Friends in Council-New Series. AN EXACTING HUSBAND .- Wycherly, the comedian, married a girl of eighteen when he was verg- as well as in Childrens' Clothing, &c., &c., in the latest and ing on eighty. Shortly after, Providence was pleas- most fashionable styles. ed in his mercy to the young woman to remove the old man to another and better world. But ere he took his final departure from this world; he summoned his young wife to his bedside, and announced to her that he was dying, whereupon she wept bittterly. Wycherly lifted himself up in his bed, and gazing with tender emotion on his weeping wife, as in their lightest play and most trivial pleasures.

And as for these pleasures, they may be disposed of

With a convulsive effort and desperate resolution, she gasped out an assurance that his commands, however dreadful they might be, should be obeyed. Then Wycherly, with a ghastly smile, said in a low and solemn voice :

"My beloved wife, the parting request I have to make of you is-that when I am gone-[here the poor woman sobbed and cried most vehemently]when I am in my cold grave-[Mrs. Wycherly tore her hair]-when I am laid low-[the disconsolate] wife roured with grief]-when I am no longer a heavy burden and a tie on you-[. O, for heaven's sake!' howled Mrs. Wycherly, 'what am I to do!'] -I command you, my dear young wife-[ yes, yes, love,' sobbed Mrs. W.]-on pain of incurring my be able to give satisfaction. malediction-[ 'yes, dear,' grouned the horror stricken wife] - never to marry an old man and Repairs neatly executed, at moderate charges.

Mrs. Wycherly dried her eyes, and in the most fervent manner promised that she never would, and that faithful woman kept her word for life.

GETTING THE BEST OF A LANDLORD -As I was THE subscriber begs leave to inform his friends and travelling through the mines of California, "way 1 the public generally that he has up North "-as the northern part of that state is called-I stopped for a few days at one of the ho- to the store formerly occupied by Mr. GEO. When about to leave, (third door above his old stand,) Main-street, where he and Wash-boards, for sale very low for money, I inquired of the landlord the size of my bill. He has on hand :-

"Let me see; five days at two fifty is twelve fifty, and one meal at six bits is thirteen dellars and twenty-five cents-altogether." "How much do you charge per week?" queried

"Twelve dollars a week," was the landlord's an-"And you ask thirteen dollars and two bits for a little more than five days?" asked I. "Yes," replied mine host; "for any time less than a week, we charge by the day-except it is less than a single day, when we are paid six bits a meal, and four bits for lodging." "And you charge your boarders twelve dollars a week?" added I.

'That's my price." "Guess I'll finish the week then," responded I which after paying the required amount, I proceeded to do.

The landlord was for a moment nonplussed; but he acknowledged he was beat for once. MUSIC IN HEAVEN .- A poor laborer in a certain village died after a long illness, and having escaped the turmoil of existence, presented himself at the gate of heaven, where he found he had been preceded by a rich man of the same locality who had just died, and having previously knocked, had been admitted by the apostle Peter. The laborer, who stood without, was enchanted by the ravishing sound of rejoicing and sweet music, which appeared to hail the entrance of the rich man, and having knocked in his turn, was also admitted. But what was his astonishment at finding silence where seraphie sounds had so lately been joyously uttered. "How is this?" he demanded of Peter

"when the rich man entered I heard music and singing; is there, then, the same distinction between rich and poor is Heaven as on earth?" "Not at all," replied the apostle; "but the poor come to Heaven every day, whereas it is scarceudmission."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints: -

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS. ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AF-PECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEU-RALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYS-PEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF

THE BLOOD. This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation, of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it. but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else. During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of oblogay which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on has you for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.
