It is well known that the medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible. In the Peruvian Syrup this desirable point is attained by COMBINA-TION IN A WAY BEFORE UNKNOWN; and this solution may replace all the proto-carbonates, nitrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica.

THE TREASURES OF THE DEEP.

BY MRS. HRMANS. Yet more, the depths have more! What wealth untold, Far down, and shining through their stillness lies! Thou hast the starry gems, the burning gold, Won from ten thousand royal argosies. Sweep o'er thy spoils, thou wild and wrathful main! Earth claims not these again.

Yet more, the billews and the depths have more! High hearts and brave are gathered to thy breast! They hear not how the booming waters roar, The battle thunders will not break their rest. Keep thy red gold and gems, thou stormy wave! Give back the true and prave!

Give back the lost and lovely! those for whom The place was kept at board and hearth se long, The prayer went up through midnight's breathless gloon And the vain yearning woke 'midst festal song. Hold fast thy buried isles, thy towers c'erthrown; But all is not thy own.

To thee the leve of woman hath gone down; Dark flow thy tides o'er manhood's noble head, O'er youth's bright locks and beauty's flowery crown: Yet must thou hear a voice—Restore the dead! Earth shall reclaim her precious things from thee!-Restore the dead, thou seal
