

TODTLEBEN, THE RUSSIAN ENGINEER.—A Russian engineer officer, who dined in my company last night, told us some interesting facts connected with the siege, which showed that there is the usual jealousy between the various branches of the Russian service which exists in our own. Todtleben, who is now at Cronstadt, where he was summoned to superintend the defences, never could get men enough from Prince Gortschakoff to carry out his plans. The Russian Engineers, says Todtleben, always predicted that the fall of the place would begin to be accomplished whenever they were obliged to abandon their counterapproaches, and that the moment of its occurrence then became a matter of calculation. The capture of the Cemetery of the Quarantine by the French was regarded by the Russian General as a symptom of decadence, and he succeeded in inducing Gortschakoff to assault the French on three successive nights, in the hope of driving them out and recovering their lost ground; but these attempts failed, although the contest was so fierce that on the last night the works changed hands nine times, and the General would not renew the fight. Their last attack cost them 1,200 men. Todtleben is not regarded as an engineer of scientific attainments or originality of idea by officers of his own branch of the service, but he is admitted to possess great audacity, vigor and enterprise. Their idols are officers whose names we never heard before. As a proof of the pressure of the siege upon the armies I was assured by an engineer officer that he had only 20 men allowed him to make the road to the Belbek from the north side. The bridge across that river is made of oak, which was brought into the Crimea with infinite pains and labour, and at an enormous expense.

Special Notices.

BLOOMS ON THE SKIN.—Holloway's Ointment and Pills. Henry Halliday, Esq., of St. John's, N. B., was severely afflicted with blotches all over the body, the arms, hands, and face, were likewise disfigured with these unsightly eruptions. The medical men candidly told him it was the small pox, and prescribed accordingly, however he was not benefited. The fact is, the blood was impure, and hence a cure was out of the question. He resolved, as nothing he had tried had improved him, to commence using Holloway's Ointment and Pills, which he did, well rubbing the parts affected, these remedies combined, very quickly caused an improved appearance, and by continuing with them for five weeks, the blotches entirely disappeared, leaving him in the enjoyment of the most robust health, W. T. BAIRD, Agent for Woodstock.

A GOOD COMPARISON.—The Rev. William Roulatt, a well known Methodist clergyman, residing at Naples, draws the following amusing but apt comparison between Dr. McLane's celebrated Vermifuge and a ferret: "A ferret, when placed at the entrance of a rat-hole, enters the aperture, travels along the passage, seizes upon the rat, exterminates his existence, and draws the animal's defunct carcass to the light. And in like manner have I found Dr. McLane's American Vermifuge to operate upon worms, those dreadful and dangerous tormentors of children. This remedy, like the ferret, enters the aperture of the mouth, travels down the gullet, hunts round the stomach, lays hold of the worms, shakes the life out of the reptiles, sweeps clean their den, and carries their carcasses clear out of the system. This, at least, has been the effect of the vermifuge upon my children."

A neighbor of Mr. Roulatt, Mr. John Briggs, adopted the simile of the reverend certifier, thus both giving their most unequivocal approval of this great specific, after having witnessed its operation upon their own children. Let others try it, and be satisfied. Purchasers will be careful to ask for Dr. McLane's Celebrated Vermifuge, and take none. All other Vermifuges, in comparison, are worthless. Dr. McLane's genuine Vermifuge, also his Celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States and British Provinces. W. T. BAIRD, Agent for Woodstock.

DIED:

At Jacksonville, on the 3d inst., after a lingering illness of two years and a half, which he bore with Christian fortitude, Mr. Henry Sharp, in the 62d year of his age, leaving a wife and eight children to lament the loss of an affectionate husband and kind parent. He was confined to his bed during the most of his sickness, yet he was perfectly resigned to his heavenly Father's will. He gave himself up to the struggle without a murmuring word, and he left the world with a glowing hope and full assurance of entering into that rest which is prepared for the meek and humble followers of the Lord Jesus Christ. "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord: yea, saith the Spirit, for they rest from their labors, and their deeds do follow them."

Calm be his sleep, as the whisper of even, When the hands have been clasped, and the knees bent in prayer;

He has chanted his hymn at the portal of heaven, And is now praising God, whom he loved here so dear. —Religious Intelligencer will please copy.

At Wakefield, on the 8th inst., after a lingering illness of four years and three months, of Consumption, which she bore with patience and resignation to the Divine Will, Mary A., second daughter of Mr. Elijah Rockwell, aged 27 years. —Religious Intelligencer will please copy.

We have laid thee in the silent grave, In sadness and in gloom, And the winds, as they wander by, Are wailing around thy tomb.

O! little thought we, years ago, Our careless, happy band, So soon would yield its purest gem To Death's unsparring hand.

Low in the green graveyard there Lies many a loved one now, And death has placed his signet on Full many a fair young brow.

And yet we will not weep for thee, Nor mourn that thou art gone, For, O, it were not hard to die When all but life had flown!

Thy voice is hushed forever now, The light fled from thine eye; Life's lesson thou hast early learned,— To hope, despair,—then die.

In brighter worlds thy soul will live, Where sorrows never come: God grant that we may meet again, In that eternal home!

On the 2d inst., in upper Gloucester, State of Maine, Ebenezer Hatheway, Esq., formerly of this Province, aged 84 years.
