Desultory. A STORY FOR LOVERS .- In the gossip of the Paris correspondent of the Liverpool Times there is a story which unlike most of the tales of Paris, is fit to be told. LETTERS FROM RESIDENTS.

The following is a letter from Dr. North, late of Waterville, Maine, who is now located at Hammonton. Coming from such authority it is important in the way of giving satisfactory information. WEST WATERVILLE, Me., Nov. Sth, 1853.

WEST WATERVILLE, Me., Nov. 8th, 1853. DEAR SIE:-I have travelled much in the northern counties of New Jersey. Monmouth county has long been celebrated as one of the finest agricultural counties in the Middle States. It is the great fruit and market garden which largely supplies New York city with fruit and vegetables. The lands bounded by Staten Island closely resemble the light lands of Hammonton, while the aluminous soils of Freehold are of precisely the same character and quality as your land, located on Oak, Walker, and many parts of Maine road. The uncultivated land in Keyport is valued at $150 per acre, while the cultivated com-mands from $200 to $400 per acre. A good farm, containing 1000 acres of land, in the town of Freehold, woul a sell for from $19,000 to $20,000. It is my candid opinion, founded upon a careful examination and comparison of the soils, that the lands of Atlantic county are, in an ag-ricultural point of view, as rich and valuable as those of Monmouth wooded, of a superior quality, and on it a never-failing Brook, quite sufficient for a Grist or Saw-Mill. Terms moderate. Enquire of JAMES ROBERTSON, Woodstock, comparison of the soils, that the lands of Atlantic county are, in an ag-ricultural point of view, as rich and valuable as those of Mommouth county. I hope that many emigrants from this State may be induced to visit Hamonton. Lands which they may now purchase for the in-significant price of $20 per acre will, with skilful and well directed in-dustry, command, in ten years, as high prices as the Monmouth coun-ty lands. They can found homes there amidst New England neighbors, New England churches and schoolhouses; homes in a climate as gen-ial as that of Italy, and surrounded by an atmosphere uncontaminated with malarias; homes in the immediate neighborhood of the great cities of New York and Philadelphia, which will afford a ready market, at the highest prices, for every product of the earth. To invalids labor-ing under asthma, rheumatism, indigestion, and kindred diseases, I can give assurance, founded upon my own experience, and the testican give assurance, founded upon my own experience, and the testimony of many settlers that they will recover their health by a resi-dence at Hammonton. I left my home in Waterville last summer to visit New Jersey, for the benefit of my health. At that time I was so debilitated by rheumatism I could not walk half a mile without stopping often to rest. I was much emaciated, and my friends considered my recovery doubtful. I had not been in New Jersey a week, before the rheumatic pain left me entirely. I soon recovered my appetite, and the day before I left Hammonton to return to Maine I walked 24 miles. I conversed with many intelligent residents at Hammonton, who, in other homes, had been afflicted with various diseases, which were cured by their removal to H. One gentleman, who had suffered severely in a northorn home, from asthma, recovered entirely soon after he moved to New Jersey. He told me of numerous cases analagous to his own, both as to symptoms and cure. I think the equabili-ty of the climate, the purity and absence of all irritating matters in the atmosphere, may account for these recoveries from sickness. Respectfully yours, &c., JOS. N. NORTH.

RUSSIAN BABIES .- It is said that Russian babies look like so many idols, with their heads carved out and the rest of the body left in a block. Letter from a settler from Union, Maine-been there the entire season-has seen the crops grow-contrast between this place and the West. HAMMONTON, N. J., Uct. 24th, 1858.

SIRS :- Thinking you would like to hear from one of the settlers of Maine, I take the liberty to inform you of my preference for this place to any other that I have become acquainted with ; also wishing to use my influence with all my friends to settle here, rather than in the far off West, or other wilderness places. I look upon this place in mani-fold ways, namely : its being located in the immediate vicinity of one of the largest cities in the United States, and having all the facilities thus afforded : also located along the Canden and Atlantic Beilroad thus afforded ; also, located along the Camden and Atlantic Railroad, within an hour's ride of the city of Philadelphia, and all produce rais-ed for marketing in this section of the country can be sent to the market in a fresh condition. I have travelled during the past year in the Western and Middle States, to find a place to settle, where I could enjoy a mild climate and the length of season suitable to raise all kinds of crops, particularly, in-cluding fruits of all kinds, and none could I find that suited me so well as this which I now enjoy. As is common to all desirable loca-tions, the land is held at such exorbitant prices that it takes a fortune to make a comfortable home; but as the land is held here within the reach of every working, industrious man, there can be no doubt of his success, and at such uniform prices, which is always the great effect in success, and at such uniform prices, which is always the great effect in all business. There can be no doubt in my opinion, as well as of others experi-enced, of the fertility of the soil, and that it takes less fertilizing to produce a good crop, than on any land in Maine that I have any knowledge of.

I have seen some corn raised this season on the farm of Mr. Erie Willis, formerly of Augusta, Maine, equal to any I ever saw in any other State. His land was covered with standing wood on the last of April last, as you are well aware, and his corn was planted about the first of June, and endured the severe drought we all experienced, extremely well.

I am also giad to hear from experienced men that this is the kind of soil adapted to the culture of grapes, which I have a great desire to grow, which is always a very profitable crop to raise, and I intend to plant all my means will allow. As regards health and climate, it satisfies me beyond expectation. I have heard of no cases of those interminable fevers subject to the Western clime, which is certainly a great advantage over the West. My family were all in delicate health when we came here, and now are well and hearty. The construction of houses and other buildings, which is an important item, I had always supposed in this section of the country must cost exceedingly beyond New England prices; but on the contrary. A comfortable residence can be constructed, I have ascertain-ed. for three hundred and fifty dollars, sufficiently comfortable for any farmer; but those having means can build as expensive as they wish. Having lived here for the last six months, and noticed all the movements of settling, and the rapid growth of the place, which, six months ago, was nearly covered with living trees, and now quite a business place and village, and seen the crops growing in the adjacent towns, as well as this, with so little fertilizing, I feel satisfied with all these facilities, and think I can make a happy home, as well as profitable, by

Yours, respectfully, JOS. MILLER.

Letter from E. J. Delano, formerly of Frankfort, Maine-Contrast be-tween Hammonton and Western Virginia. HAMMONTON, N. J., Oct 23, 1858, Mr. EDITOR: Dear Sir,-I wish to give you my ideas of this place: as my learning is limited, you must excuse this letter, although I think it my duty to all, to encourage people to come here and settle. I have travelled in twelve States, and as far South as Kentucky. I have spent some time in the southern part of the States of New York and Fennsylvania, also Virginia, and I must say that this is the healthiost place I have been in yet. In New York State it is as change-able as in Maine, -it is warmer in Pennsylvania, but from spring till late in the fall they have a great deal of fog--it comes in the latter late in the fail they have a great deal of fog-it comes in the latter part of the night, and lasts until from 9 to 12 o'clock, M., then the sun will shine and it will be very warm indeed. Then you are troubled with billious fever, and also fever and ague, and consumptions, which the people in the East dread very much. I have travelled about 3,000 miles in Pennsylvania, 940 miles in Virginia. Western Virginia is highly spoken of by Eastern people as a fine cli-mate, but I have walked 260 miles, and travelled by steam 350 miles in Western Virginia, but I find it is not so. In the first place, after you leave the walley of Virginia, it is moun-tainous until you reach the Ohio river with the exception of the river bottom lands that make into the State, these bottoms are about quarter mile wide. I found that fever and ague prevailed along my travels, and fog in abundance. Then I came here, and glad am I for coming. and fog in abundance. Then I came here, and ghat an 100 config. I have taken particular pains to inquire about the health of this place, and find it to surpass any other place that I have been in, or can hear of. We have no particular diseases here. I have talked with the elder settlers, they say that the fever and ague never was known here; as for my family, they never were so healthy before. We are out early and late, and expose ourselves very much, and have not taken cold yet this season. the instance I never knew before; and as for myself, I was out of the when I left Maine, since coming here my appetite is

Letter from Eli Hanson., from North Vassaboro-His impressions of the place. HAMMONTON, N. J., Oct. 20, 1858. Mr. EDITOR:--I came to this place on the 12th of last June, from Kennebeck, Maine, and town of North Vasselboro, to work for C. J. Tray, on his sceam mill that he had commenced, and was so much pleased with the prospects of the place, while working for him, that I concluded to purchase a building lot, and upon which I have erected a house, and have it nearly completed, and intend to make this my future home; as I have never seen any new place flourish like this, and present so much interest in so short a time-and I cheerfully say that I am so far satisfied, that my attention was turned to this Ham-monton enterprise. As to the location of the place, it is most certainly very desirable. The quality of the soit has already been proved and pronounced good by all judges. The climate is all that can be wished he Province. for. And as health is the predominant, it is hardly use to mention, but I must say, it is a poor place for physicians. And I, like all others here, have a desire that this place should thrive, and encourage my friends to give it a call and examine for themselves. Yours, truly, ELI HANSON. Letter from a settler from Portland, Me .- The climate-Health-Rapid rise of property. HAMMONTON, Oct. 20, 1858. I have been in Hammonton about two months, and I am satisfied that the soil is of the best kind; and I learn from others who have tried it, that it requires but very little dressing. The climate is the most healthy I was ever in. I have exposed myself more since I have been here than I have all the rest of my life, and never was so well and and hearty. The water is excellent. I saw some corn that grew on Messrs. Wells and Lombard's farm last season, with but little or no dressing, that knocks the down-east corn all to nothing. We have some squashes and melons that grew here, that would make a man groan to litt them. Potatoes turn out well in most places, but it has been too dry for them to do much. A large portion of the settlers are from Maine and Massechusetts, and of the best kind as far es 1 know. Land that was bought a year ago for $30 an acre, has since been sold at the rate of $400 per acre. The land 1 bought two months since for $25 per acre, I will not now sell for $70 per scre. The place is growing very fast, and is destined, in my opinion, to be a large place. CHAS. E. ROBERTS. Letter from a settler from Worcester, Mass. - The soil, clima'e, Water. &c. HAMMONTON, N. J., Oct 20, 1858. SIR .- In regard to my views of this place, I will say that I came here last April, with the intention of locating if I liked it. I was pleased with the place from the first time I came; I have purchased a lot and built me a house, and intend to reside here. Total abstinence principle. The soil and climate I think unsurpassed in any State in the Union : The soil and climate I think unsurpassed in any State in the Union; heing situated between the hot and debilitating South and the cold and changeable North, we escape the extremities of both, and enjoy a cli-mate mild, temperate, and delightful. In the hottest days of last sum-ner we almost invariably had a cool refreshing breeze through the middle of the day. Of the fertility of the soil, and its capacity to pro-duce, I am more convinced each day, and all I regret is, that I had not known of the place accessing instand of a few months. The vector is known of the place years ago, instead of a few months. The water is excellent, soft, pure, and abuncant, and appears quite free from mineral substances. And from the past season's products, I should be unwilling to change my ten acres here, for any twenty acres in New England, my native land, Yours respectfully, Yours respectfully, J. WOODBURN. THE subscriber (as usual) thankful for past favors, fully prepared by an experienced hand. yet this season, the instance I never knew before, and as for mysel, I was quite thin when I left Maine, since coming here my appetite is good, and I am able to do a good day's labor. The people from the East, after living here a while, may take this appetite, they call it the Jersey appetite—it is the only disease that prevails here. As for the soil, it is very good. I have seen corn grow as stout here as in any other State. Mr. Hoys told me that he raised would intimate to the Public that having always on hand a good supply of each of the above articles, he is prepared to fill all orders entusted to his care, with promptness and fidelity. 	MEMORY.—So much of our early gladness vanishes utterly from our memory; we can never recall the joy with which we lay our heads on our mother's bosom, or rode on our father's back in childhood; doubtless that joy is wrought up into our nature, or as the sunlight of long past mornings is wrought up into the soft mellowness of the apricot; but it is gone forever from our imagination, and we' can only believe in the joy of childhood. But the first glad moment in our first love is a vision which re- turns to us the last, and brings with it a thrill of feeling intense and special as the recurrent sensa- tion of a sweet odor breathed in afar off hour of happiness. It is a memory that gives a more ex- quisite touch to tenderness, that feels the madness	арг 30. JOHN H.
