SATURDAY, AUGUST 11, 1860.

The Visit of the Prince of Wales. tinguished gentlemen who accompanied an appearance which cannot be excelled. him have, we may hope, seen enough of . ces. Of one thing they must be more ilar display was never witnessed within the memory of the oldest inhabitant. Transparencies, of every imaginable House. alty and affection for the Queen and Her devices, wreaths of evergreen, etc., attracted the attention royal family, for in which ever direction no mater in what direction the seeker after strange sights rambled, We were glad to perceive that the managers monstrations of that feeling. Our readers buildings to be brilliantly illuminated with gas jets. The will no doubt expect that we should oc- illumination in front of the Court House was really magcupy considerable space with a detailed nificent. Everywhere the people seemed to vie with each account of the arrival of the Prince and The Fireworks on King Square under the superintend his reception. In order to be in a posi- ence of Colonel S. K. Foster were really magnificent, and was suspended, and the same kind of detion to do this, we visited St. John and reflect great credit upon all concerned. we shall borrow from our cotemporary of plain clothing. the Courier its brief but sufficient account of the landing, reception, &c., in St John. tion of the press was cared for and accom- filled with people of every rank, age, the most noticeable of the buildings deco- a ound the "Silvafilia nobilis."

The proceedings of the day were ushered in by the firing of cannon at 6 o'cleck from the Barrack Green by a number of regulars belonging to the Artillery.

At half-past 10 o'clock His Royal Highness stepped from the goods in them was better it appeared the deck of M. M. Steamer "Styx," which was lying off to us than in any of the St. John stores.

Reed's Point, to the Captain's cutter, in company with ing the bank of the river, and riding in In the name of the Queen I thank you for the expreshis suite, while the order to man the yards was promptly carriages, further down, on the look-out In the former store the windows were ilattended to by the sailors. The moment the catter left for the steamer; and the windows of the luminated with gas jets, while on the doors have always animated Her. heights announced his disembarkation. On arriving at houses in the vicinity of the wharf, and in the same style appeared the initials V. In my own name also I thank you for the warm receptor over the Suspension Bridge through Carthology and the landing place the moment he started and a short he warm receptor. the landing place the moment he stepped on shore he was greeted with loud, prolonged and deafening cheers which were suitably and modestly acknowledged. He was received by His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor and by him presented to his Worship the Mayor and the civil and him presented to his Worship the Mayor and the civil and him presented to his Worship the Mayor and the civil and some are of the warm reception. In my own name also I thank you for the warm reception in the Styre appeared the His Royal Highest to Richard warm reception. In my own name also I thank you for the warm reception in the Styre appeared the His Royal Highest to Richard warm reception. In my own name also I thank you for the warm reception in the Styre appeared the His Royal Highest to Richard warm reception. In my own name also I thank you for the warm reception in the Styre appeared the His Royal Highest to Richard warm reception in the Styre thank you for the warm reception in the Suspension Bridge through Carliet on, visiting the mills of the hon. John Roberts of the Richard warm reception in the styre appeared the His Royal Highest to Richard warm reception in the Suspension Bridge through Carliet on, visiting the mills of the hon. John Roberts of the Suspension Bridge through Carliet on, visiting the mills of the hon. John Roberts of the Suspension Bridge through Carleton, visiting the mills of the hon. John Roberts of the Suspension Bridge through Carleton, visiting the mills of the hon. John Roberts of the Suspension Bridge through Carleton, visiting the mills of the hon. John Roberts of the Suspension Bridge through Carleton, visiting the mills of the hon. John Roberts of the Suspension Bridge through Carleton, visiting the mills of the hon. John Roberts of the Suspension Bridge through Carleton, visiting the mills of the hon. John Roberts of the Suspension Bridge through Carleton, visiting the suspension Bridge through Carleton, visiting the suspension Bridge through Carleton, visiting the suspensio military officials in attendance.

Every window and other available space from which a view of the Prince might be obtained as he passed along Two guns were likewise placed at the was occupied by myriads of persons male and female, old Wharf, and two more at Government fully arranged, completed the embellishand young, alike anxious to catch a glimpse of their fature Sovereign; and we need not say the utmost enthisiasm was manifested by all.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CHILDREN.

On arriving at the grounds in front of the temporary residence of His Royal Highness, the Sunday School Chil- were waiting to take their position as John A. Street Esq., was handsomely ornadren of our City, numbering somewhere in the vicinity of 5,000, very beautifully and appropriately sang the National Anthem. At its conclusion His Royal Highness The first steamer which arrived from and suite retired to refresh the inner man. While St. John was the Tobique, which boat sented a very pretty appearance.

Royal Highness and suite to arrive at the Court House, the procession filed past in order to give them an opportunity ligence, that the of witnessing the pleasing sight. We might here observe

ADDRESS.

Garter, &c. &c., &c -:-

ness, which were by him suitably acknowledged.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR ROYAL HIGHNESS. We, the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Saint John, hasten to approach Your Royal Highness for the purpose of welcoiming to New Brunswick the heir apparent to the throne, and the future Severeign of that great Empire of which it is our pride to form a portion, and the filled with several hundreds of them, from the purpose of which it is our pride to form a portion, and the future Severeign of that to do the music for the Prince on the filled with several hundreds of them, from the purpose of which it is our pride to form a portion, and the future Severeign of that to do the music for the Prince on the filled with several hundreds of them, from the purpose of which it is our pride to form a portion, and the future Severeign of that to do the music for the Prince on the filled with several hundreds of them, from the purpose of welcoiming to New Brunswick the heir dren. The pavillion so appropriated was highly intellectual-looking English gentlement.

We must leave any further remarks sugand over which the benificent sway of our beloved Queen passage. day by day strengthens those ties which happily unite us to the mother country.

Among us is still to be found a remnant of those who, In the last century, witnessed and partook of the joy and are now engaged, vouchsafe to assure our Most Gracious queen, that peace and contentment are found among us under her rule, and that love and attachment to Her perturbed the Government and Legislature, the Mayor

·By order of the Common Council, W. R. M. Burtis, Common Clerk.

GENTLEMEN :-

which has brought them to these shores.

It might be as well in inserting the address and reply to remark that, after the address had been read by His Monor the Recorder on behalf of the Corporate Body, it was handed to the Common Clerk, and from him His It was suggested that a torch-light pro- of the Nation. Royal Highness in person received it, instead of as, we understand, is the usual course at the new hands of the Colenial Secretary, the Duke of Newcastle. On reading the and therefore the Firemen of Fredericton and refinement of the Old World, we believe that you will mittee for some weeks. In order to afford and direct which he did in a months of the Old World, we believe that you will mittee for some weeks. In order to afford and direct which he did in a months which he did in a month which he did in a months which he did in a month reply, which he did in a manly, clear and distinct tone,
His Royal Highness in person handed it to the Common Clerk. This was, to those acquainted with Court etiquette, they carried out in a most satisfactory

Immense pleased with the energy of the people and their success; space for it two temporary wings had and that Your Royal Highness will receive new proof of their fitness for self-government, of their loyalty to the been added to the Legislative Council turned to his residence accompanied by his suite.

ILLUMINATION-FIRE WORKS. other in making a brilliant display.

We now take up our own notes:-

anxiously making their way to the vicinity House," which with its wreaths of ever- safely home again to the land of our Fathers, and the of the wharf at which the Prince was greens and Chinese lanterns, looked well. sunshine of the Royal domestic circle. expected to land; and soon the bank of The dry goods stores of John Thomas & the river from Gaynor's corner to the Co. and John McDonald looked beautiful; following Cathedral was crowded. Beside these, the taste displayed in the arrangement of

His Royal Highness and suite were then conducted to carriages provided for the purpose and was escented through the lines formed by the different militia companies, so-cieties and engine companies in Prince William Streets, to his temporary dwelling at the late Judg Chipman's manifest that these virtues man end of Captain Baird, was drawn up upon the wharf A detachment of Colonel Foster's St. John Artillery, that constant the Prince companies in full uniform, trades, National Sections, Sons of Sons THE GUARD OF HONOR, senting a splendid appearance, - under command of their Major, Judge Wilmot,- left Fredericton on Thursday morning, carrying quite a large party, chiefly from that the time occupied by the procession in passing the Court House was upwards of half an hour. It may be had been sighted. This steamer, looking pany was marched to the Cathedral by Prince arrived ascented by the Dragoons. guns on the Flats, with a royal salute, sion dressed in plain clothes. The sermon ed the remaining gentlemen of his suite. which was repeated by those at the wharf by the Lord Bishop we have heard spoken When the Prince ascended the platform His Royal Highness and suite then retired to the Su- as the steamer approached it, while the very highly of. In the afternoon we be- the water was let on to the fourtain, but preme Court Room which was handsomely prepared for the purpose, and received from the Corporate Body the feelings in cheers as loud and hearty as Spring Hill Church and there attended management or malicious interference, it To His Royal Highness Albert Edward Prince of Wales, the intensity of their emotions would per- service. The other places of worship in did not work well, the stream of water be-Duke of Armall and Rothsay, Earl of Dublin, Baron of Renfrew, Knight of the most Noble Order of the mit. On board the Forest Queen, in addition to the suite; of the Prince and the ed, and the visit referred to in appropriate We, the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City Governor, was the members of the Exe-terms.

enthusiasm with which Your Royal Highnesses' Grandfather, the Duke of Kent, was received on his visit to this then infant City; upon the Founders of which, in token one of the Royal appropriation which in token
one of the Royal appropriation which in token
one of the Royal appropriation which in token
one of the Royal appropriation with which Your Royal Highnesses' Grandfalarge and handsome one. The Prince seeing all that was to be seen on this gala
one of the Royal appropriation which, in token
one of the Royal appropriation with which Your Royal Highnesses' Grandfalarge and handsome one. The Prince seeing all that was to be seen on this gala of the Royal appropriation with which Your Royal Highnesses' Grandfalarge and handsome one. The Prince seeing all that was to be seen on this gala of the Royal appropriation with which Your Royal Highnesses' Grandfalarge and handsome one. The Prince seeing all that was to be seen on this gala of the Royal appropriation with which Your Royal Highnesses' Grandfalarge and handsome one. The Prince seeing all that was to be seen on this gala of the Royal appropriation of the National anthem. Subsequently one of the Royal appropriation of the Prince seeing all that was to be seen on this gala of the Royal appropriation of the Prince seeing all that was to be seen on this gala of the Royal appropriation of the National anthem. Subsequently one of the Royal appropriation of the Prince seeing all that was to be seen on this gala of the Royal appropriation of the National anthem. of the Royal approbation, great benefits nad been recently the whole length of it to the stairs which the Third.

Charter of His Majesty, George had been arranged for the purpose, thus At 11 o'clock the Prince held a Levee sented the Prince with a boquet, which racter. And in the just pride we declare to Your Royal Highness that the feelings of loyalty and attachment to the Crown which led to these shores the founders of this City, still eminently characterize the entire population of this Colony.

And in the just pride we declare to Your Royal Highat Government House, at which some she informed the Prince was composed of the Province,
some of our hands, we were unable to issue lativo, military and civil, were presented.

Comment House, at which some three hundred gentlemen and adopted Commissioners in the following to our own absence and that of three hundred gentlemen at Government House, at which some of our hands, we were unable to issue three hundred gentlemen, clerical, legislativo, military and civil, were presented.

Colony.

Colony. It is our prayer that Your Royal Highness will, after a prosperous termination of the extended progress through and the Duke of Newcastle, and preceded Her Majesty's North American dominions in which you and followed by carriages containing the son and Crown is the common sentiment of Her devoted subjects in this, the commercial capital of Her Province of New Brunswick.

THOMAS M'AVITY,

THOMAS M'AVITY,

Thomas in the common sentiment to Her perfect of the Councillors of Fredericton, High Sheriffs of York and Carleton, &c., proceeded up Queen Street to Smyth Street, through Smyth Street to King Street, and thence to Government House, during the whole line of the procession the most lively the Legislature, and People of New Brunswick, offer to not whether they were finally scccessful. demonstrations of regard meeting the I thank you with all sincerity for the Address which you have just presented to me, and for the welcome which it conveys to the colony of New Brunswick, and the important City of which you are the Municipal Representatives.

When my Grandfather the Duke of Kent, paid to this place the visit to which you make so gratifying a reference has found it little more than a village. It is my good for place the visit to which you make so gratifying a reference form a city which you make so gratifying a reference form of its little more than a village. It is my good fortune to receive on the same spot—from a city which affords a striking example of what may be effected under the influence of free institutions by the spirit and energy of the British race—these demonstrations of love and loyalty to commercial enterprize has made this Port the Emperium of the trade of New Brunswick; and as the noble River which flows into it brings down for the export the products of your soil, so I trust the vessels which crowd is could see a likeness to his found in the products of your soil, so I trust the vessels which crowd is could see in his face a likeness to his found in the flow in the products of your soil, so I trust the vessels which crowd is could see in his face a likeness to his found in the flow in the products of your soil, so I trust the vessels which crowd is constructed and pleased expression of the products of your soil, so I trust the vessels which crowd is constructed and the life in the found in attendance. The Band of which was also in attendance, the British Isles—all ardently attached to British Institutions. The British Isles—all ardently attached to British Isles—all ardently attached to British Isles—all ardently attached the British Isles—all ardently attached to British Isles—all ardently attached to British Isles—all ardently attached the British Isles—all ardently attached to products of your soil, so I trust the vessels which crowd its could see in his face a likeness to his pires will reward your successful industry with the wealth of other lands.

Could see in his face a fixeless to his lection of many of the old inhabitants, the time when your lection of many of the old inhabitants are I am not unmindful of the origin of this city, and it will discern by his manner that he possessed fer with pleasure to his benignity and courtesy. be a subject of pride and pleasure to me to report to the Queen that the descendants of its founders have not departed from the firm attachment to the Crown of England gree which has made the Queen revered upon the model of its great original Parent state; but it dined with the Prince at Government Queen's Wharf, and conducted him to carriage, drove from by all nations and all people.

TORCH-LIGHT PROCESSION.

of our Agents, Way Office Keepers or subscri- Bridge. This was a dissappointment to the inhabitants bers of his suite, &c., and remained while honour. bers would notify us of any such omissions. of Carleton who, we believe, were prepared to give him it marched past, and while a succession of ed congratulations, we would invoke the continuance of cheers were being given for himself, the decorations throughout various parts of the City agreeably dissappointed our expectations. Where there was so much to admire it would perhaps be inviduous to particularize. The arch in Prince William Street, contrative to the expectations of many, after all presented a pleasure which a sight of this very ry to the expectations of many, after all presented a pleas- the pleasure which a sight of this very ing spectacle. The arch at the entrance to the residence imposing procession afforded the Prince, on King Square, the arch at Nos. 2, 3 and 4 Engine Houses and the ornamental work at all the others are deserving of especial mention. In King Street, Carleton, there was telegraph post from the Attn'y. General's and for you happiness. residence up to the place of landing a flag coration appeared in every direction from of engravings, paintings, photographs, &c., with many fancy articles, books, &c., tastenumbering some seventy sabres, and pre-brilliant manner by gas jets arranged in one window to form a Prince's feather and in the other a crown. The residence of mented and illuminated. The Reporter office dressed in wrerths of evergreens pre-and proceeded through several of our streets. Bands of Woodstock, to St. John, to witness the It having been announced that the music were interspersed in several places throughout the procession, who were profuse in their desire to discourse sweet sounds. One of the most attractive features in the sweet sounds. One of the most attractive features in the roccession was No 5 Fire Engine Company. Their engine was drawn by four horses led by four colored months; the roccession was drawn by four horses led by four colored months; the roccession was drawn by four horses led by four colored months; the roccession was drawn by four horses led by four colored months; the roccession was drawn by four horses led by four colored months; the roccession was drawn by four horses led by four colored months; the roccession was drawn by four horses led by four colored months and passed over the platform for the Prince and still that the rocceded rock of a demonstration there. About an hour afterwards, the Anna Augusta, which had left at the same time with the Tobique, was anxious to attend. Arrangements were arrived, bringing a crowd of pleasure-stream of the regular attended for the platform for the Prince would attend divine service in the demonstration there. About an hour afterwards, the Anna Augusta, which had suite to occupy, and likewise side platic the woodstock Rifles, returning from the butch and American Consuls wounded.

DECORATIONS, ILLUMINATIONS, &c.

The woodstock of the received for the platform for the Prince and suite to occupy, and likewise side platic the woodstock Rifles, returning from the butch and American Consuls wounded.

The woodstock of the platform for the Prince and suite to occupy, and likewise side platic the woodstock Rifles, returning from the butch and American Consuls wounded.

The woodstock of the platform for the Prince and suite to occupy, and likewise side platic the woodstock Rifles, returning from the butch and American Consuls wounded.

The woodstock of the demonstration there.

The woodstock of the platform for the Prince and suite to occupy, and likewise side platic the woodstock Rifles, returning from the butch and American Consuls wounded. vast cortege were equally worthy of note, but time and space will not allow us to particularize. After marching through various streets time having been allowed for His through various streets time having been allowed for His children and ladies. Lining this enclosure Personalle.

The Prince of Wales is very youthful Embures and spite to grain the Court House the open to the public, hundreds of whom were was the guard of honor to receive the unable to find entrance. Our Rifle Com- Prince, composed of the various militia was not until the Reign of your august Mother, Her Most Gracious Majesty, Queen Victoria, that the principles of self-government were fully established, with ample power to regulate our trade consistently with the general policy cheers were being given for himself, the the Divine blessing upon Your Illustrious House, and most

THE ADDRESSES.

REPLY OF HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS.

This illustrious personage has made his visit to and departed from our shores. The visit was short, but notwithstanding its brevity, the Prince of Wales and the discovery of Wales and the inhabitants from the country in the city. Have, Miss Fisher and Mrs. By and the inhabitants from the country in the city. Have, Wales and the inhabitants from the country in the city. Have, Wales and the inhabitants from the country in the city. Have, Wales and the inhabitants from the country in the city. Have, Wales and the inhabitants from the country in the city. Have, Wales and the inhabitants from the country in the city. Have, Wales and the inhabitants from the country in the city. Have, Wales and the inhabitants from the country in the city. Have, agriculture on the rich banks of the River which I have no room for complaint on the part of any, traversed, and the smiling aspect of this City, the Capital for the Prince danced in each apartment, On this (Saturday) evening a portion of the Govrenment from your gratifying assurances, of the presperity and the Judges, members of the Govrenment from your gratifying assurances, of the presperity and the Judges, members of the Govrenment from your gratifying assurances, of the presperity and the presperity and the presperity and the gratification of the gratifi our Province to give them a favorable opinion of her people, climate, and resour-opinion of the different public buildings, etc., was vig-opinion of the different public bu Son of your Queen, must earnestly pray that your peace- the company dispersed. The outside de- ening cheers; "God save the Queen," by band. ful avocations may never be disturbed, but in case such misfortune should await the Empire, I rejoice to observe corations of the Province building contown; embarks at 11, in same manner as landed. that in this, as well as the Provinces which I have lately sisted of a triple arch of evergreens at Beautiful day. Town has a gay appearance; everybody These, although not at all extravagant, visited, the self-relying spirit of patriotism prevails,— the entrance, and two large letters, V and delighted. they turned they were met by lively de- of the several Banks adopted the suggestion of a correst and perhaps scarcely as general or as fine mination to protect the national honour which is manifest.

R, with a crown formed out of those col- mination to protect the national honour which is manifest. some instances very fine. From every I beg you to accept my thanks fer your congratulations wilmot.

ADDRESS OF THE CORPORATION:

JAS. S. BEEK, Mayor. His Royal Highness was graciously pleased to make the St. John early hour crowded with teams loaded the different schools of Fredericton, dress- We must leave any further remarks sugwith visitors from the country and pedes- ed in white and blue, and soon after, the gested by the visit until next week, now The Prince Albert from Galway, arrived at six o'-The wharf (M'Lean & Dowling's) is a trians anxious to have an opportunity of Prince being seated, they sung two verses only adding that we have the best authoof Mr. T. G. Allen, came forward and pre- strangers are of the most gratifying cha- ernment withdrew Bank supply Bill-lack of time Prince received the boquet direct from On behalf of the Government, Legislature the hands of the child, and stooped down and the Province, the Atty. General read to catch her words as she lisped out the following Address to the Prince which address. He was evidently pleased. There be resumed on Monday next 13th inst. was replied to in very appropriate and was two photographic instruments on the ground, and the Prince displayed a good To His Royal Highness Albert Edward, Prince of Wales, Duke of Saxony, Duke of Cornwall and Rothsay, Earl of Chester, Carrick, and Dublin, Baron of Renfrew, and Lord of the Isles, K. G.

The Members of the Executive Council for themselves, the Lorichtune and Poorle of New Proposition of the Isles, and We know the Lorichtune and Poorle of New Proposition of the Isles, who there they were finally seccessful. you, the Son of their beloved Sovereign, and the Heir Ap- Cheers greeted the Prince as he left the The visit of Your Royal Highness brings to the recol- a view—or a good one at all events—of an act of condescension which is worthy of being recorded.

THE BALL.

At the conclusion of the Levee His Royal Highess re
At the conclusion of the Levee His Royal Highess re
hundred to the Legislative Council

Several Addresses were presented to His Royal Highess re
hundred to the Legislative Council

Several Addresses were presented to His Royal Highess re
hundred to the Legislative Council

Several Addresses were presented to His Royal Highess re
hundred to the Legislative Council

Several Addresses were presented to His Royal Highess re
hundred to the Legislative Council

Several Addresses were presented to His Royal Highess re
hundred to the Legislative Council

Several Addresses were presented to His Royal Highess re
hundred to the Legislative Council

Several Addresses were presented to His Royal Highess re
hundred to the Legislative Council

Several Addresses were presented to His Royal Highess re
hundred to the Legislative Council

Several Addresses were presented to His Royal Highess re
hundred to the Legislative Council

Several Addresses were presented to His Royal Highess re
hundred to the Legislative Council

Several Addresses were presented to His Royal Highess re
hundred to the Legislative Council

Manuel High Royal Highest re
hundred to the Legislative Council

Several Addresses were presented to His Royal Highest re
hundred to the Legislative Council

Several Addresses were presented to His Royal Highest re
hundred to the Legislative Council

Several Addresses were presented to His Royal Highest re
hundred to the Legislative Council

Several Addresses were presented to His Royal Highest re
hundred to the Legislative Council

Several Addresses were presented to His Royal Highest re
hundred to the Legislative Council

Several Addresses were presented to His Royal Highest re
hundred to the Legislative Council

Addresses were presented to His Royal Highest re
hundred to the Legislative Council

Several Addresses were presented to His Royal Highest re hundred to the At the conclusion of the Levee His Royal Highness re- hundred torches, and the night being dark, We hope that in witnessing the discipline of our Volun- ber and from the Assembly room had been "I sincerely thank you for the addresses presented to his parents reside in Toronto. We hope that in witnessing the discipline of our Volun-

the hon. Mrs. Manners-Sutton; he subse- called the sons." ored lamps, given for the occasion by Judge

FAREWELL!

It was intended that the Prince should To His Royal Highness ALBERT EDWARD, Prince of Wales: leave Fredericton at 6 a. m. on Tuesday; witnessed as far as we were able the various demonstrations; but as we had to rious demonstrations; but as we had to where he will embark on board the Forest Queen, one of the Prince left this morning in the cars at half-past 9 almost all available positions. A row of hearty welcome to the metropolis of New Rrunswick.

The Mayer and City Council of the City of Fredericton, most respectfully greet your Royal Highness, with a right riage at 24 o'clock, the guard of honor hearty welcome to the metropolis of New Rrunswick.

The Mayer and City Council of the City of Fredericton, most respectfully greet your Royal Highness, with a right riage at 24 o'clock, the guard of honor hearty welcome to the metropolis of New Rrunswick.

From the affection we entertain for your Royal Mother hearty welcome to the affection we entertain for your Royal Mother hearty welcome to the affection we entertain for your Royal Mother hearty welcome to the affection we entertain for your Royal Mother hearty welcome to the affection we entertain for your Royal Mother hearty welcome to the affection we entertain for your Royal Mother hearty welcome to the affection we entertain for your Royal Mother hearty welcome to the affection we entertain for your Royal Mother hearty welcome to the metropolis of New Rrunswick. The Mayor and City Council of the City of Fredericton, he arrived at the steamer in a close cartake our sight of these "rough and tumble" | where he will empark on board the Forest Queen, one of the boats of the Union Line, and proceed thonce to Fred. | There | where he will empark on board the Forest Queen, one of the boats of the Union Line, and proceed thonce to Fred. | There | where he will empark on board the Forest Queen, one of the boats of the Union Line, and proceed thonce to Fred. | There | where he will empark on board the Forest Queen, one of the boats of the Union Line, and proceed thonce to Fred. | There | where he will empark on board the forest Queen, one of the boats of the Union Line, and proceed thonce to Fred. | There | where he will empark on board the forest Queen, one of the boats of the Union Line, and proceed thonce to Fred. | There | where he will empark on board the forest Queen, one of the boats of the Union Line, and proceed thonce to Fred. | There | where he will empark on board the forest Queen, one of the boats of the Union Line, and proceed thonce to Fred. | There | where he will empark on board the forest Queen, one of the Union Line, and proceed thonce to Fred. | There | where he will empark on board the forest Queen, one of the Union Line, and proceed thonce to Fred. | There | where he will empark on board the forest Queen, one of the Union Line, and proceed thonce to Fred. | There | where he will empark on board the forest Queen, one of the Union Line, and proceed thonce to Fred. | There | where he will empark on board the forest Queen, one of the Union Line, and proceed thonce the forest Queen, one of the Union Line, and proceed thonce the forest Queen, one of the Union Line, and proceed thonce the forest Queen, one of the Union Line, and proceed thonce the forest Queen, one of the Union Line, and proceed thonce the forest Queen, one of the Union Line, and proceed thonce the forest Queen, one of the Union Line, and proceed thonce the forest Queen, one of the Union Line, and proceed thonce the forest Queen, one of the Union Line, and proceed thonce the forest Queen, o our beloved Queen-we bid You Welcome. From our re- The fog was so dense, however, that it rived at nine this evening. as best we could in the crowd, where there were no opportunities for a very careful were no opportunities for a very careful departure. He very corteeusly acknowledged the frequent attachment to the Constitution which admits of such a until 71 o'clock, when, amid renewed outobservation, much less for making notes, seembled multidude. On this occasion he was dressed in plain clothing.

These state in the Constitution which admits of such a character which a charac arches had nothing about them particularof perpetual sun-light, we bid You Welcome.

In obedience to the universal heart-throb of our Empire gathered to se c-possibly for the last of perpetual sun-light, we bid You Welcome. ly noticeable, the motto, "welcome" in Victoria's Son must be everywhere Welcome through- time—their Prince, and probably their of the landing, reception, &c., in St John.

We may here express the pleasure we feel in learning as we do from the Courier that arrangements were made by which a portangements were made by which a portangements were made by which a portangements were made by which a portangement were motto, "welcome "in large during Your Provincial tour, and see greater developments of will be most interesting portion, and other were motto, "welcome "in large during Your Provincial tour, and see greater developments of the motto, "welcome "in the interest demand of the motto, "welcome "in the follows, during Your Provincial tour, while waiting for the motto, "welcome "in the motto, "welcome "in the follows, and see greater developments of the motto, "welcome "in the interest demand of the motto, "welcome "in the interest demand of the motto, "welcome "in the interest queen steamed and the motto, "welcome "in the interest demand of the motto, "welcome "in the interest demand of the motto, "welcome "in the interest demand of the motto, "welcome and sex, all dressed in holiday attire, and illuminated was the "Barker anxiously making their way to the vicinity House," which with its wreaths of everraces. A large portion of the members of the Legislature, with the Governor, address of the City of Halifax. accompanied the Prince in the steamer to | The greatest enthusiasm everywhere prevails.

The steamer made a quick trip, and was expensive manner. In each window two which you so loudly greated me on Saturday, and the dearches was erected on which suitable mot-

> This was the place of attraction for the themselves well; the companies of Rifle afternoon; and an immense gathering of under Captains Baird and Kilburn parti- clock. Presentations made by Earl St. Germains, Goverpeople, some say the the largest ever con- cularly so. The former clicited, by their gregated in Fredericton, assembled here. appearance and performance very general elegant manner of His Royal Highness. The Park is a magnificent piece of ground commendation, and many of the citizens for the purpose, situated at the upper end of Fredericton felt aggrieved when they In the evening magnificent illumination of whole oity. of the city, opposite Government House. ascertained that the men had to provide Fredericton 9 c'clock this merning. adorned by nature with an undulating their own food and cook it. They camped surface, and with clusters of those lofty out in true military style in the Barrack elms for which New Brunswick is famous. yard. Just as we had reached this point Seats had been erected under every tree. a strain of sweet music came floating into Around the fountain an enclosure had been our sanctum, and we found on enquiring made, within which an awning was erect- that it proceeded from the Woodstock 27th.

ments betoken an active intellect and Ministry dismissed; new cabinet formed.

and intelligent appearance, very observ- of the Galway line to Montreal. ant; in St. John he was dressed in the 5-8. Good demand for money at bank rates. a heavy, reddish beard.

Bruce are both quite elderly-looking gentle- provisions well, including fruit. We have already mentioned the arrange- men, their hair silvered to some extent, the children of the Sabbath Schools. The a paper last week. Our excuse is, went Transfer of Galway steamers to Canadians canto see the Prince.

Telegraphic.

THE ROYAL SQUADRON. ARPIVAL AT NEWFOUNDLAND! GREAT REJOICING!

LEFT FOR HALIFAX!!

French War Steamer Jeastris. thence through triumphal arches to Government House. Procession consisted of Masonic body, St. Andrew's, St. dency. Provisions dull. George's, British, Mechanics, Temperance, Native and Irish Societies, and Volunteer Fire Company. Guard of The work of preparation for the ball Honor, Royal Newfoundland Corps, and first, second, third

> Immense concourse of spectators, and great enthusiasm ADDRESS AND REPLY.

To Way Office Keepers, Agents and Subscribers.

Subscribers.

From disarrangement of our lists, some of our Subscribers may not have received their parpers properly; and we shall feel obliged if nary of our Agents, Way Office Keepers or Subscrib.

The decorations were chiefly confided to disagnesses and suite vision of the Empire; and that if the particular of the Suspension Bridge, and drove a short distance of the British Crown. I trust you will not think me related the variable resources of part of the programme in a manner calculation to report to the Queen your dealers of your real satisfaction.

The decorations were chiefly confided to disspirit which animates the people of the Parent State also prevades this portion of the Empire; and that if the particular of the British Crown. I trust you will not think me related the suspension Bridge, and drove a short distance of the British Crown. I trust you will not think me related the suspension Bridge of the Parent State also prevades this portion of the Empire; and that if the particular of the British Crown. I trust you will not think me related to the city by the part of the programme in a manner calculation to report to the Queen your devotion to her crown of the parent State also prevades this portion of the Empire; and that if the centive dat Government House, the landing on the shore of this the earliest Colonial possession arrived at Government House, the landing on the shore of this the earliest Colonial possession arrived at Government House, the landing on the shore of this the earliest Colonial possession arrived at Government House, the landing on the shore of this the earliest Colonial possession arrived at Government House, the landing on the shore of this the earliest Colonial possession arrived at Government House, the landing on the shore of this the earliest Colonial possession arrived at Government House, the landing on the shore of this the earliest Colonial possession arrived at Government House, the landing on the shore of the British Cr

At 10 o'clock the Prince reached the son, elequently expressed in address from various Bedies in this Town and Harbor Grace. Province buildings, under escort of the "I am charged by the Queen to convey to you the as-

A telegraphic despatch from Newfoundland yesterday

Prince leaves Government House at 10, rides round

" Golden Fleece" sailed at midnight.

* JULY 26. Prince and suits embarked at 10, same coremony as landing. Tremenduous cheering. Fleet sailed at 11, Thursday, morning, for Halifax .-Will call at St, Peters, All hands seemed delighted.

Steamer New York arrived this morning. NEWFOUNDLAND, 27th. Prince's squadron passed Cape Race at 5 o'clook last evening, and was boarded by the Press yacht and messages

Arrival at Halifax. GREAT ENTHUSIASM!

HALIFAX, July 10th, 1860.
The Prince of Wales' squadron came up the harbor at 9

LATEST INTELLIGENCE. ARRIVAL IN ST. JOHN!

(By Telegraph to the Sentinel.)

Sr. John, Saturday Morning, Aug. 2. His Royal Highness the PRINCE OF WALES landed

The PRINCE held Levee at the Court House at one o'nor, and Duke of Newcastle, standing on the Prince's right. Every person much pleased with apparance and The PRINCE after the Levee drove through principal streets of the City-then proceeded to Carleton.

ARRIVAL OF THE CITY OF WASHINGTON.

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE!

of Garibaldi against the Bourbon dynasty Las been distributed, He says. "I am a Royalist, but prefer Victor in appearance, and his manner frank and NAPLES, via Turin, 17th .- Conflict between troops and unassuming. His countenance and move- of refugees who disembarked at Naples—several killed.

unnecessary to state that each body halted as it passed by the Dragoons the Court House, and cheered the Prince, who was stand- Accompanying in the carriage with him passed along, the vast multidude assembled on and about King's Square, numbering some six or seven thousand persons, gave three deafening cheers for His Royal Highness, which were by him suitably acknowledged.

Accompanying in the carriage with him, and expert; sales for two days, 22,140. Prices nuchanged was that of a colonel of the regular army, and expert; sales for two days, 22,140. Prices nuchanged was that of a colonel of the regular army, and expert; sales for two days, 22,140. Prices nuchanged with him, and expert; sales for two days, 22,140. Prices nuchanged but it does not become him to as much and favorable for traffic, exercising a beneficial advantage as does a plain dress.

The Duke of New Castle is a gentle- Nothing important from the House of Commons.

The Duke of New Castle is a gentle- The Daily Post of the 18th says positively that the Gor man of ordinary stature, of commanding erament meant to disellow in toto the proposed transfer London. Tuesday Evening .-- Consols closed 3 1-2 to 93 uniform of a Lord Lieutenant. He wears | Paris, 17th .- Bourse fat; little business; rentes elected

It was stated that private orders had been given to the The Earl of St. Germains and General French press to say as little as possible about Garibaldi.

LATEST INTELLIGENCE.

ARRIVAL OF THE " PRINCE ALBERT." St. Johns, N. F. July 31, 1860.

The Anglo Saxon arrived at Londonderry on Mon-

Parliamentary proceedings unimportant. Govto pass it. Lord Palmerston announced that Gorernment had adopted Commissioners' report to for-Owing to our own absence and that of be raised by annuities, terminable in thirty years.

celled. Steamers henceforth leave Liverpool on Thursday, calling at Liverpool on Friday, commen-We are requested to state that the ducing next steamer. Reported that Galway electors are about to call on Lever to resign his seat in Parter of Mr. McCov's Grammar School will are about to call on Lever to resign his seat in Parter of Mr. McCov's Grammar School will are about to call on Lever to resign his seat in Parter of Mr. McCov's Grammar School will are about to call on Lever to resign his seat in Parter of Mr. McCov's Grammar School will are about to call on Lever to resign his seat in Parter of Mr. McCov's Grammar School will are about to call on Lever to resign his seat in Parter of Mr. McCov's Grammar School will are about to call on Lever to resign his seat in Parter of Mr. McCov's Grammar School will are about to call on Lever to resign his seat in Parter of Mr. McCov's Grammar School will are about to call on Lever to resign his seat in Parter of Mr. McCov's Grammar School will are about to call on Lever to resign his seat in Parter of Mr. McCov's Grammar School will are about to call on Lever to resign his seat in Parter of Mr. McCov's Grammar School will are about to call on Lever to resign his seat in Parter of Mr. McCov's Grammar School will are about to call on Lever to resign his seat in Parter of Mr. McCov's Grammar Mr. McCov

Lord Broughton at statistical Congress explained his remarks to Dallas, relative to presence of negro delegates-disclaimed any intention to insult or dis-

Affairs in Syria unchanged. Matters continued very grave. France actively preparing for powerful intervention, and had notified other Governments, in order to concoct measures. The Sultan wrote to France and England, expressing grief at events, and promising every effort to re-establish order. It was reported that the Prussian Jovernment had expresed great desire to act in harmony with France and

The Neapolitan ministry withdrew negotiations,

The Red Sea Cable resumed working. of the Judges, Members, &c., who were ing Fish, the yards of which were manned, as also those of Hong Kong, June 7th.—Hestilities about to commence. Reported that 12,000 Russian soldiers were marching to Pekin-lacks confirmation. Breadstuffs generally closed with advancing ten-

> London, Tuesday noon.—Consols 914 a 934. SUDDEN DEATH OF A PRINTER .- Mr. Wm. Malloy, & printer in the New York Tribune office, formerly of Toronto, and who who worked in Hamilton some years ago, fell dead on Tuesday evening last, in the Bowery,. Morning newspaper hands often die suddenly from sheer exhaustion