RULES FOR POSTMASTERS.—The following are among the rules for postmasters in England and Wales. We would commend them to the attention of the Postmaster General of New Brunswick,—particularly the last.—
Every Postmaster and every other officer employed in receiving, collecting, or managing any part of the revenue of the Post Office, is prohibited by law, under severe penalties, from voting or interfering with elections of members of Parliament.
No information must be given respecting letters which pass through a Post Office except to the person to whom they are addressed; and in no other way must official information of a private character be made public.
No officer is permitted to have any connection with the publication or sale of newspapers.
POST-OFFICE AND TAVERNS.—No person will be appointed if he keep a tavern, or any other place where fermented or spirituous liquors are sold, or reside at one; nor will any officer be allowed to commence doing so.

DEATH OF MR. HUGH MILLER.—The melancholy event which has put a termination to the life of Hugh Miller was reported in our last paper. It is now an undoubted fact that Mr. Hugh Miller died in the most melancholy of all ways, by his own hand, as a farewell letter has been found, addressed to his wife. On his head being opened, the doctors discovered, from the state of the brain, that he must soon have been in an asylum for life. A post-mortem examination of the body was made at his house in Portobello, on Friday, by Professor Miller and other medical gentlemen. The following is the conclusion to which they have come:—

The cause of death we found to be a pistol shot through the left side of the chest, and this we are satisfied was inflicted by his own hand. From the diseased appearances found in the brain, taken in connection with the history of the case, we have no doubt that the act was suicidal, under the impulse of insanity.

The following few lines to his wife, found written on a folio sheet lying on the table beside his corpse, giving painful evidence of the awful intensity of the disease:—

Dearest Lydia,—My brain burns, I must have walked; and a fearful dream arises upon me. I cannot bear the horrible thought. God and father of the Lord Jesus Christ have mercy upon me.—Dearest Lydia, dear children, farewell. My brain burns as the recollection grows.

My dear, dear wife, farewell,

HUGH MILLER.

THREE MEN SMOTHERED TO DEATH.—NASHUA, N. H., Jan. 9.—William Saunders, John Sullivan, and John Undine were placed in the lockup under the City Hall last evening, for drunkenness. After being confined for awhile, they set fire to the place, and the whole three were smothered to death. The building was not much damaged.

VICTORIA COLLEGE.—Victoria College, Canada, will, it is supposed, be removed next summer from Cobourg to Hamilton.
