COMETH A BLESSING DOWN.

Not to a man of dollars, Not to a man of deeds, Not to a man of cunning, Not to the man of creeds, Not to the one whose passion Is for a world's renown,

Not in the form of fashion,-Cometh a blessing down. Not unto land's expansion, Not to the miser's chest,

Not to the princely mansion, Not to the blazoned crest, Not to the sordid worldling, Not to the knavish clown, Not to the haughty tyrant,-

Cometh a blessing down.

Not to the folly-blinded, Not to the steeped in shame, Not to the carnal-minded, Not to the unholy fame, Not in neglect of duty,

Not in the monarch's crown, Not in the smile of beauty,-Cometh a blessing down.

But to one whose spirit Yearns for the great and good, Unto the one whose storehouse Yielded the hungry food, Unto the one who labors Fearless of foe or frown, Unto the kindly-hearted,-

Cometh a blessing down.
