A DESOLATED REGION .- The Wheeling Intelligencer, Va., draws this picture of the effects of Jeff. Davis's occupation of Virginia soil :

" If any man wants to see what secession will do for a Western Virginia community, let him go to Phillippi and the adjacent country, and see what it has done for that section. It has paralized all that region. It has invited the arms of the Government and the desolating tramp of soldiery. It has stopped the plow in the furrow, the hoe around the corn hills, and all the busy details of agriculture. It has driven an affrighted people from their homes for fear of their lives, and their homes are tenanted by troops sent among them to put down their rebel-

The town of Phillippi is almost a waste. Every little industry about the place has stopped, and nine-tenths of the people have gone no one knows where. Many, if not most of the inhabitants, had voted the secession ticket, and they in their ignorance supposed that they would either be hung or shot for so doing. So they fled. The Union men had fled from the secession soldiery some days before, and now the secessionists in their turn have Hed from the Government soldiery. And thus the town and much of the country round about bears -a deserted look. TALKING CANARIES .- Several accounts of talking canaries have come before the public, but none of them very reliable until Mr. S. L. Sotheby addresed the following communication to Mr. Gray. Vice President of the Zoological Society. "Touching clover, when there are surplus honey tribe, a talking canary, of which I had the pleasure a few days since of telling you, I now send you all this our homestead. Its parents had previously is abundant and the weather warm, these so formed desirious of taking the Railroad from Portland and successfully reared many young ones; but three years ago they hatched only one out of four eggs, which they immediately neglected, by commencing their diameter, with the exception of tranthe rebuilding of a nest upon the top of it. Upon taken away and placed in flannel by the fire, when after much attention it was restored and then brought up by hand. Thus treated, and away from all other birds, it became familiarised with those only who fed it; consequently, its first singingnotes were of a character totally different to those usual with the canary. Constantly being talked to the bird, when about three months old, astonished quently thin. When the cells are filled its mistress by repeating the endearing terms used in talking to it, such as 'Kissie, kissie,' with its significant sounds. This went on, and from time to time the little bird repeated other words; and now, for hours together, except during the moulting season, aston shed us by ringing the changes, according to its own fancy, and as plain as any human voice can articulate them, on the several words-' Dear sweet Titchie' (its name), 'Kiss Minnie,' 'Kiss me then, dear Minnie,' 'Sweet, pretty little Titchie,' 'Kıssie, kissie, kissie,' 'Dear chie.' The usual singing notes of the bird are more young brood cells, when capped, are conof the character of the nightingale, mingled occasionally with the dog-whistle used about the house. It sometimes whistles, very clearly, the first bar of · God save the Queen.' [Continued.] The cells for drones are larger and bees, constituting two sizes of comb in ter, and those of the worker cells two and three-firth lines, (the line is the twelth part of an inch); these says Reaumur, are the invariable diameters of all the cells that ever where or ever will be made.' From this uniform, unvarying diameter of the brood cells when completed, their use has been suggested as a universal standard of measurement, which would be understood in all countries to the end of time. There are particular circumstances, however, which induce a departure from this exactness; for instance, when bees have begun a comb with worker cells, and afterward wish to change, third to sussex only. it to drone cells, as they occasionally do. three courses of cells, which may very ap- and Freight. The same rule is observed when returning to small cells; ty which is observed, should serve to increase our admiration of the architectural powers possessed by the bee. Fronchocele, Goltre, or Swelled Neck. Zebulon Sloan of, Prospect, Texas, writes: "Three bottles of your Sarsaparilla cured me from a Gritre-a hideons swelling on the neck, which I had suffered from over two years." Lencorrhea or Whites. Overion Tumor, Uterine Ulceration, Female Diseases. Dr. J. B. S. Channing, of New York City, writes: "1 most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent in saving I have found your Sarsaparilla a most excellent alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Diseases of the Scrofulous diathesis. I have cured many inveterate cases of Lencorrhea by it, and some where the completet was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The plearation itself was soon cured. Nothing within my knowledge equals it for these female derangements." Edward S. Marrow, of Newbury, Ala., writes : " A dangerous orarian tumor on one of the females in my family which had defied all the remedies we could emplay, he at length been completely cured by your extract or Sar saparille. Our physician thought nothing but extiguation could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. A fer taking your remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remains." Syphilis and Mercurial Disease. DR. J. C. Aven. Sir: I cheer ully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects I have realized with your Sarsaparilla. I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Vanereal and Mercarried Disease. One of my patients had Symbilities leave in his throat, which were consuming his palete and the top of his mouth Your Sarsaparilla, steadily taker, cured him in five weeks. Anothen was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had esten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But it vielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla; the pleers healed, and he is well again, not of course without some disfiguration of the face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from this poison in her bone. They had become so sensitive to the weather that on a damp day she suffered excruci ting pain in her joints and houes. She, too, was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your I boratory must be a great remedy; consequently, these truly remarkable results with it have not surprised me.

Fraternally yours, G. V. LARIMER, M. D. Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint. INDEPENDENCE, Preston Co., Va., 6th July, 1859 DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been affli ted with a prinful chronic Rheum dism for a long time, which buffled the skill of physicians, and stuck to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sarsaparilla. Oge bottle cared me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. J. FREAM Jules Y. Getchell, of St. Louis, writes; "! have been afflicted for years with an affection of the liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing an levery thing failed to relieve me; and I have been a boken down man the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Espy, advised me to try your Sarsaparilla, because he sai I be knew you, and any thing you made was worth trying. By thebl ... as to make a new man of me. I feel your grade. The best that can be said of you is not half good enough." Schirens, Cancer Tamors, Enlargement, Ul-
