To the Editor of the Carleton Sentinel. Sir. - While on a transitory visit to your county last summer, I had the pleasure of an agreeable no quaintance with your valuable little paper; and tuan position of affairs being unchanged. th ugh I have some months since returned to this ambitious city, by your kindness I have been permitted to enjoy nearly all the advantages of a regwar subscriber. Thus I am enable I to keep an eye on what of interest transpires in that portion of Queen Victoria's dominions, where the great principles of right and human progress are faithfully

The Christmas Holidays are now past, and the social and intellectual recreations, in the form of tea parties, soirees. &c , so common at this season of the year, have pretty much subsided for a time. They have given place to something more impor tant. Your readers are doubtless aware that, by general coment of the Christains in England, Ameries and other parts of the world, the week he ginning with the 18th instant, was to be set apart for united and special prayer to God " For the ontpouring of his spirit on all flesh." In accordence with this, the different evangelical denominations of christians in Toronto resolved to hold upion prayer meetings every evening of the week that is now past, in the chapels of the different churches in town. These meetings have been of the most interesting character. On each occasion the house was filled with an orderly, calm, worship ing assembly. Such is the prevailing feeling, that urrangements have been made to have these meetings continue through another week.

The order of those metings is complete; and such is the unity and cordiality with which the loss. different denominations blend together in ther supplications as to gladden the hearts of all who love to see the children of God dwelling together as bretheren.

Besides these evening meetings there has been a onion noonday meeting held daily in the second Congregational Chapel, This also, by general consent, is to be continued for at least another week, and many express the hope that it will be come a permanent in titution of this city, so that the multitud is can, throughout the year, with joy resort thither, and hail

"The p eaceful hour, supremely blest, Amid the hours of worldly cares; The hour that yields the spirit rest That sacre it hour -the hour of prayer."

As long as these neetings keep up, may the Lord be there.

To the Editor of the Carleton Sentinel? It is difficult for a person in a public office to preparation, without starting the blood, and the soreness satisfy all parties, and the duties in a Large Parish all taken away, and effectually cured. like Woodstock, (as you know, Mr Rditor) require some attention and time without being call, d upon to answer scurrilous scribblers; but the above be ing of a scandalous character requires some re- List of Non-Residents for the Parish of marks.
