"HILLOA!"

GOOD morning, George. "Good morning, James." Which way are you going? "I'm going down to John McKeon's new Store, next door to that of the CARLETON HOUSE; for I have heard that he has removed to that place. Have you been down?" "Yes." "He has the best and cheapest assortment of Goods in the town. But I am in a hurry to go down and buy some more goods—I'm sure he will lose, George, at the rate that he sells at." "Hold on! I must buy some goods before I go home, and I will go down with you; and I would advise all coming to town to examine his stock before purchasing elsewhere. Johnny himself is a clever and liberal sort of a person, and is always willing to show his Goods; he wishes the people to call and see him, whether they buy or not."
