SAMUEL WATTS, and Proprietor.

WOODSTOCK, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1857.

Onr Onren and Constitution

Counsellor.

Che Carleton Sentinel,

VOL. X.

A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER,

Devoted to Agriculture, Literature, Local and General Intelligence, particularly adapted for circulation in Carleton and Victoria.

Published at Woodstock, N. B., every Saturday morning,

BY SAMUEL WATTS,

At his office, corner of Main and Water Streets.

All letters or communications addressed to him, on matters connected with the SENTINEL, must be Post Paid. TERMS .- Ten Shillings per annum if paid in advance Twelve Shillings and Sixpence if not paid in advance, and paid before the expiration of six months; and Fifteen Shillings if not paid till the end of the year. No subscription received for a shorter period than six months, and no paper will be discontinued until all ### arreages are paid, unless at the option of the Publisher. Inducements to Clubbing!

Six copies, (one to the getter-up of the Club	,)	510	00
Ten copies, (to one address,)			00
Thirteen copies. " "		19	00

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

One square of twelve lines and under, first insertion, Five Shillings; each subsequent insertion, One Shilling and Three-Pence. For each line above twelve, Four-Pence per line for the first, and One Penny for each subsequent insertion.

Contracts for yearly advertising entered into on liberal terms.

THE SENTINEL Bank and Job Printing Establishment.

This Establishment having been supplied with a complete assortment of PLAIN and FANCY TYPES, the proprietor

respectfully announces to the Public that he is prepared

CATALOGUES.

PROGRAMMES.

BUSINESS CARDS.

AUCTION BILLS.

to fulfil all orders he may be favored with, for-

CIRCULARS.

PAMPHLETS,

STEAMBOAT BILLS,

BOOKS.

POSTERS.

translated by Mr. Frisewell. Shepherd! thou sayest each has a star. Which guards our lives and lights the skies. Yes, child, but in its sable veil The night obscures them from our eyes. Since, shepherd, of that sky serene, To read the secrets thee 'tis given, What is that star which brightly shines, Then falls forever from the heaven?

Poetry.

THE FALLING STARS.

One of Beranger's beautiful songs, very neatly

My child! a mortal being expires, His course the star is downward winging; 'Midst friends, whom mirth and wine inspire, He died: whilst gaily singing, He drank his fill, and soundly sleeps, And in this world will waken never. . ____"Again, another star outshines, Sparkles and shines, and falls forever!"

My child! this one, so pure and bright, Watched o'er a being as pure and fair; Good daughter, constant mistress she, And biest with lover true and rare; Sweet nuptial flowers her brow entwine; From all she is about to sever. ----- "Again another star outshines, day-but as to the bullocks-bedad, your honor, bolted out of the room amid the ill suppressed marked the edifice when it stood in the first glory BENEFITS OF AGRICULTURAL FAIRS. myself doesn't rightly know what your talking laughter of the company. about at all. at all."

Kelly, I think, is his name." "Arrah, the deuce a bullock, beggin' your honor's pardon, he ever sint here, the ould roguethey'd bring the murrain or some miaugh among us, so they would."

Carleton.

"Old Kedagh tricked me then !" shouted the Counsellor.

ever sent off my pastures."

out of sight by an angle of the road-than, accord- a week after the reading :ing to his masters directions, he turned the bullocks' heads, and before evening they were browsing quietly in their native pastures, whence they tion.

ly exasperated at the trick, so humiliating to him, myself in legal disquisitions, it has never befallen deep limestone quarries beneath Jerusalem itself, Creator carried out. and successful to his outwitter, and just as little me to be obliged to prosecute so direful, marked, whence Solomon obtained those splendid slabs, the And what is an Agricultural Fair? It is a of merriment to him for a long time after, until

COUSIN SALLY DILLIARD. BY HAMILTON C. JONES.

We think it high time that Cousin Sally Dilliard. Captain Rice & Co. were again brought to the memas we have related, and no sooner was the carriage friends in a good humor with themselves for at least the rent of the rocks. I do not enter into modern hand of the future historian. All this has been honest Kedagh should take credit to himself for so and malicious an assault. A more wilful, violent, origin of which has been so long unknown. It is place where the most superior specimens of agrineat a piece of chicanery; it was in fact a subject dangerous battery, and finally a more diabolical but four years since the existence of this immense cultural products are exhibited to the view of the breach of the peace has never happened in a civil- subterranean cavern was known to travellers. I visitors? What then? is that all the object, the some dilemma, similar to that which gave rise to ized country, and I dare say it has seldom been have penetrated it for near half a mile, and seen aim, the end to be accomplished? If so, let them go the expedient we have related occured, and com- your duty to pass upon one so shocking to benevo- there many large stones already cut, which were by the board. But a higher object is to be accomin the same spirit that characterised his former the witnesses."

they shamed you, they were so superior to any you clerk, he looked over it, but in vain-the titter the walls of Solomon's Temple without exclaiming Agricultural. could no longer be suppressed-it was too bad. like the disciples, "What manner of stones are "Och. he's a very judgmatical feeder your hon- "Kedagh ! Kedagh ! you lived a rogue and you here ?" Their size excites wonder to this day, and or, but for all that, I'd show my herd with his any died a rogue," should the outwitted lawyer, and their pure whiteness show what an aspect of beauty of such construction. I have wandered over all No fact is more apparent to the reflecting mind, Kedagh, true to the last, copied every line of the these scenes fiom day to day. I have climbed the than the immense benefits Agricultural Fairs "Why-the bullocks he sent here the day I went well drawn instrument, but the part containing the height of Olivet in the early dawn, to watch the have contributed to our material prosperity. They to Dublin-the ten fat bullocks by his own man, legacy-and gained all his ends-and cheated a rising of the sun upon Jerusalem. I have sat upon have contributed more to our vigorious growth ar its summit for hours contemplating the city as it a nation, than all the gold California can pour lies like a carved model before the eye from that into our country for ages. They have awakened a place. I have reclined on the bosom of Gethsema- spirit of inquiry in the breasts of thousands, who ne ! beneath the shade of its ancient olives, I have have elaborated and made known their experience roamed over the heights of Zion, "ploughed as a of the world-through the Agricultural Pressfield," and down to the caim Siloam, sleeping in contributing their experiments to the general stock its cradle in the valley. I have passed hours in the of information (which at the best is made up of And so he did. The herd had been waiting an ory of the public. They deserve to be reproduced Church of the Holy Sepulchre, now meditating atoms) garnered together-a right legacy of facts, hour at the head of the avenue to intercept him, every few years. Especially will they keep our alone in the tomb, and now standing in thought by from which the principles shall be deduced by the controversy of the accuracy of the place. It is done quietly. The silent step of agricultural proenough for me that all objections to it are modern: gress has not been noted by the world-as it should Scene-A Court of Justice in North Carolina. that there has never been a rival location proposed; have been-for the simple reason that it took time and that there are no greater difficulties here urged to mature in man the high obligation he owned to had been called that morning to effect the decep- dressed the Court: " May it please your worships, than might be arged to any other spot. I have his Maker, his country and himself, to so use and and you, gentlemen of the jury, since it has been roamed abroad over the surrounding hills, even to develope that which was intrusted to his hand, that It was little wonder that Malone should be deep- my fortune (good or bad I will not say) to exercise Mizpeh, where Samuel testified, and into the long, it might be improved, and the true design of our

TERMS, $2 if paid in advance.

NO. 5.

Sentinel.

pelled him to try and make his peace with his in- lent feelings, as this which took place over to Cap- prepared for work, but never removed. This new plished-has been, and will continue to be, the incensed advocate. The hopeless task was underta- tain Rice's in this county. But you will hear from discovery is one of the greatest wonders of Jerusa- terchange of thought among those who have prolem. It seems to extend under the Temple itself, duced the articles on exhibition. It is this light The witnesses being sworn, two or three were ex- and the stones were all finished and dressed there, that agricultural Fairs are accomplishing the grand amined and deposed. One said that he heard the and then raised up at the very spot for their ap- results which will continue to rank us as a practinoise and did not see the fight, another that he had pointed place. I have stood with the Jews in their cal, farming and progressive people. It is not seen the row but didn't know who struck first, and weekly mourning beneath the walls of the Temple, enough that we should see the superior crop of ger from the invalid, requesting to see his dear a third that he was very drunk and couldn't say where Solomon's stones are still remaining, and grain, &c., but we should have the man wish us, marked the energy of the 79th Psalm, as thus ful- that we may know by what pregress he produces it, much about the skrimmage. Lawyer Chops-I am sorry, gentlemen, to have filled. These and many other new and wonderful so that his co-laborers may know and realize the " Confound the rascal !" exclaimed Malone, occupied your time with the stupidity of the wit-nesses examined. It arises, gentlemen, altogether their mysterious wonder has not abated. If one practical form. It is not enough that we see fat from misapprehension on my part. Had I known, should go a hundred times to Gethsemane or Olivet cattle, but that we see the husbandman who pro-"Oh, your honor," said the afflicted messenger. as I now do, that I had a witness in attendance the impression would only be deeper and more sol- duced them, that our less fortunate husbandman " he's stretched for death, and won't die aisy if he who was well acquainted with all the circumstances emn still. To sit there and read the Scriptures ap-of the case, and who was able to make himself pertaing thereto, is an occupation of ever increasing necessity of doing likewise—So that the object of "Well, now, for curiosity's sake," said Malone. clearly understood by the court and jury, I should interest and solemnity. the Fair may be the means of perpetuating the pro-" I will go over and hear what he has to say-it not so long have trespassed upon your time and pa- After mentioning Bishop Gobat in high terms of gressive spirits of political and rural economy. would really be a pity not to hear Kedagh repenttience. Come forward, Mr. Harris, and be sworn." praise, as was to be expected, he continues : Fairs, rightly conducted, are great stimulants So forward comes the witness, a fat shuffy old The laborers around him are earnestly and suc- to good and thorough cultivation of the soil. No-The Counsellor arrived and was shown into the darkened room, where poor Kedagh was waiting man. a " leetle" corned, and took his eath with an cessfully at work. I have attended the private thing is so well calculated to create as healthy a meetings of instruction for converted Israelites, and feeling, or develope so thoroughly to true dignity Chops-Harris, we wish you to tell all about the freely seen the efforts and the results of the faithful of Nature's noblemen, as this theatre, where all "You wished to see me, Mr. Geoghagan, I beriot that happened the other day at Captain Rice's, men who are at work. The Sabbath was a day of may meet in the exhibition of the arts of peace and lieve," said Malone, in the coldest tone of voice he and, as a good deal of time has already been wasted work for them. An early service in Spanish, with usefulness : where those who have failed to realize "Counsellor, dear, is that you?" whined the in circumlocution, we wish you to be compendious, an address in Hebrew, a service in Arabic, with their fond anticipations of their products, rejoice in quite a large congregation of natives in attendance, the success of their neighbors. It is this feature and at the same time as explicit as possible. invalid, from the middle of the bed in the eorner. Harris-Adzactly (giving the lawyer a knowing a morning service in English at 11, with a respec- which endears them to all good men who know the " Upon my word, Mr. Geoghagan, you may well wink, and at the same time clearing his throat.) table congregation, and the schools established by wants of our farmers, and who have, from the earask the question with doubt, after the manner-you Captain Rice he gin a treat, and cousin Sally Dilli- the London Society ; an afternoon service in Ger- liest stage of their existence, stood by them, beard she come over to our house and axed me if my man, for all who understand that language; and lieving they were destined to accomplish as much "Oh, Counsellor, dea:, sure you wouldn't be ripping up old stories on a dying man-God forgive wife she mouth't go? I told cousin Sally Dilliard separate evening meetings in various quarters, at good in their sphere of usefulness as Education has me my sins, but I've a great deal to answer for- that my wife was poorly, being as how she had a missionaries' houses, for private teaching, make in here. touch of the rheumatics in the hip, and the big the day a very busy one after all. Though but one The benefits accruing from Agricultural Fairs forget and forgive, avick-that was your father' swamp was in the road, and the big swamp was up, of these services was intelligible in language to me, are of a two-fold nature, apparent to all. Where way, rest his soul; knew him well, and many, and for there had been a heap of rain lately, but, how- the spirit of them all was manifest. God is bless- the Fairs are made an object of attraction, you many's the time I saw him sitting in his arm-chair somever, as it was she, cousin Sally Dilliard, my ing the work with His Divine power and presence, will find the greatest amount of thriftiness and and stroking your head, and saving-" Anthony wife she mout go. Well, cousin Sally Dilliard then and everything in it looks in the highest degree prosperity prevailing in the section, which conmy boy, you'll never be your father's son if you axed me if Mose he mouth's go? I told cousin hopeful and encouraging. Now, what an accumu- tribute to, and take an interest in, their prosperidesert your friend ingdistress." It's my will I'd Sally D.lliard that he was the foreman of the crap, lation of thought do all these facts and scenes pre- ty. The benefits flowing from them are, not to be be talking of, avick. I'm afraid the boys 'll be and the crap was smartly in the grass : but, how- pare ! I shall not attempt to enter into every par- estimated in a pecuniary sense. There are benefits quarrelling among one another, about the money somever, as it was she, cousin Sally Dilliard, Mose ticular scene ; you must imagine for yourself. But conferred on the agricultural interest through the when I'm gone, and I want a will that 'ill hinder surely there is no spot on earth like Jerusalem .- influence of this institution, which command our he mout gothem : and who would I get to draw it but your Chops-In the name of common sense, Mr. Har- And having been allowed to make my pilgrimage most hearty admiration and respect for those pubself-the first lawyer in the three kingdoms, and here, and to worship on Mount Zion, and listen to lie benefactors of our race who have nurtured and ris what do you mean by this rigmarole? Witness-Captain Rice he gin a treat, and cousin the promises in the very land in which they were expanded this germ, so that agriculture should take "Really, Mr. Geoghagan, I must try to be excu-Sally Dilliard she came over to our house and axed given, I may consider my wanderings well repaid, once more her rank as one of the most honorable sed-my interference with your affairs already- " me if my wife she moutn't go? I told cousin Sally and my privileges abounding. I shall gladly now pursuit of man .- Genesee Farmer. "Ah, now, avick machree, why would you be turn my feet and my face again to the West. Dilliardtalking about that, and entting short a dying man's + ----Chops-Stop, sir, if you please: we don't want PLASTER OF PARIS. None of the mineral fertilizers used by farmers. to hear anything about your cousin Sally Dilliard if you're for leaving me, I can't help you. I'm EDUCATION OF GIRLS. and your wife ; tell us about the fight at Rice's. have stood the test of practical use and experience going-Counsellor, dear-going quick-but I'd Witness-Well I will, sir, if you will let me. There are several faults which are common to so well and so long as plaster of Paris. Notwithlike to do justice first, so just put in a legacy of Chops-Well, sir, go on. girls brought up in indolence and timidity : they standing this, the theory of its true action is but £500 now to my dear and valued friend, meaning Witness-Well, sir, Captain Rice he gin a treat, are incapable of a firm and steady conduct ; there very little known. One reason of this is because no yourself, avick, and make it so that it can't be broke and cousin Sally Dilliard she come over to our house is a good deal of affectation in those ill-founded very definite or exact comparative experiments have and axed me if my wife she moutn't goalarms, and those tears that they shed so easily .- ever been instituted in order to ascertain more "Kedagh-my dear Kedagh-this is so good, so Chops-There it is again. Witness please to We must begin by treating them with indifference; clearly and more certainly how it acts than by gengenerous-really I must forget and forgive now, we must repress our too tender love, little flatteries eral observations and shrewd guessing. It is a though to tell the truth, Kedagh, I was angry." Witness-Well, sir, what do you want? and compliments. We must teach them to speak comparatively cheap article, and when applied and "Ah, Anthony, my darling, this is just like Chops-We want to know about the fight, and in a concise manner. Genuine good taste consists found beneficial it is well-and when it does not your father-rest his soul -but 'deed I was wrong." you must not proceed in this impertinent story. Do in saying much in a few words, in choosing among do well there it is but little outright loss, and "Kedagh-now-my dear friend-this generosyou know anything about the matter before the our thoughts, in having some order and arrange- bence not much complaint is made. There is one Court? ment in what we relate, in speaking with compo- use of it, where more faithful and liberal trials " Counsellor, dear, I always intended it." Witness-To be sure I do. sure : whereas women in general are very enthusi- should be made with it than has hitherto been " My dear friend, this is a melancholy duty, and Chops-Well, you go on and tell it, and nothing astic in their language done. This is on pasture lands. We have noticed Sparkles and shines, and falls forever!" proceedings. Kedagh took to his bed-was illvery ill-going to die, in fact. It was not long until an account of his illness reached Barnestown, and fast on the heels of report followed a messenfriend-the Counsellor.

ing."

his final call.

could assume.

doesn't see you an' the priest."

treated me and used my name."

" his impudence is insufferable-what can he want with me?"

A minister who thought it great, When favorite of a king, to laugh His portrait even now they hide,-Poor, fragile god! again thought of never! ----- "Again another star outshines,

My child! hot tears should stain our cheek : One rich, who loved his poorer brothers, Now dies. Want there full harvest made, Yet gleaned but scanty with the others; Sure of a home, this very eve A poor man sought the gen'rous giver. ----- "Again another star outshines, Sparkles and shines, then drops forever."

Some mighty monarch leaves his land. Go, son, your innocence preserve, So that, if neither bright nor grand, Your star from virtue you ne'er swcrve; If ele, you uselessly but shine; And when thou diest, though great, rich, clever Which sparkled, shone, and fell forever!

My child! the course of this is short-Some haughty lordling newly born; The empty cradle which he leaves With gold and purple they adorn; The flattering lie, the abject whine, ----- "Again another star outshines, SHOP BILLS, Yes, child, and what a lurid light! At the sore evils of the state; VISITING CARDS, LABELS. &c. &c.

With every other description of ODIE IPERITYCE, Which will be executed with Neatness, Cheapness and Punctuality.

BILL HEADS, CHEQUES,

LAW BLANKS.

Business Cards.

DR. A. ARCHER, SURGEON DENTIST .... (FROM EDINBURGH,) Tenders his services in all branches of DENTISTRY --- Surgical, Artificial and Mechanical. RESIDENCE .- In Mr. Long's (late Mr. Whitfield Hart's) brick building, corner of York and King Streets, opposite the office of the Hon. J. A. Street. Fredericton, 4th June.

J. READ & CO, DEALERS IN Flour, Corn Meal, Pork, Sugar, Tea, AND MISCELLANEOUS GGODS, 23 South Market Wharf, ST. JOHN, N. B. 89tf

JOHN C. M'INTOSH, No. 45 Dock Street, Saint John, N. B. MANUFACTURER OF

And all sorts of Fancy Cake. N.B. All orders from the country carefully attended to, and lelivered on board steamer free of charge.

March 21. 30-1y

M'MACKIN & RITCHIE, WHOLESALE & RETAIL GROCERS, Irish virtues, contained in himself a great deal of -AND IMPORTERS OF-Liquors, Teas, Sugars, Tobacco, Flour, Meal, &c., THOMAS A. M'MACKIN. 16 Dock-street, SAINT JOHN, N. B. C.ARD.

STEWART & MCLEAN.

Sparkles and shines, and drops forever!"

Sparkles and shines, then drops forever!"

They'll say 'twas but a falling star,

Select Cale. more betoken, my old friend's son ?" CHEATING A COUNSELLOR: SHIP BREAD, FINE BISCUIT, HOW KEDAGH GEOGHAGAN GOT HIS breath-but let me tell you all first, and then sure, WILL DRAWN FOR NOTHING. A few miles from Harneston, the residence of the famous Anthony Malone, and cotemporaneous with that worthy, there lived a jolly old squire of the regular Irish school named Kedagh Geoghagan. This old gentleman, together with a great deal of now." what his enemies would call downright Irish vices and infamies. Among them he was exceedingly litigious, to which disposition the propinquity of such a convenience as the prime sergeant, was, perhaps, in some degree an encouragement ; be that as it may, the assistance of Malone was often given to extricate his unlucky neighbor out of those scrapes which his infatuation was daily hurling

COMMISSION MERCHANTS, him into; but his patience and good will were at last Wholesale Provisions, Fish and Oil Dealers, Ferry Landing, Water-street, St. John, N. B. the color of Kedagh's gold.

HENRY HALE, DEALER IN SHEET MUSIC AND MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS. PIANOS, MELODEONS, ACCORDEONS, and all kinds of Musical Instruments REPAIRED and TUNED. * * Orders received at the office of this paper.

W. H. GIBBON, 19 South Market Wharf. COMMISSION MERCHANT, AGENT FOR THE SALE OF FLOUR, MEAL, TEAS, SUGARS, MOLASSES, GROCERIES OF ALL KINDS, CORDAGE, FISH, COUNTRY PRODUCE. FRUIT, &c., &c A good assortment of the above constantly on hand and sold at the cheapest rates. * * ORDERS solicited. St. John, Oct. 18. 8tf

JONATHAN ANDERSON, FISH AND PROVISION DEALER, No. 24 South Market Wharf, SAINT JOHN, N. B. A constant supply of all kinds of DRY & PICKLED FISH always on hand. Oct. 18. 8tf CROTHERS, PRICE & CO.,

(Successors to Mr. J. Harrison,) Portland, Saint John, N. B. N.B. SPRINGS and AXLES constantly on hand. Als

Oct. 18 8t SLEIGH ROBES in season. RANKINE'S Steam Biscuit Manufactory, MILL STREET, ST. JOHN, N. B. THOMAS RANKINE, BAKER, manufactures and keeps constantly on hand-BUTTER, SODA, SUGAR, WINE, CRACKERS. BISCUIT. WATER. GRAHAM, GRAHAM. GROCERS, FAMILY PILOT, AND GROT BREAD; PILOT, ME. DIUM AND NAVY BI SAD. Packages delivered at Indian 'Lown free of charge. Orders from the country punctually attended do. Oct. 18. 8yp

> WM. PAISLEY, Importer and Dealer in his stock.

Thady.

trust me, that all my talents can do shall be done for you, to secure your little property." exhausted, when after years of such hard service,

"Ah, Anthony, my darling, give me your hand he had to declare himself absolutely ignorant of -where are you avick ?- I knew it was in your father's son to be generous---so now sit down This unlucky consummation of his imprudence Counsellor dear, and let us to business, an' don't came about at the very moment when the Counselforget the five hundred."

lor's aid was most required. Poor Kedagh had got The bill was drawn and approved, not forgethimself into a terrible hobble. Some sharp attorpey had taken under his protection one of his nu- ting the five hundred; and Kedagh, after uttering merous victims, and law and equity were together a profussion of thanks, for what Malone assured, hurling their thunders on his now defenceless was a will that all the lawyers in Ireland couldn't head. He knew that Malone would in a few days, break; requested it should be left with him to get be going to town to attend Term, and that unless copied, after which, when completed, it should be his anger were previously deprecated, it would be left with himself. Malone, of course, acceded, and idle to expect assistance from him. To pay him a day was appointed when he should return, and would be an abandonment of those principles on receive the sacred trust from the hands of the dying which, through good report and evil report, he had man. The day came and with it the punctual acted for nearly half a century; and pay him he Counsellor-who was no little surprised to find would not-and yet to get free of the dilemma Kedagh out of bed, and much improved in personwithout doing so, was a puzzler. He, however, at al appearance. "I am better, avick ;" said he. last, hit on the expedient which will be seen in "thank goodness-a deal better, and able to sit up; but sure, who knows how long it will last the sequel. The day for Malone's departure had arrived, with all the trouble I'm in. May be now Counseland he was already in his carriage driving out of lor, dear, you could advise me a bit-here's the his avenue gate, when his progress was stopped will, avick." And Kedagh proceeded with a long by a fine herd of cattle turning down in that di- explanation of all the ins and outs of his new troubles, and received from his kind hearted friend rection.

"Hallo, my man," shouted the Counsellor to such assurances of assistance as completely satisfied him. From this time forward, Kedagh became the herdsman-" whose bullock's are those ?" "Mr. Geoghagan's, your honor," replied the fel- better and better by beautiful gradations of convabut he sint thim to your honor, wid his compli- his disappointed expectants. His cause was underments and this bit of a note,"-at the same time taken spiritedly by Malone, and it is needless to fumbling the misshapen epistle from the recesses of say, that it succeeded-the friendship of the Counshis breeches pocket, and handing it to the great ellor became now as conspicuous as the contrary feeling was formerly, and excited the surprise of "Hum-aye-unforseen troubles-hope to be all who knew both, which was still more heighten-excused-request a further continuation of my ser- ed when Kedagh was called to his people at lastvices-oh, very well, my good man, all's right- by Malone's attending his corpse to the grave as one go on. Carriage & Sleigh Manufacturers, present my compliments to your master, and tell of the chief mourners, and conducting all the afhim I shall feel happy in using my utmost exertions fairs of the funeral. No sooner was our poor hero in his business-drive teem on, and deliver them safely deposited, than Malone announced to the reto the herd-one two, three-ten, I believe, are in latives that the will was lodged with him, and colit-'pon my word, a very fine lot of bullocks, and lected all of them in his parlor, for the purpose of from the holy city :-

do credit to the feeder, and you may tell your mas- reading the important instrument to them.

Next vacation Malone returned home, full of asserted by every one, and a defiance hurled at all immense. Every variety of scene and event is clus" things unto himself. drive on, John." Next vacation Malone returned none, tail of asserted by every one, and a denance furned at an asserted by every one, and a denance furned at a denance furned by every one. The second by every one asserted by every one, and a denance furned by every one. The second by every one at a denance furned by every one, and a denance furned by every one. The second by every one at a denance furned by every one at a denance furned by every one. The second by every one at a denance furned by every one at a denance furned by every one at a denance furned by every one. The second by every one at a denance furned by every every every every every every ev complacent delight at the good here with imperishable memories. Here have a care unto thyself that thou do not touch the return expedition. - Notes and Queries. had produced an unequivocal victory. The morn- for perusal. He began, and according as he pro- the Lord of Glory appeared to struggle beneath the type, for thou mayest cause the printer much ing after his arrival, when taking his usual walk ceeded, and settled with each devisee or legatee, as burden of human flesh and human condemnation. trouble.

through his concerns, he met his herd, and after the case was "My poor father," blubbered one His miracles and teaching, His sufferings and His been experimenting with milk in glass pans. through his congratulations on his safe return, of the fortunates, and another in due succession, as friumph, have crowned the spot with everlasting hands of the printer and he might of the might of the printer and he might of receiving his congratulations on his care retained their luck, until the clerk's voice importance. Centuries have gone, but the feet of the sight of the sight of the might knock thee at the same time and divided it equally, putting could scarcely be heard amid the general din. Ma- innumerable pilgrims still stand within the gates of down.

know that hope and certainty are to shake hands; general facts can never be. The Mosque stands stand it. "Yis indeed, 'twas delightful your honor." "Yis indeed, 'twas delightful your honor. "Pon my word, I never knew it so soft at this until the clerk had despatched the sentence imme-Flour, Meal, Sugar, Molasses, Pork, Fish, time of year before—an old parliament gentleman diately preceeding his part of the will, and contin-

Little can be expected from a woman who does that, wherever we have made a trial of it, it in-Witness-Well, Captain Rice he gin a treat- not know now to express her thoughts with correct- creases the growth of white clover. Now, white Chops-This is intolerable. May it please the ness and how to be silent. Girls are timid and clover makes excellent grazing for cattle and horses Court, I move that this witness be committed for a full of false shame, which is a source of dissimula- (although not when it is seeded). It is natural or contempt; he seems to be trifling with this Court. tion. To correct this we must lead them to discov- indigenous to our soil. We presume it is found all Court-Witness, you are before a court of justice, er their thoughts without disguise ; when they are over the country. If plaster invariably promotes and unless you behave yourself in a more becoming tired, to say so; and not oblige them to appear to its growth-and we contend that it will-it should manner you will be sent to jail; so begin and tell enjoy books, or society, while fatigued by them .- be more generally used. Our pasture lands are what you know about the fight at Captain Rice's. When they have unfortunately acquired the habit deteriorating in consequence of their being con-Witness (alarmed)-Well, gentlemen, Captain of disguising their feelings, we must show them, by stantly cropped and few or no fertilizers supplied Rice he gin a treat, and cousin Sally Dilliard- examples, that is possible to be discreet and prudent Try plaster,-try it at any time most convenient. Chops-I hope that the witness may be ordered without being deceitful, and tell them that pru- Many suppose that the spring is the only proper dence consists in saving little, and distrusting our- season to use it. This is not the case. Put it on into custody. Court (after deliberating) -Mr. Attorney, the selve more than others, not in dissembling speeches. grass lands when you can do it best. In the spring

Court is of the opinion that we may save time by Simplicity and truth excite more confidence, and -in midsummer-after mowing, or in the fall. letting the witness go on in his own way. Proceed succed better, even in this world. than dissimula- In regard to its use on crops, we met with an Mr. Harris, with your story, but stick to the point. tion. What is there more delightful than to be idea the other day, advanced by a correspondent Witness-Yes, gentleman. Well, Captain Rice sincere, tranquil, in harmony with our conscience, of the Rural New Yorker, and which he says he he gin a treat, and cousin Sally Dilliard she come having nothing to fear and nothing to pretend ; ascertained to be true by comparative experiment, over to our house and axed me if my wife she mout- whereas she who dissembles is always agitated, and viz : That plaster applied to Indian corn did much n't go? I told cousin Sally Dilliard that my wife under the necessity of hiding one deception by a better where there was a pretty good share of she was poorly, being as how she had the rheumat. hundred others, and yet, with all these efforts, she vegetable fibre in the soil, than where there was ics in the hip, and the big swamp was up; but, never fails to be discovered : sooner or later she but little or none. Thas, on newly broken up howsomever, as it was she, consin Sally Dilliard, passes for what she is. sward land it made an evident increase of the crop.

my wife she mout go. Well, cousin Sally Dilliard We should never coax children; if we do, we while on the same soil, and near to the field on then axed me if Mose he mouth't go? I told cousin teach them to disguise the truth, and they never which it was tried with good results, but which Sally Dilliard as how Mose he was the foreman of forget it. We must lead them by reason as much had been long used and the vegetable fibre exhausthe crap, and the crap was smartly in the grass, as possible. They observe everything. We must ted, it did not perceptibly increase the crop. This but, howsomever, as it was she, cousin Sally Dilli- accustom them to speak little. The pleasure we is worth looking to, and if the observations of ard. Mose he mout go. So they goes on together, derive from playful children often spoils them .- others corroborate it, the fact shall be generally low, touching his hat,-" that is, they wor, sir, lescence until at last he was reported quite well to Mose, my wife, and coasin Sally Dilliard, and they We teach them to say everything that comes into known.

come to the big swamp, and it was up as I was tell- their minds; to speak of things of which they ing you ; but being as how there was a log across havo no distinct idea. This habit of judging with the big swamp, cousin Sally Dilliard and Mose, precipitation, of speaking of things without unlike genteel folks, they walked the log, but my wife derstanding them, remains during the rest of their hoisted her coats and waded throughlives, and forms a very defective order of mind.

Chops-Heaven and earth, this is too bad : but PRINTERS' PROVERBS.-1. Never inquire thou of Witness-Well, that's all I know about the fight the editor for the news; for behold, it is his duty tific man who accomplished the expedition. desat the appointed time to give it unto thee without cribes, under the head of "Roots," those called in asking.

Dr. Tyng (a New York clergyman) thus writes 2. When thou dost write for his paper, never say as large as a walnut, others much larger," (Sir

Jerusalem ! How the word startles the mind it may be the truth would offend thee. do credit to the leeder, and you may ten your mass reading the honor of first introducing this de reading the honor of first introducing this is the author of start introducing this is the author of an and sociations of the past! Yet here is the author of an attention of the past! Yet here is the author of an attention of the past! Yet here is the author of an attention of the past is the author of an attention of the past is the author of an attention of the past is the author of an attention of the past is the author of an attention of the past is the author of an attention of the past is the author of an attention of the past is the author of an attention of the past is the author of an attention of the past is the author of an attention of the past is the author of a start is the a ter I said so-stay, there's han a crown for for an article upon subjects of public dis Drake, who brought them, among other rare seated-sentiments of condolence expressed on all indice expressed on all indit

------

DR. TYNG AT JERUSALEM.

GLASS MILK PANS .- A farmer in Akrom, Ohio, half in a glass pan and half in a tin pan and plac-"Fine weather you had while I was away, lone was, however, listening all the while with that Jerusalem. Some of the locations of the Lord's 6. Never examine the proof-sheet, for it is not ed them side by side. In the first twenty-four hours, quiet sort of satisfaction which we feel, when we relations here may be doubted, but the great and ready to meet thine eye, that thou mayest under- were two thunder showers; and at the end of that time the milk in the tin pan was sour; that in the in July, 1586-7, the first potatoes grown in the British empire ; and "from these few this country was furnished with seed." This was on the return of Sir Walter's expedition, for which the patent passed the Great Seal, in 1584. Herion, a scien-Virginia, " Openawk," which are "round, some unto him, "What thinkest thou of my piece ?" for Joseph Banks ; Halls Ireland, p. 80.) But altho' all this be true, the honor of first introducing this is generally believed to have planted, at Youghell, return expedition after circumnavigating the globe, time of year before—an old parliament gentleman unakely precedening his part of the win, and contine holy place, and it shall be well with thee and thy little and that in the glass began to mrm. From this I of my acquaintance, that was laid up in his bed- ued on, as it were, skipping the important para-Teas, Tobaccos, Fruits, Spices, &c. its respects and relations. The Mount of Olives ones. believe glass pans will preserve milk one-third long. room ever since winter, was able to go down all the graph. And all kinds of "Now, now, Matthews, my good fellow," said still towers up in beauty opposite the eide of Moer than tin pans." We believe farmers are beway to the Cove of Cork last week, it was so mild." the Counsellor, interupting him, "do not be so riah. There is but one road which climbs its as- THE WAY TO MAKE A CUP OF TEA.-The teapet ginning to find this out, as we have heard of a GROCERIES AND PROVISIONS, "Yes, indeed—and how is the grass coming on, precipitate, pray—go on—in such serious matters cent, and Jesus must have walked that road in his should be at once filled up with boiling water, then number who were introducing glass instead of tin. WHOLESALE AND RETAIL. as these, it is very unbecoming to be so giddy-go repeated journeys. Gethsemane, lies beneath a put the tea into the pot, and allow it to stand for We have referred to the superiority of glass over QUEEN STREET, FREDERICTON, N. B. Aug. 2. 49 Next door above the " Barker House." "I never seen the like, your honor, if you'd on- on, if you please and to my dear and valued friend lowly, lovely plain, bordering the Cedron, and ex- five minutes before it is used; the leaves gradually tin for dairy purposes, several times within the Thady ?" tending to the rise of Olivet. It must always have absorb the water, and as gradually sink to the bot- last year or two. ly jist step down an' look at it you'd see, yourself, -go on,-don't you see it?" MR. PHEASANT. "Faith, sir," said the puzzled clerk, looking over been a garden, for it is the very spot in which man tom. The result is that the tea leaves are not "You didn't find Mr. Geoghagan's bullocks too the whole document, "I don't see e'er a dear and would of necessity have planted one. No one can scalded as they are when boiling water is poured IMPORTANT DISCOVERY .- A real Remody for (Organist of St. Luke's Church.) sure. TEACHER OF sit on the Mount of Olives over against the Temple over them, and all the true flavor of the tea is ob- ASTIMA, has been found in Jonas Whiteamb's Revalued friend in it from top to bottom," VOCAL & INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC. "Mr. Matthews, you are insufferable stupid, and not see that he it just where Jesus was when tained. Much less tea is required in this way medy, prepared by Joseph Burnett, & Co., Tremot t great an addition, I hope." "Old Kedagh's bullocks; those that he sent here and really this will not do at all-give me the will He beheld the city and wept over it. No one can than under the common practice. - Acople's Plan- Street, Boston. It has never failed to give relief Organs, Piano-Fortes, &c., tuned. the day I went to Dublin; 'pon my word, Thady, sir,' and seizing it from the hands of the terrified look upon those immense stones which remain in nac. 1858. * * Rooms at English's Hotel, where orders may be even in the most severe cases. ... July 31.

WHO GAVE US THE POTATO ?--Sir Walter Raleigh