STRIKE ON THE RAILWAY -On Monday morning, at six o'clock, when the men assembled, it was found that a large number of them were dissatisfied with the wages they have been receiving-four shillings a day-and intended to demand five shillings, or knock off work. The contractors, however, determined not to accede to their terms, and after some parley, about a third of the men agreed to work for the four shillings. At this the five shilling men snowed signs of discontent and threatened those who intended to resume work. The aspect of affairs was getting black, when the Railway perse, and on their refusing to do so he commenced by Canada, the most active operations are going banadoor and his Ghoorkas, as well, and that Mr. English's telling her proceeded to the attack of the edifices between the Lecompton and his land-grab, or stay out reading the riot act.
