Maickerbocker Magazine

Literature, Art, Politics and Society. ANNOUNCEMENT.

ITH the October number of this time honored and popular Magazine was commenced a new series, issued in a new and enlarged form, under entirely new editorial and proprietary management. It will be the aim of its present conductor not only to household. With this view, no labor or expense will be spared in securing the highest order of talent, not alone on this side of the Atlantic, but in both hemispheres. Although a literary Magazine, it will not shrink from boldly discussing the vital topics of the day, free from all party or sectarian bias. It will embrace among its miscellaneous contents notes on current events, foreign and domestic; reviews of new books, and art and dramatic gossip; while the Editor's Table, with which the readers of "OLD KNICK" have been so long familiar, will be monthly spread with the choicest literary viands which the market can supply.

It is thus hoped, that even under the depressing influ-ences of a protracted war, the veteran Magazine of the United States will reap, in its new and improved character, a plentiful harvest of subscriptions-and maintain, with added lustre, that position as a first-class monthly, which it has held for more than thirty years.

TERMS-Three Dellars a year, in advance, postage paid. To the Army and Navy, half price. Two copie four Dollars and Fifty Cents. Three copies for Six Dollars. Subscriptions must be sent direct to the office. No collectors are employed. Single copies will be sent to any part of the United States or Canada, post paid, on receipt of twenty-five cents in postage stainps. Back numbers may be obtained on application. New subscribers will be supplied with the back numbers of the new The KNICKERBOCKER and any other THREE DOLLAR MAGAZINE will be sent one year for FOUR

A discount of 10 per cent. from these prices will be allowed to persons sending clubs of ten or more subscribers. CHARLES READE, author of the CLOISTER AND THE the nestest possible manner. HEARTH, and other eminent authors, will be among the regular contributors to the Magazine. All communications should be addressed to
