

DIED.

Suddenly at her residence, Kent County Carleton, July 29th, Hannah, beloved wife of Mr. Edward H. Kearney, and youngest daughter of the late Deacon Joseph Snow, formerly of Lower Granville, N. S., aged 56 years. Nova Scotia and Canada place obituary. Funeral services performed by Rev. S. G. Orser, who preached a very solemn and affecting sermon, to a large and attentive congregation from the 14th Chapter and 13th verse of Revelation. She professed religion when 15 years of age, under the Rev. Clarke Allen, during which time she has been a consistent member of the church militant, and has now gone to join the church triumphant.

Her languishing head is at rest,
No thinking and aching are o'er;
This quiet unmovable breast
Is heaved by affliction no more.

At her residence in Woodstock, on the 17th inst., Joseph F. Beall, aged 21 years and 2 months, an old and much respected inhabitant of the Parish, leaving a widow and seven children, twenty-one grand children, and two great-grand children, with a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. St. John papers please copy.

G. K. GOODWIN & CO.'S
ROYAL MENAGERIE
—AND—
GREAT MORAL EXHIBITION!

For attraction, a Menagerie surpasses anything that can possibly be gotten up. The innocent recreation and instruction it affords are universally acknowledged on all sides. It derives its support from the learned, the moral and the religious. Menageries are regarded as orthodox, and the Elephant and the Monkey find an audience in places where the Equestrian exercises are prohibited by legal statute.
