In the meantime Mrs. Vansittart had become a convert to Roman Catholicism. The beating continued, and there were serious quarrels about money matters. In 1856 Mr. Vansittart declared that his "hatred and aversion" towards his wife was so great that he could no longer live with her, and a deed of separation was prepared, whereby Mr. The Pacific, from Galway 24th, with Liverpool Vansittart promised to pay his wife £120 a year. This he had not done. The jury immediately returned a verdict for the plaintiff for the full
