The remainder of the afternoon was passed in various ways by different members, until time came for the return, when the whole party sought their homes, having spent a quiet, agreeable and social day together.

The Twelfth of July is a day which, -apart from any noisy demonstrations, or public pageants and shows, by way of evincing a desire to keep in cherished recollection the event it commemorates,should awaken in the minds of all Protestants feelings deep and sacred. Indeed, to all true lovers of freedom-of moral, social, and political freedomthere are reflections incident to the Twelfth of July of the most grateful character. Time and space will not permit us to enlarge upon this subject now; but this we may say, neither Protestantism or Orangeism prompts men to, or excuses them for, noisy brawling, drunkenness, or ill natured or vindicti e remarks; and without saying further now. we assure all that the teachings of the Orange organization are calculated to promote charity, peace and temperance This is a hint; but, brief as it is, will be understood by those for whom particularly adapted.

The following account of a most fearful and melancholy accident, by which two individuals-a lady and gentleman-lost their lives, we take from the Head Quarters. Many of our readers will recollect the fact that the wife of Mr. Johnson, now lady received resulting in her death :

Kossuth and the WAR -M. Kossuth has issued TELEGRAPHIC. the following address to the Hangarian exiles residing in the United States :

At the time of the late Crimean War several o my exiled fellow countrymen brought great misery upon themselves by throwing up their situations. and leaving the United States for Europe, without having taken care to ascertain whether or not cir-comstances warranted the step. I lear the present state of European affairs, together with partly vague, partly exaggerated, partly unfounded reports, may have a similar

I consider it, therefore, to be my duty to warn my exiled fellow countrymen in America, that it is not yet time for them to move. Grave considerations forbid my entering en premature explanations. Suffice it to say that, though the sky is brightening promisingly, we have yet great difficulties to overcome. Canada arrived at Halifax yesterday, and Æina Due care is taken, not only of the interest of our at New York to day. Both bringing Liverpool country, but also especially of their personal in-

They shall be apprized in due time. But the time has not yet come. Let them patiently, let them confidently wait. Any inconsiderate rashness might bring personal rain on them, without the slightest advantage to the public cause. Kossuta.

Penny Davis: Sin,-The benefite I have received from the uso of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to pen a word of praise for it. Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, Severe Chills, Wearlness, Common Colds, Hoarsquess, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhona, Dysentery, Toothache, &c. there is nothing better than the Pala Killer. I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Readache, by using two tenspoonfuls taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine glass ful of hot water. I am confident that, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the cholera during the summer of 1843. Travelling sixteen lieutenant colonels six majors, ters captains, amid heat, dust, toil, change of diet and constant exposure to an and one I entenant, hesides forty eight ex-officers of infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Kither was a present volunteer force of the kingdom is represented sovereign remedy, one teaspoonful curing the worst ense in an by about fifty off ers of the years tary cavalry, and hour, or at the most half a day.
