

THE SEA OF AZOFF.—The following despatch from Sir E. Lyons, dated Nov. 18th, has been received at the Admiralty:—

Varna, 7.15 p. m.—Capt. Sherrard Osborne reports that on the 5th and 6th inst., a flotilla under his orders, in the Sea of Azoff, destroyed enormous quantities of grain and forage of this year's harvest, which was compactly stacked in six tiers, extending two miles along the coast, near Guciskliman, ready to be conveyed, partly to the Crimean army, after the formation of the ice in the Sea of Azoff, and partly to the army in the Caucasus, and which the enemy thought secure from any naval attack. By the skilfulness of the arrangements, and the manner in which they were executed by Capt. Osborne, in which he was ably seconded by Commander Jno. P. Kennedy, the enterprise was effected in the most brilliant manner by landing on three points, under cover of the gun-boats of the allies, in the face of not less than 4,000 cavalry and infantry. Our loss amounted to only six wounded.

A letter from Erzeroum states that General Mouravieff became insane in consequence of his defeat on the 29th of September, and that his staff had sent to Teflis for General Bebutoff, who refused to command.

TURKEY.—The following telegraphic despatch has been received from Vienna:—

Vienna, Wednesday Evening, Nov. 21.—Advices from Constantinople of the 12th and 15th inst., have been received here.

A considerable number of the mutineer Tunisian soldiers have been condemned to death.

The Tunisian troops will be sent to Batoun and Souchum Kale.

The Russians have plundered a Kurdish village, and put all the inhabitants to death.

The health of the Turkish cavalry at Tuhurksu is not good.

The Anglo-Turkish cavalry has gone to Kertch.

Advices from Trebizonde of the 5th instant, say that during the last fortnight no news had reached Erzeroum from Kars.

Sir Allan McNab, premier of the Canadian Government, sued the Editor of the Hamilton Banner for libel. The verdict was in favour of the Editors, and Sir Allan gets only a lesson in policy for his pains.

HOLLOWAY'S Ointment and Pills, certain cure for wounds and ulcers.—Thomas Thompson, of Southampton, Nanticoke, was afflicted all over his body with running ulcers. His life at last became a burden to him, as he was a misery to himself, and an annoyance to his friends. In the hope of obtaining relief to his sufferings, he consulted several physicians and surgeons, but his case seemed so desperate that it was considered hopeless. At this stage he had recourse to Holloway's Ointment and Pills, and by persevering with these remedies for ten weeks, he was completely cured, and now enjoys the best of health.

Sears' Great Work on Russia!

JUST PUBLISHED:

AN ILLUSTRATED DESCRIPTION OF THE RUSSIAN EMPIRE;

BEING a Physical and Political History of Governments and Provinces, Productions, Resources, Imperial Government, Commerce, Literature, Educational Means, Religion, People, Manners, Customs, Antiquities, &c., &c., &c., from the latest and most authentic sources. Embellished with about two hundred Engravings and Maps of European and Asiatic Russia. The whole complete in one large octavo volume of about 700 pages, elegantly and substantially bound. Retail Price $3.

This work has been several years in operation, and will, it is believed, meet in the fullest acceptance of the world, the want so universally felt for reliable information on the history and internal resources of a country occupying so large a portion of the Eastern Hemisphere, and holding so formidable a position at the present time to the rest of Europe and Asia; but of which far less is known than of any other European nation.

Works on Russia have (with a few exceptions) been mostly confined to descriptions of Moscow and St. Petersburg, the ancient and modern capitals of the Empire, and their immediate suburbs. The present volume, however, is a complete geographical, topographical and historical description of the WHOLE EMPIRE.

From the Baltic Provinces, and Russian Poland on the west, to Kamtschatka, ten thousand miles away, on the shores of the Pacific Ocean; and from the vast but bleak and sterile government of Archangel, bordering upon the Arctic Ocean, to the romantic and sunny Crimea, lying like a gem upon the bosom of the Buxine, every Government and Province of this colossal Empire is fully described—its geographical and topographical features portrayed; and its mineral, agricultural, manufacturing, and commercial resources minutely detailed.

A description of the government of the Army and Navy, Revenue, Currency, Commerce, Religion, Literature, Educational Resources, Classes of the People, their Manners and Customs; in brief, everything requisite to a complete knowledge of RUSSIA AND THE RUSSIANS, has a place upon its pages.

In addition to a careful summary of the principal events in Russian History from the earliest period of authentic date to the present time, local histories of Governments and Cities, many interesting facts and incidents will be found interspersed through the volume. The latest and most reliable authorities have been consulted with especial reference to correctness and fullness of details.

THE PICTORIAL ILLUSTRATIONS, (approaching Two Hundred in number,) are from the bureau of one of the first artists in America; having been engraved expressly for this work, with many from original designs.

Maps of both EUROPEAN AND ASIATIC RUSSIA, prepared exclusively for this work by Professor Morse, also form a part of the illustrations of this new volume.

No expense has been spared in its preparation; and it is confidently expected that this new work will be pronounced, both in its letter, press and illustrations, one of the most beautiful specimens of book-making ever issued from the American Press.
