Drugs, Medicines, &c.

The following remedies are offered to the public as the best, most perfect, which medical science can afford. AYER S CATHARTIC PILLS have been prepared with the utmost skill which the medical profession of this age possesses, and their effects show they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known. Other medicines do more or less good ; but this cures such dangerous complaints, so quick and so surely, as to prove an efficacy and a power to uproot disease beyond anything which men have known before. By removing the obstructions of the internal organs, and stimulating them into healthy action, they renovate the fountains of life and vigor,-health courses anew through the body, and the sick man is well again. They are adapted to dis-ease, and disease only; for when taken by one in health they produce but little effect. This is the perfection of medicine. It is antagonistic to disease, and uo more. Tender children may take them with impunity ;- if they
