SOMETHING NEW.

THE subscriber would respectfully announce to the citizens of this place and vicinity, that he has fitted up rooms in the COMMERCIAL HOTEL, and is prepared to take that new and beautiful style of Pictures known as in as good shape as they can be obtained in this or any other country.

The superiority of the Ambrotype over any other kind of picture cannot be questioned. They possess the following advantages over the Daguerreotype:—They have not that disagreeable reflection peculiar to the Daguerreotype, but can be seen in any light or position. They may be put up natural or reversed, with or without color. You do not have to sit more than one fifth the time required to take a Daguerreotype, and can consequently get a much better expression. They are not liable to fade. They cost no more. Children's Pictures taken in two seconds in clear weather.

Having on hand a good assortment of Fancy and Common Cases, and some large size oval black Frames, he feels confident that he can satisfy all those who may favor him with a call.

Pictures taken at all times, without regard to weather. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens.
