SHADOWS ON THE WALL. Beneath the hearth there is an hour of dreaming, A calm and pensive solitude of soul. When life and death have each another seeming, And thoughts are with us owing no control. These are the spirits, memory's revealing, In deep solemnity they rise and fall,

Shrouding the living present, and concealing The world ground us-shadows on the wall. Hopes, like the leaves and blossoms, rudely shaken

By the cruel winds of winter, from the tree Of our existence; phantoms that awaken Wild passing gleams of joy's young cestacy; And love, once kind and fenderly outpouring Her wine into our souls, we may recall. And find them dear and ever heavenward soaring,

Though only now as shadows on the wall. Old clasping hands, old friendship and affections Once bodied form beside us on the earth, Come back to haunt us, ghostly recollections With mystic converse by the silent hearth, Yet these are kindly spirits, and retiring Draw their fong shadows slowly from the walt, And visit us in peace gentleness, inspiring A hope that brings the sunshine after all

A Goose Story.

A most laughable story is told by an English correspondent of the New York Sunday Times of what occurred a short time since on one of the railways running out of London. We thought we were once witnesses and participants of a droll adventure on one of the New York railroads when a lot of hungry and bloodthirsty Hungarian leeches, getting loose from a jar in which they were confined, spread themselves promiseuously over the lower limbs of the passengers, and commenced feeding to the great surprise little in our own way :

sion in question. One was a civil, quiet, modest, well behaved gentleman; the other, who sat opposite him, was a lady, "fat, fair and forty," was also of modest mien and conduct. The train had hardly commenced moving, when the lady suddealy jumped up, and, with a crimson flush on her countenance, exclaimed " How dare you ?"

"Dare what!" said the gentleman in astonish ment. "Insult me in that manner; continued the lady, swelling with indignation. "I am not aware that I have insulted you in any way, form or manner;" retorted the gentleman, inhis countenance.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades that whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause. One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as Enupriva and Skin Diseases, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, OF ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and Boils, Tumors, Terrer and Sall RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM. SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid. without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificated of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints : Costireness, Heartburn, Meadache, arising from disordered stomach, Nausea, Indigestion Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Platulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaimdice, and other kindred comtion of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Crony Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate dia eases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this had gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.
