(From the Baltimore Sun.)

Stronger! Still Stronger!!

Can any unprejudiced mind in the world ask stronger testimony, or more convincing proof of the great restorative and curative powers of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture than given below. The writer is one of our most highly esteemed citizens, a man of integrity, and it is extensively known, has been for a long time suffering under disease; his altered appearance now is a subject of remark, and gives additional testimony and weight to the certificate below. He is also the son of Dr. Dunar, whose great skill as a physician is well known to most of the oldest inhabitants of this city:

BALTIMORE, February 9th, 1853.

Messrs. MORTIMER & MOWBRAY:
Gentlemen:—It is with real pleasure that I am able to attend to the general healing and curative powers of Doctor Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. Some time during last November I was taken with a very bad and serious Cough. I was advised to take Cod Liver Oil, and did so, but getting no better, I was induced to try your Tincture. I got one bottle, and before I had used it all my cough left me. Permit me also to state, that for the last fifteen years I have suffered very much from Acute Rheumatism and Vertigo, confining me at times to my bed. I am truly convinced that I owe my present good health to the use of the Tincture and a kind Providence.

You are, my friends, at liberty to use this as you think proper, and believe me

Yours, very respectfully,

G. DUNAN.

The Life and Times of the Late

DUKE OF WELLINGTON,

BY LIEUT. COL. WILLIAMS, (A COMPANION-IN-ARMS OF HIS GRACE.)

Comprising the Campaigns and Battle-Fields of Wellington and his Comrades, the Political Life of the Duke and his Contemporaries, and a detailed account of England's Battles by Sea and Land, from the commencement of the Great French Revolution to the present time, interspersed with Anecdotes, Personal Incidents, and Adventures, &c

ADDRESS.

THE earthly career of Arthur Duke of Wellington has closed; one of the greatest men of the nineteenth century, the foremost military commander of any age, has paid the debt of nature. The time has now arrived for giving to the world a History of the Great Captain—of the Events of his Life and Time—a life marked by patriotism, probity, honor, and events the greatest which have ever agitated the civilized world, and whose influence will be felt upon society till the end of time.—Such a work must appeal to the best and proudest feelings in the heart of every Briton—the glory of his country, the honor of its name and position among the nations—may his own existence as a freeman, and recorded and engraven in the annals of "the well-fought fields," and the "deadly imminent breaches," the immortal battles and the glorious sieges in which Wellington and his Companions-in-arms gathered unfading laurels, placed their country's honor and renown on the highest pinnacle of fame and glory, and tore the victor's wreath from the brows of heroes decorated with the trophies of Italy, Egypt, and Germany.
