READ!

THE subscriber is again under the necessity of appealing to persons indebted to her late husband; and requests that they will make arrangements to discharge the claims which she has against them. They are individually small, it is true; but, small as they may be, they would be very acceptable at the present moment.

WAVERLEY HOUSE,

No. 73 King-street.

THE subscriber, having taken the WAVERLEY HOUSE, in King-street, nearly opposite the St. John Hotel, and having thoroughly remodelled the same, by enlarging the Dining-Room, putting in new Water-Closets, and making very many modern improvements, will be prepared, on MONDAY the 9th inst., to receive permanent and transient BOARDERS.

The subscriber begs to return his most sincere thanks for the very liberal support bestowed upon him while in connection with the firm of Messrs. W. & J. Scammell, as proprietors of the old St. John Hotel for sixteen years, and trusts, by strict attention to business, to merit a share of public patronage.

There is also in connection with the above House a superior Stable, in which can be accommodated 15 Horses.—
A careful Hostler always in attendance.

NOTICE.

Dock-street Boarding House.

THE subscriber, having fitted up the House recently occupied by Mr. THOS. BROWN, is now prepared to accommodate both private and transient Boarders; and, from its central situation and moderate charges, parties visiting the city on business will find in it an advantage over many other Houses. Every effort will be made by the proprietor for their comfort.

JOHN WHITMAN,

St. John Hotel Refitted.

Entrance from Charlotte-street.

THE subscriber would respectfully inform his friends and the public that, having refitted this well-known building, and being determined to keep it in a style not inferior to what it attained in former days, he is now prepared to receive BOARDERS, both transient and permanent, who will receive all the care and attention that can be desired. He would therefore invite travellers to favor him with a call. Board, Five Shillings per day.

Gentlemen travelling with their own Horses will find good Stabling and attentive Hostlers.

UNION HOTEL,

Union-street, between Charlotte and Sydney streets, south side.

THE Proprietor of this Establishment, thankful for favors received during the period he occupied the New Brunswick Hotel, and convinced of the necessity of more and better accommodation for the public, has erected a large and substantial building in Union-street, capable of accommodating from seventy to eighty Boarders. This house is well ventilated; the sleeping rooms are large, and every flat is well supplied with water, and also lighted with gas. The proprietor is determined to leave no means untried to merit the patronage of the community. Travellers arriving late at night will find the house always open and ready to receive them; while the conveniences and moderate charges will render it emphatically the home of the stranger. The tables of this house will be supplied with the best market affords, and the proprietor is determined to adhere strictly to the Total abstinence principle.

Two large stables have been erected on the premises, capable of accommodating from sixty to seventy Horses.
Good Hostlers always in attendance.

St. John, Oct. 18. 84tf ELIAS S. FLAGLOR.
