that the work shall be profusely illustrated by Portraits of the Warriors and Statesmen of the last half century who have shed a lustre upon the history of their country, slso representations of the most iuportant engagements by sea and land, from the period of 1780 till 1852, so that the work, when finished, shall form an Illustrated Gallery of the Naval and Military Exploits of England. It has been well said, "Character is the true strength of nations, true glory their best inheritance. When the time shall come that the British heart no longer thrile as the names of Cressy, Poictiers, Agincourt, Blenhem, Ramilies, Oudenarde, Malplaquet, of Talavera, Salamanca, Toulouse, Waterloo,-the last hour of the British Empire will have struck." The promotion and elevation of national spirit and feeling is therefore the duty and interest of every true and loyal son of England. May Heaven inspire the hearts of every one of us with that spirit and feel ng.
