A CARD.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY OF VICTORIA. presenting every section of this County, I now offer you my services as a Candidate at the approaching Election, on which occasion you will have the privilege of accept-

In coming forward as a Candidate for your suffrages, In coming forward as a Candidate for your suffrages, raw materials, machinery, manufacturers, or fine arts, will be admitted to the EXHIBITION, with the exception of assured that those who have for years past encouraged me to the present step, will now come honorably forward to my earnest support. I cannot feel any doubt of my ultimate success. However, Gentlemen, my friends have now the opportunity of proving their sincerity. Gentlemen, you are aware that I have but little experience in political matters, yet I consider myself quite capable of readily of a highly inflammable nature will not be admited, unacquiring sufficient knowledge to attend to the interests of this County, and should I prove to be the choice of the County, depend upon it I will make it my study to advance House, the agent at St. John of the Board appointed to the welfare of the Inhabitants of Victoria, irrespective of the Inhabitant of Victoria, irrespective of the Inhabitant of Victoria, irrespective of the Inhabitant of Victoria, irrespective of the Inhab localities,—rest assured I will never be governed by any atory to being transmitted to London by the Provincial local feelings-it will be my honest boast as it ever has been that all men shall have a fair and equal chance with me-unprejudiced by religious feelings-and untrammelled by pledges either to individuals or parties.

On one point Gentlemen, I wish to be distinctly understood,-I am determinedly opposed to Representation by Non-Residents. I was reared in this County, no one is better acquainted with your wants and requirements, your rights and privileges, and rest assured Gentlemen you will find in me an earnest and unflinching advocate should you elect me as your Representative.

Gentlemen, I have many things to say, which you shall hear on nomination day, and on other occasions when I shall be permitted to address you. In the meantime allow ed by application to any of the members of the local me to subscribe myself

TO THE FREEHOLDERS OF VICTORIA. Gentlemen,-Called forth by the solicitation of many friends and by a requisition numerously and respectfully signed, I intend to offer you my services as a Representative at the coming election. In becoming a Candidate I ask you to remember that I have always, to the extent of my ability, opposed the principle of non-resident representation, and I believe that at the election four years since, I was the only man in the county who endeavored, by a public appeal, to arouse you to a sense of the danger and disgrace of that system. What I then said I now repeat; with the principle which I then supported, I am now willing to stand or fall. In all of the resident Candidates I recognize men, who, although actuated beyond doubt, by different interests and principles, and working in opposition to and rivalry of each other, are yet fellows in the same cause. But Gentlemen, I appeal to you for the sake of our common interest, our common honor, and our common respectability, if any man, not a resident in this County, has the assurance to be nominated here, to treat him both by public expression on nomination day, and private rote on election day, with such disapprobation, scorn and contempt, that no one will ever again dare to repeat the insult.

Gentlemen, in asking you for your support, I do it with much confidence. Although a very young man, I have grown up amongst you. My life and my character are before you and all the public, and they challenge examination and criticism. If you do me the honor to elect me, I will serve you honestly, fearlessly, and independently. will be the tool of no party or faction, but will endeavor to be guided by your general voice, for the general good. will strive to see that every sect and party has justice and fair play; and there is no interest that this County has or can have, that I shall be either afraid or ashamed to advocate on the floors of the Legislature, If on the contrary I should not receive sufficient support to elect me, I will feel neither disappointment nor envy; and if my defeat arise from the success of any of the resident candidates, I will hardly regret it. I am Gentlemen, Your obedient servant,

Gentlemen, it is now twenty seven years since I first landed on these shores. I came a mechanic, and have so lived and laboured ever since. I reside in your County, and hope to live and die in it; my interests are therefore identical with yours. I shall strive to serve the farming and mechanical classes to the utmost of my ability; but as you value your future prosperity, let no selfish considera-tion influence your vote on that occasion. Your County is the most productive of wealth in the Province, but the way in which it has been farmed out to imported and hungry politicians ever since it became a County, leaves it in
