"HILLOA!"

GOOD morning, George! 'Good morning, James!' 'Which way are you going?' 'I'm going down to John McKeon's new Store, next door to that of the CARLETON HOUSE; for I have heard that he has removed to that place. Have you been down?' 'Yes.' 'He has the best and cheapest assortment of Goods in the town. But I am in a hurry to go down and buy some more goods—I'm sure he will lose, George, at the rate that he sells at.' 'Hold on! I must buy some goods before I go home, and I will go down with you; and I would advise all coming to town to examine his stock before purchasing elsewhere. Johnny himself is a clever and liberal sort of a person, and is always willing to show his Goods; he wishes the people to call and see him, whether they buy or not.'

PLAIN OR RAISED AMBROTYPES, With Colored Backgrounds.

MR. WING would respectfully announce that he is obliged to lengthen his stay according to the amount of business, and would say, to all who wish to procure a first-rate Likeness, to call soon, as he thinks of remaining in town but a short time.

The Ambrotype process has superseded the Daguerrotype for several reasons: that they are seen equally well in any position, in regard to light; the tone very soft and pleasing, the expression life itself, and in point of durability they are imperishable; they are taken instantaneously, thus enabling one to secure exact Likenesses of the most nervous persons and restless infants; they may also be enveloped so lightly as to admit of being sent to any part of the world without extra postage, and are not injured by post-stamping, dampness, heat or cold. He has lately prepared himself to take the new and beautiful style of RAISED AMBROTYPES, with backgrounds, variegated with colors of every tint; and he would say to those who have not seen, and had their Likeness taken in this latest style, to call and try one impression, to satisfy themselves of the improvement.

* * * Likenesses taken from 8 A.M. to 6 P.M. without regard to weather.
