

would such plea be allowed, when called to account for his conduct by Europe? He might even proclaim the dreaded war with England, in one of his fits, if to fits he is subject, and so give to "the English craze" more importance than most people now attach to it. A crazy constitutional sovereign may be taken care of, but who wo will dare to lay hands on a crazy despot? The Russians "fixed ' Paul when he was, they said, out of his senses, but their mode of proceeding was of the roughest, and would not answer for the latitude of France.

FREEMASON'S SIGN .- At an inn in a town not an hundred miles from Cheltenham, several people were sitting round the fire in a large kitchen, apr30. through which there was a passage to other apartments of the house, and among the company there were a travelling woman and a tailor. In this inn there was a lodge of free and accepted masons held, and it being lodge night, several of the members passed through the kitchen in their way to the lodge apartments ; this introduced observations on woman said, there was not so much mystery as the public. people imagined, for that she could show any body the mason's sign. " What " said the tailor, " that of the free and accepted ?" "Yes," she replied, to be confirmed by any of the members whom you and carried in a small leather pocket case. please to nominate." "Why," said he, a woman was never admitted; and how is it possible you could procure it ?" " No matter for that :' added great demand. she, "I will readily forfeit the wager if I do not tunate tailor to accept the challenge, which he at Markets. last agreed to, and the bet was deposited. The woman then got up and took hold of the tailor by the collar, saying "come follow me," which he did, trembling, fearing he was to undergo some some part of the discipline in making a mason, of which he had heard a most dreadful report. She led him into the street, and pointing to the sign of the Lion and the Lamb, asked him whos sign it An excellent article for retailing. was? He answered. "It is Mr. Lodet's (the name of the inkeepeer.)" " Is he a freemason !" "Yes." It is necessary, however, to use this medicine according to the printed directions which accompany each bettle --This may, in some cases, involve self-denial on the part of the patient, but is the only course which brings about restoration to health.

This Medicine is not introduced for the sole purpose of making money, it is a useful article and ought to be generally known. The Proprietor purposes to supply the afflicted poor without charge, upon the recommendation of a respectable party, on condition that the patients will from time to time, make a statement of the effects of the medicine.

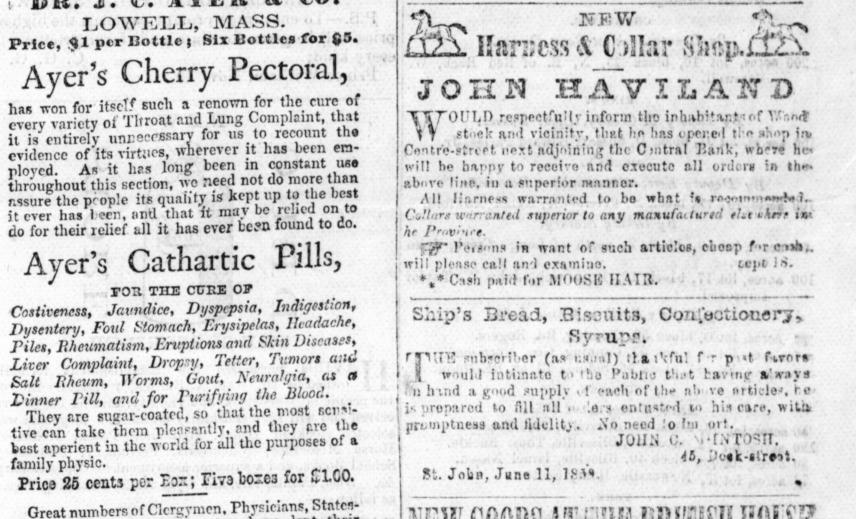

The Tonic Extract will make the flesh firm, give a good appetite, and bring about a regular state of the system; when this happens, of course the spirits will become on livened, and there will be a prospect of health and long

The Proprietor takes the liberty of using the name of the Rev J. Blakeney, Baptist Missionary, for a reference in support of the good qualities of this Medicine.
