HOW BEAUTIFUL IS EARTH.

BY MRS. SIGOURNEY. Oh God! how beautiful is earth. In sunlight or in shade, Her forests with their waving arch, Her flowers that gem the glade;

Her hillocks, white with fleecy flocks, Her fields with grain that glow, Her sparkling rivers deep and broad, That through the valley flow-

Her crested waves that clash the shore, And lift their anthem loud. Her mountains with their solemn brows. That woo the yielding cloud !

Oh God! how beautiful is life, That thou dost lend us here. With tinted hopes that line the cloud, And joys that gem the tear;

With cradle-hymps of mothers young, And tread of youthful feet, That scarce, in their elastic bound, Bow down the grass flowers sweet : With brightness round the pilgrim's staf, Beholds the golden gates thrown wide. And all'is work well done ! But if this earth, which changes mar. This life, to death that leads.

Who, at the set of sun,

From whom all good proceeds, How glorious must that region be Where all the pure and blest. From change, and fear, and sorrow free,

Are made so beautiful by Him

Attain eternal rest!
