NEW Song BY BURNS. - The following song, read at the Burns Festival at Cincinnati, was communicated by Mrs. Jane Renwich, of New York, to whom it was addressed when she was a "bonnie Scotch lassie," and a favorite of the Scotch bard. It has never been published in his works.

To Miss Jane Jeffrey, Daughter of the Parish Pastor of Lochmaben, Scotland, When first I saw my Jeanie's face, I could na' think what ailed me; My heart went fluttering pit-a-pat, My pon had nearly failed me. She's aye sae neat, and trim, and tight, All grace does round her hover; Ae' look deprived me of my heart,

And I became her lover. She's ave, ave sae blythe and gay, She's aye sae blythe and cheery; She's aye sae bonny, blythe and gay, 0, gin' I were her dearie!

Had I Dundas's whole estate, Or Hoptoun's prine to shine in, Did warlike honors crown my fate, Or softer lays entwine in, I'd lay them a' at Jeanie's feet,

Could I but hope to move her, And, prouder than a peer or knight, I'd be my Jeanie's lover. She's aye, aye sae blythe, &c.

But sair I doubt some happier swain Has gained my Jeanie's favor; If sae, may every bliss be hers, Though I can never have her; But gang she east, or gang she west, 'Twixt Nith and Tweed all over, While man hath eyes, or ears, or tasto, She'll always find a lover. She's aye, aye sae blythe, &c.

LIQUID CATHARTIC THE public do not require to be told that a mild, safe and reliable cathartic, in a liquid form, agrecable to the taste, and one which purges without violence, is a desideratum in medicine; this fact will be admitted by all. Such & discovery has been often attempted, but without success, until the introduction of the above-named remedy. No patent medicine ever met with such ready approval by physicians as this. Many regular practitioners are asing it daily, all of whom have spoken of it in the highest terms of praise. Persons, for the want of a better, have been obliged to resort to the use of those drastic, nauseous, and oftentimes injurious purgatives, such as castor oil, salts, senna, rhubarb, jallop, aloes, gamboge, &c., all of which cause more or less debility, and fail to accomplish the object for which they are taken; on the contrary, they often increase the difficulty, and render the patient less curable. None of these enter into the compo-Compound Rhubarb Mixture, MEDICAL HALL, sition of this invaluable remedy. It is composed of barks, roots and seeds, the medical properties of which are exactly adapted to the cure of these complaints for which it is recommended. By a combination of those properties, the public were put in possession of the most valuable preparation ever produced. This medicine is not intended simply as a cathartic; its value as such is insignificant CONSISTING of the usual variety of pure English when compared with its power of purifying the blood from all humors, regulating the action of the bowels, curing tion of the Liver, freeing the stomach from bile, and invigorating and strengthening the whole system. It is a eertain cure for the Piles, and those suffering from that complaint should give it a trial. It is also warranted to Complaints, such as Dysentery, Diarrhea, Cholera Morbus, &c., it will be found invaluable. White Lead, Black, Blue, Green, Yellow and Red Paint, Reader, as sure as the sun rises in the east, just so sure you will be benefitted by the use of this medicine for any of the above complaints; and as surely will it relieve those suffering from Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Tic Doleureux, Gout, Headache, and Pain in the Side and Stomach, caused by Flatulency. Loss of Appetite, Indigestion, general Debility, &c., is often produced by wind in the Stomach, which this remedy will expel at once. It is also an excel-
