New Advertisements.

M. QUINN'S
TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT,

Next door to Mr. John Bradley's, Woodstock.

Fifty Dollars Forfeit to any Purchaser, who does not find all that is contained in this Advertisement to be true.

IT is the Fashion of the times to extol the magnitude of Halls and extent of Windows; I do not approve of it, but for those that do, I would say that I have somewhat of a large Window, and a very small Shop, but yet have done more in the clothing line than any other establishment in the village. My stock, which consists of the best that can be procured in the English and United States Markets, and which can bear the minutest inspection, consists in part of the following:—

Broad Cloths, Cassimeres, Doeskins, Mohair, Beaver, Pushes, Tweeds, Plaids, &c., of all descriptions.

Vestings—Silk Velvets and Satins, black, white and fancy colours.

All of which, together with my large stock of READY MADE CLOTHING, consisting of—

Over Coats in the latest and most fashionable styles, and at prices which defy competition.

Dress, Frock & Sack Coats, and every other variety of Coat;

Vests in innumerable colours and designs;

Pants in every desirable shade and texture;

Cannot be surpassed in the Village. I have, and shall keep constantly on hand all colours and qualities of the above named articles, and my facilities will enable me to sell at prices which will give general satisfaction to my friends and the public. I will strictly adhere to my former motto of "Live and let live"—it having been appreciated by my patrons far beyond my expectations; and I will sell upon the same terms, which have been found to be the fairest mode of doing business, viz:—Only one price, and that guaranteed to be as low as can be bought for in this village; all of which goods are warranted to be made by first-rate and competent Journeyman Tailors.

Merchants, Mechanics, Farmers, In fact all classes of the community, will find it to their advantage to give me the first call, and I feel certain that they will not go away dissatisfied.

All orders for Clothing promptly attended to, and warranted to fit.

N. B.—Persons furnishing their own cloth can have it made up to their satisfaction. Wishing to accommodate every person, Orders will be attended to at the shortest notice, by Woodstock, December 1, 1855.

DONALD BLACK,

Tin and Sheet-Iron Manufacturer,

OPPOSITE THE SENTINEL OFFICE.

WOULD respectfully announce to the inhabitants of Woodstock and the surrounding country, that he is now prepared to furnish them with every desirable article suitable for family purposes in his line of business, having enlarged his stock extensively before the closing of the navigation. He would also inform those persons who are about purchasing Close or Parlor Stoves, that he has constantly on hand a large assortment of the neatest and most fashionable styles, which will be sold low for cash.

He would also give those persons who favour him with their patronage, to understand that every article sold in his establishment is warranted to be of the very best material. As the Holidays are now fast approaching, he would invite all those who are in want of good substantial Cake-shapes, Pie-dishes, Bake-pans, &c., to give him a call before going elsewhere, as he feels satisfied that he can suit them.

D. B. would also return his sincere thanks to his numerous friends and the public for the liberal support they have tendered him since his commencement in business, and hopes by his punctual attendance to all orders entrusted to him, together with good articles, to merit a share of Public patronage.

Wanted.—Any amount of SHEEP PELTS, for which Cash or Goods will be paid.

Woodstock, 1st December, 1855.

Sears' Great Work on Russia!

JUST PUBLISHED:

AN ILLUSTRATED DESCRIPTION OF THE RUSSIAN EMPIRE;

Bring a Physical and Political History of Government and Provinces, Productions, Resources, Imperial Government, Commerce, Literature, Educational Means, Religion, People, Manners, Customs, Antiquities, &c., &c., from the latest and most authentic sources. Embellished with about two hundred Engravings and Maps of European and Asiatic Russia. The whole complete in one large octavo volume of about 700 pages, elegantly and substantially bound. Retail Price $3.

This work has been several years in operation, and will, it is believed, meet in the fullest acceptance of the world. The want so universally felt for reliable information on the history and internal resources of a country occupying so large a portion of the Eastern Hemisphere, and holding so formidable a position at the present time to the rest of Europe and Asia; but of which far less is known than of any other European nation.

Works on Russia have (with a few exceptions) been mostly confined to descriptions of Moscow and St. Petersburg, the ancient and modern capitals of the Empire, and their immediate suburbs. The present volume, however, is a complete geographical, topographical and historical description of the WHOLE EMPIRE.

From the Baltic Provinces, and Russian Poland on the west, to Kamtschatka, ten thousand miles away, on the shores of the Pacific Ocean; and from the vast but bleak and sterile government of Archangel, bordering upon the Arctic Ocean, to the romantic and sunny Crimea, lying like a gem upon the bosom of the Euxine, every Government and Province of this colossal Empire is fully described—the geographical and topographical features portrayed; and its mineral, agricultural, manufacturing, and commercial resources minutely detailed.

A description of the Government of the Army and Navy, Revenue, Currency, Commerce, Religion, Literature, Educational Resources, Classes of the People, their Manners and Customs; in brief, everything requisite to a complete knowledge of RUSSIA AND THE RUSSIANS, has a place upon its pages.

In addition to a careful summary of the principal events in Russian History from the earliest period of authentic date to the present time, local historical notices of Governments and Cities, many interesting facts and incidents will be found interspersed through the volume. The latest and most reliable authorities have been consulted with especial reference to correctness and fullness of details.
