THE ARMIES OF EUROPE. - The prospect of war in Europe renders a glance at the extent of military preparations there interesting at this time. It appears from official statements, says the Journal of Commerce, made as late as the 16th of February last, that the military forces of Europe embraced more than four millions of soldiers under arms, without counting sailors, gardes, civil, national, or militia of all kinds, of which the number reaches a much larger figure. The effective force of France marine, 104 vessels of war. The Prussian army night. Any information given at the office of consists of 525,000, of which 410,000 are the active force, and Landwehr of 1st con: marine, 60 vessels of war, 3500 mariners. England has an army of 229.000 men including those dispersed in the colcluding the reserve and 226,000 irregulars; marine, 117 vessels, 62,000 marines and gunners. Spain has a peace establishment of 75.000 troops. The Sardinian army consists of 50,000; marine, 40 vessels, and 2560 sailors. Two Sicilies-the army is 100,000, of which 10,000 are Swiss; marine, 60 vessels, 12 sailing, 55 steamers, 100 cannoniers, 5362 sailors. Rome maintains an army of COR sale low, delivered at St. Stephens. Duty paid. 16,000 infantry and 1315 cavalry. Tuscany has an army of 16,000 men. The German states have a federal army of 250,000 men. The German Confederation have an army of 525,000 men, 49,500 cavalry, including the Austrian and Prussian contingents.

THE WAR PREPARATIONS .- Writing on the evening of 13th, the Paris correspondent of the London

People who insist on shutting their eyes to what is actually under their nose cling to this Congress as a certain and safe lightning conductor; but the electric fluid is diffused over too vast a canopy on both sides of Alps to be directed earthwards, even by such a paratonnerre as Lord Malmesbury. Milton (who lived before Benjamin Franklin) likens the adverse hosts to two huge clouds wafted by contrary currents over the Caspian Sea, and loaded with thunder. France, even on the eve of the great march of Moscow, never had set in motion such an overwhelming mass of improved artillery, such enthusiastic legions fresh from Crimean and Algerine triumphs, such horse, foot and dragoons, Alps. At Antibes on the Var, there 12,000; at Grenoble on the Isere, 40,000; at Valence, 30,000; at Lyons, 60,000; at Besançon, 20,000. At Toulon there are transports for 60,000 men and material; and out of the 80,000 in Algiers it is positively true that 50,000 are expected to be drafted into Italy. I have no certain data to reply on as left bank of the Po, but earthworks and palisades and bastions and redoubts are disfiguring the whole territory. The Triesta Rierung says that a million of francs in copper coin, kept in reserve at Milan, has been carried off to Verona, and that even the hoard of Government tobacco was not held to be safe till removed thither also. That young Kaizer Frang Joseph does, in fact, wish for war as New Brunswick and Canada Railthe only escape from Bankruptcy is what all I glean from Vienna papers unmistakably suggests. That Napoleon III. is quite willing and ready to oblige him is what I have not the slightest doubt of. If PUNCTUALITY, EXPEDITION & ECONOMY anyone else wants to meddle with the two antagonists, he is quite welcome to indulge in the whim. That is altogether a matter of choice, not neces- daily between Woodstock and the Station at the Howard

MINISTERIAL DIFFICULTIES .- A clergyman in a mining village not far from Ricarton, in the course of his pastoral visits, called at the house of a collier in his parish. Inquiring of the woman he saw Places by the Stage may be secured at the Coach Office, and whom he presumed to be the wife, if her hus- near the Post Office, and at all the principal Hotels in band was at home, she answered, "Deed na, sir, he's at his wark." " Is your husband, my good woman, a communicant?" "A communicant?" he's naething o' the kind; he's just a collier.' Astonished at the ignorance displayed, the clergy- the most reasonable terms. JULIUS THOMPSON. man could not help ejaculating "Oh, what darkness?" The collier's spouse, understanding the language literally, not figuratively, was also something astonished. "Darkness! little ye ken o't; hay you been here before we got the new window in the gable, ye wad scarcely hae been able to see your finger afore you." The pastor sighed; to see your finger afore you." The pastor sighed; this fall, a great portion of the supplies destined for to the Public, "You who want a Fashionable Garment, it was his first visitation to his flock, and their Woodstock has been frozen up between Fredericton and IS THE PLACE!" ignorance certainly demanded his prayers. "I the above place; and as far as I was concerned I began this of every description suited to the season must, my dear woman put up a petition for you to think we would not have any GOOD HERRINGS this here." THE LITTLE ONES .- Now that the warm weather has come, let your children amuse themselves out of doors. Don't keep them shut up like house plants, until they become as pale and thin as ghosts. Strip off the finery, put on coarse garments, and turn them out to play in the sand-to make "mud cakes,"-to daub their faces with anything of an "earthly nature" which will have a tendency to make them look as though they had entered into co-partnership with dirt. Keep them in the house, and they will soon look like, and be of about as much value, as a potato which grows in the cellar, pale, puny, sickly, sentimental wrecks of humanity. Turn them out, we say, boys and girls, and let them run, snuff the pure air, and be happy. Who cares if they do get tanned? Leather must be tanned before fit for use, and boys and girls must undergo a hardening process, before they are qualified to engage in the arduous duties of ADVERTISING .- Discontinuing to advertise is like taking down one's sign. It is a sort of intimation of retirement from business, and the public treat it as such, or they regard it as evidence that something has gone wrong, which requires privacy for investigation. Now we advise all our readers who have fallen into the common error of the season, to come out once more and advertise as they did .-While business creates advertising, it is equally true that advertising creates business. It creates a talk and a stir in business circles. And even in the worst of times advertising pays well, and the more of it there is, the greater will be the circulation of money, and the sooner will be restored a condition of prosperity.

characterised his practice for so many years in this country, in which the lamentable neglect of those discases by medical men generally, and their futile attempts to cure by mercury, copaiba, sarsaparilla, &c , have produced most distressing results. Lasting benefit in such cases can only be reasonably expected at the hands of the legally-qualified medical man who devotes his chief attention to their removal; and to him only who can show his pos session of the necessary qualifications; can confidence be safely extended. Dr. De R. refers with pride to the num bers he has been instrumental in restoring to health an happiness; and to those who may be in need of such aid he offers every assurance of speedy restoration.
