WANTED, a HOUSEMAID, in a small family. Good wages given. Apply at the Sentinel Office. Woodstock, Aug. 8.

$500 REWARD!

THE above reward will be paid to any person who will give such information as will lead to the detection of the party or parties who have sent a threatening letter to the subscriber, forbidding him of selling Goods at such LOW PRICES as he has been for some time, and more especially since he has removed back to his OLD STAND, which has been thoroughly refitted in the best style, so as to suit the convenience of himself and customers. But as he is a man of conscience, he is determined not to be deterred from what he considers to be a right and just course, in putting a stop to these extortions and extravagant prices, by importing such Goods, and selling them at such low rates, as will suit his customers, who are neither few nor far between.

All Goods purchased at this Establishment warranted to be perfect and to give satisfaction, or the money will be refunded. JOHN McKEON. Woodstock, July 30th, 1857.
