THE SACRED BONES OF HIS ANCESTORS .- We heard 8 good story a few days since, which is too good to be reserved for private use and must therefore pass into print. When it was proposed many years ago to continue the Boylston street, Boston, mail to its junction through Charles street, there was naturally a errong opposition manifested by those who owned tombs, which would be thus closed up. By persuasion, and the assurance that new tombs would be built at the other side, for those thus de prived of their property, all opposition finally ceased with the exception of the steadfast resolution of one gentleman who seemed immovable. The Mayor of the city called upon him, to urge his acquiescing in this great public improvement, but he was deaf to all appeal. "The bones of my revered ancestors, said he, "have lain there for over a hundred years I respect their memory, and their dust shall not b disturbed while I can help it. If I am obliged, will stand there with a naked sword, and he touches them at his peril who dares invade the sanctity of that spot. Argument was useless, and in the hope that he would vield, the new tombs were built, and when completed, the Mayor called upon the guardian of the revered bones, and took him to see them. He offered him his first choice of the row, and their neat, commodious, and cleanly appearance, quite captivated the gentleman. He promised to think about it, and the next day he called upon his Honor, "I've come," said he, "to accept your proposition. I have selected No. 21." "Ah," exclaimed the Mayor, "I am delighted to hear you say so, and to show you how glad I am, I wish you would take your sexton and have the sacred bones of your ancestors deposited in the new tomb, and I will see his bill paid." " No sir," retorted the irascible gentleman, "I'll do no such thing. I'm not going to have that new tomb soiled by any old bones, I assure you."-N. Y. Sunday Allas.

THE WINE TRADE OF FRANCE .- Five million acres of French soil are devoted to grape culture, Dried Brandywine CORN MEAL, for sale by producing annually over eight hundred million gallons of wine, at an average cost of ten cents per gallon. From its cheapness, it is an almost universal drink of the people. In Paris it computed that each inhabitant consumes 216 bottles of wine in a TEGS to announce that she will resume her business, year. In the wine districts of France, each person takes 730 bottles in the same period. While wine is thus a universal beverage with the Frenchman, the Englishman spends his money for coarser and more stimulating beverages. The population of Great Britain, upon the most correct estimate that can be made, consume nearly four hundred millions of gallons of ale and beer, over thirty millions of gallons of spirits, and six millions five hundred Would beg leave to inform the inhabitants of Woodstock thousand gallons of wine.

The average yield of French vinyards is 450 gallons per acre, and total annual value of the produce about eighty four millions of dollars. Eleven milions gallons of brandy are distilled from eightyeight million gallons of wine, and the quantity exported of wine and brandy is only one-seventh of of the entire production. The total value of the brandy produced in France is about twelve millions of dollars, at an average cost of forty-eight cents per gallon. The culture, manufacture and selling of French wines employ two millions of people.

YANKEE COURTSHIP .- Jonathan Bumbatter saw Prudence Feastall at meeting. Jonathan sided up to Prudence arter meeting, and she kinder sided off. He went closer, and axed her if she would accept the crook of his arm. She resolved she would, and plumped her arm right through his'n. Jonathan felt alloverish, and said he liked the text; " seek and ye shall find," was purty good readin'. Prudence hinted that "ask and ye shall receive," was Leather, together with an assortment of all the various much better; Jonathan thought so too; but this styles to be found in the London, New York and Boston axing was a puzzler. " Now don't," said Pru, and she guv Jonathan's arm an involuntary hug. He was a little startled, but thought his farm wanted some female help to look arter the house. "Pru, do you know how to make real good bread?" "Now don't," said Pru. "If I should," said Jonathan. "Now don't," said Pru. "Maybe you wouldn't --- " and Jonathan shuck all over; and Prudence replied, "If you be coming that game, you'd better tell feyther. "That's jist what I want," said Jonathan, and in TWO HUNDRED PLOUGHS! three weeks Jonathan and Prudence were "my old man," and "my old woman."

The "local" of the Cleveland Herald, attempting to compete with the Cincinnati reporters in sensation items, gets up a fearful accident to a lion in Van Amburg's meagerie. Some brute spit tobacco juice in his eyes to make him roar. He was so maddened he jumped through the bars of the cage and hitting the pole of the tent split himself completely through from head to tail. The emergency THE Subscriber would beg to call attention to his large required promptness. In the flush times of Vicksburg, when the phrase "hard case" meant something more than it does now, Harvey Jenkins was admittedly one of the hardest. By some accident, Harvey found himself at church one evening. The sermon being over, the preacher requested all who were friendly to religion to rise and hold up their right hands. The whole audience, apparently, rose to their feet. After they were seated again, the minister continued, "now if there is a single one here who desires to see Satan and his kingdom prosper, he will rise and hold up his hand." Harvey, with some difficulty, got into an erect position, and said : "Had the vote been less unanimous, I should have retained my seat; but I make it a point of honor never to Corner Queen & Regent Streets, Fredericton. abandon a friend under adverse circumstances.'

Drugs, Medicines, &c.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, cruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must rehovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and Skin Diseases, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DIS-EASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and. indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIA-TED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC. are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appe-tite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the nonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to
