NEW SPRING GOODS!

SPRING SUPPLY

A GHOST STORY .- We were returning from our spring meeting of Presbyters-one gentleman and two young ladies-in a " rockaway," and the roads none of the best. Night, coid and damp, overtook being unusually large, and having been selected with us eight or ten miles from home, but only a short distance from Judge Blank's. Knowing that we should find outside the Judge's door the latch- It consists in part of a SPLENDID ASSORTMENT string, and inside a warm welcome, a warm fire, and a warm supper, beside beds which we could warm for ourselves-for he was a good Presbyterian -we unhesitatingly consigned ourselves to his hospitalities.

Desultory.

Supper being over, and our persons disposed according to our several tastes in a semi-circle before an old-fashioned biazing fire, we were just in the mood to enjoy the entertainment of our host's conversational gifts. Among other things be narrated the following unique tale, which we unminiously agreed to put in print. This, however, 1 believe, he has not done, and hence I volunteer to send it to you, for insertion in the Pre-butterian, if you so please. Though writing from memory, and, not being a Pope, fallible at the hest, yet the deep impression made upon my mind by the story will prevent my going astray, except in minutize. Said the Judge substantially as follows :

". Years ago, we had in our house a sweet little child, about four years old, the object of course, of a very tender affection. But sickness laid his hand upon it. Remedies promptly resorted to, all proved in vain. Day after day the roses faded from the cheek, and the fire in the eyes burned low; and at length death closed those eyes, and sealed the lips forever; and we learned by bitter experience, how intense a darkness follows the quenching of one of these little lights of life.

... The time rolling sadly on, brought us at length to the hour appointed for committing our treasure to the ordinarily sure custody of the grave. The friends assembled, the customary services were held, the farewell taken, and the little form securely shut beneath the well screwed coffin lid, and in due time the grave received its trust. We looked on and Drugs, Medicines, &r.

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints : --

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS. ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS. PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM. SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AF-FECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEU-RALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYS-PEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation, of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloguy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.
