DIED:

"At his residence, Andover, on the 15th June, Mr. John MULTIVATORS Baird, aged 67 years. Mr. B. was for twenty years U for Cash. bacher of the National School at Fredericton.

8 months She was the daughter of William and Eliza- The FOUNDRY, cheap for Cash. beth Banks. In the fall of 1856, she professed roligion, and was be ptized by the Rev. C. E. Bell. Soon after, she was married to. Mr. Broadstreet Tompkins, son of one of the early settlers in the Parish of Brighton. During her Finess, she fully realized the truth of the religion she professed, and was fully assured that the God in whom she trusted would accompany her through the dark valley and the shadow of death. She with calm resignation awaited the summons of the grim messenger; and when he made his inexorable call, he found her leaning on the strong arm of her Savjour. She has left a kind husband and one little son, together with a father and mother and New and Spacious Store, Water-street, their loes; but what is their loss is her gain. They die in Jesus and are blessed; How kind their slumbers are!-From suff'ring and from sin released, And freed from every spare.

The fareral was attended on the following Tuesday, concourse of people .- Religious Intel. please copy. On the 28th of May, in the triumph of faith in her Liessed Redeenter, Miss Frances Akerley, aged 21 years, "Farewell, dear friend, a short farewell, Till we shall meet again above,
