LAWRENCE HOTEL,

Corner of Prince William & Queen streets,

SAINT JOHN, N. B.

THE undersigned would intimate to those of his friends who so liberally patronised the "HAMMOND HOUSE," and the public generally, that he has rented the above-named Hotel, where he will be ready at all hours to wait upon them.

The building is almost entirely new, roomy and comfortable, splendidly situated and commanding one of the best views in the city, and in close proximity to the new Steamboat Landing. The furniture has been purchased expressly for this House, and is tasty and well adapted to the uses required.

The undersigned, by giving his undivided personal attention to the business, by keeping his Table constantly supplied with the best the country affords, and by employing none but attentive and obliging servants, hopes to merit a fair share of public patronage.

AMOS B. BARNES, Proprietor.

THE COMMERCIAL HOTEL,

Main-street, Woodstock,

IS pleasantly situated in the centre of the town, near the Telegraph Office, and affords to the travelling public every requisite for comfort which can be desired. The house is entirely new, and the rooms are large and well ventilated. No exertion will be spared to secure the comfort of those who may choose it as their stopping place. Travellers arriving late at night will find the house ready for their reception.

The Table will be furnished with the best the market affords. Charges moderate.

* * * GOOD STABLING is attached to the House, and a careful Hostler always in attendance.

J. SNOW, Manager.

N.B. There is also a superior LIVERY STABLE in connection with the above establishment, at which Horses can be procured at a moment's notice.

WAVERLEY HOUSE,

No. 73 King-street.

THE subscriber, having taken the WAVERLEY HOUSE, in King-street, nearly opposite the St. John Hotel, and having thoroughly remodelled the same, by enlarging the Dining-Room, putting in new Water-Closets, and making very many modern improvements, will be prepared, on MONDAY the 9th inst., to receive permanent and transient BOARDERS.

The subscriber begs to return his most sincere thanks for the very liberal support bestowed upon him while in connection with the firm of Messrs. W. & J. Scammell, as proprietors of the old St. John Hotel for sixteen years, and trusts, by strict attention to business, to merit a share of public patronage.

There is also in connection with the above House a superior Stable, in which can be accommodated 15 Horses.—A careful Hostler always in attendance.

JOSEPH SCAMMELL, Proprietor.

St. John, July, 1856. 8

River DeChute House.

THE SUBSCRIBER respectfully informs his friends and the Public in general, that he will continue to occupy the above establishment, and returns them his sincere thanks for their favors and patronage during the past year; and now having good stabling and every convenience for the accommodation of travellers, he trusts by his usual attention to business, he will be able to give ample satisfaction to all who may favor him with a call.

St. John Hotel Redited.

Entrance from Charlotte-street.

THE subscriber would respectfully inform his friends and the public that, having retired this well-known building, and being determined to keep it in a style not inferior to what it attained in former days, he is now prepared to receive BOARDERS, both transient and permanent, who will receive all the care and attention that can be desired. He would therefore invite travellers to favor him with a call. Board, Five Shillings per day.

Gentlemen travelling with their own Horses will find good Stabling and attentive Hostlers.

UNION HOTEL,

Union-street, between Charlotte and Sydney streets, south side.

THE Proprietor of this Establishment, thankful for favors received during the period he occupied the New Brunswick Hotel, and convinced of the necessity of more and better accommodation for the public, has erected a large and substantial building in Union-street, capable of accommodating from seventy to eighty Boarders. This house is well ventilated; the sleeping rooms are large, and every flat is well supplied with water, and also lighted with gas. The proprietor is determined to leave no means untried to merit the patronage of the community. Travellers arriving late at night will find the house always open and ready to receive them; while the convenience and moderate charges will render it emphatically the home of the stranger. The tables of this house will be supplied with the best the market affords, and the proprietors are determined to adhere strictly to the Total abstinence principle.

Two large stables have been erected on the premises, capable of accommodating from sixty to seventy Horses. Good Hostlers always in attendance.
