

The Carleton Sentinel.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 30, 1862.

The Tea Meeting.

Open air exercise is offered as a panacea for human ills. Without a word as to the wholesomeness, we venture to say it is a remarkably pleasant species of exercise.

The preparations were most ample and rich, displaying at once great skill in the making, and taste in the arrangement of the viands. The attendance was large—about two hundred persons being seated at the first tables, and the receipts must have exceeded a hundred dollars.

The Weather.

The first part of this week has been notable for cloudy, cold, raw weather, unpleasant to men, annoying to women, especially those who indulge in hoops to the extent of the fashion, and unprofitable to the crops—humanly speaking, in a general way.

Artificial heat has been not only agreeable but requisite to comfort. On Sunday morning, we learn, there was a heavy frost in some localities, and, if so, in such the ripening grain must have suffered immensely. We are undoubtedly blest with most charmingly changeable weather in New Brunswick.

Under our obituary head we publish portions of a letter, announcing the death of Mr. John Currie, from a friend of his at Oregon to a relative of the deceased.

In the gale on Saturday night, a barn of Mr. Cunningham's, 30 x 40, was lifted off the blocks on which it sat and moved with the wind—9 feet, two ways therefrom—the only damage it sustained being the loss of the roof.

COMMERCIAL HOTEL.—The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of Mr. Manzer Atherton, who has become proprietor of the Commercial Hotel, Fredericton.

Mr. Harvey Strickland very wisely avails himself of our columns to convey the intimation to travellers, that at his place of business, they may find comfortable arrangements and good horses on reasonable terms, should they wish to use such.

Archbishop Hughes (R. C.) has recently returned from Europe. In an address delivered in St. Patrick's Cathedral, he thus pronounced upon the American war, and intervention.

What is the prospect of its (the war) coming to an end? I do not see any prospect. There does not appear to be an issue, and it may be that God, for some design of His own, which future generations will appreciate, has permitted this calamity to scourge the country in order to bring from these results a benefit to the whole human race.

A large portion of the last Head Quarters is occupied with correspondence, relative to the ejection, by the Verger, on Sabbath, the 17th inst., of some Nova Scotians, ladies and gentlemen, from a seat in the Cathedral, one end of which was occupied by His Excellency the Governor.

My object in calling His Lordship's attention to an event which he will, I am certain, deeply deplore, is to recommend that the Liberal, Governor's seat be furnished with an ornamental iron gate at each end, that Cadwallader be entrusted with keys to the strong locks thereto attached, and that he be required, so soon as His Excellency shall have taken his seat, to lock the said gate and immediately carry the keys to the Bishop, in his control to remain until after the blessing.

The Freeman charged the Government with having presented a claim against the Imperial Government, of seven hundred pounds, for the use of the Car Shed, &c., St. John, for the use of Her Majesty's troops, last winter, this statement the Morning News denies as follows:—

We are authorized to state that the Government have made no charge, or presented any claim, nor did they ever intend to, for the use of the Car Shed, for Her Majesty's troops, last winter. Our contemporary, the Freeman, has been misinformed.

The Queen's speech, in prorogation of Parliament, contained reference to the present war in the United States, and the position of England with reference to it, as follows:—

The civil war which has for some time been raging in America, has unfortunately continued with unabated intensity, and the evils with which it has been attended has not been confined to the American continent, but Her Majesty, having from the outset determined to take no part in the contest, has seen no reason to depart from the neutrality which she has steadily adhered to.

Col. Coe, in a speech, at Washington, after venturing some of his venomous bile at England, thus referred to her and the future position of the United States to her:—

The work of the hour is to be done. We must go at it with a will, and when that is over we will make an opportunity for ourselves elsewhere. (This last remark was greeted with applause.)

The Northern press is beginning to understand correctly the true position of England; beginning to see that she does not want to interfere unless driven into it, and a change in the tone of that press, with reference to England and English matters, is being more and more evident.

Under our obituary head we publish portions of a letter, announcing the death of Mr. John Currie, from a friend of his at Oregon to a relative of the deceased. The publication of this letter is manifestly out of course, but we allow it out of respect to the wishes of the widowed mother of the deceased, who resides at Richmond, N. B.

We copy, with pleasure, the following from the Houlton Times:—

At a late meeting of Monument Lodge, the following Resolutions, suggested by the death of the late Deputy Grand Master, A. K. S. Wetmore of Woodstock, were adopted and ordered to be published:—

Resolved.—That in his death, we mourn the loss of a good man, of a devoted and efficient Mason, and of a beloved brother who by his acts and whole life, has illustrated in an eminent degree, the cherished truths and principles of our Masonic Order.

Resolved.—That while we grieve for the death of one whose worth of character and kindness of heart endeared him to us all, we bow in submission to the divine decree, trusting that, his work in earthly Lodge finished, he has taken his place in the Grand Lodge above whose work is perfect and whose Master is the Lord.

Resolved.—That we tender to the bereaved friends and relatives of the deceased, our sincere sympathies in their deep affliction, for the loss of one whose gentle nature and noble qualities were equally conspicuous in all the relations of public or private life.

J. H. BRADFORD, Secy.

Communicated.

To the Editor of the Carleton Sentinel. Sir,—I notice, lately, in your paper, communications from "G. S.," relative to the American war. His object—whose side of the question he takes—and his style of reasoning, I cannot understand.

Colonial News.

The Magistrates, Merchants and others in St. Stephen, have issued a protest against the statement recently put forth regarding the demolition of the St. Croix Herold office. They say:—

We regard the destruction of property in the case of the Herold office, as a wanton and unjustifiable act, without the slightest palliation of justification, and we know that such conduct is deprecated and abhorred by this community, as last year when a similar act of violence was committed, the magistrate here sought to vindicate a respect for the law by offering a reward of $100.00 for information that would lead to the conviction of the perpetrator.

The Freeman charged the Government with having presented a claim against the Imperial Government, of seven hundred pounds, for the use of the Car Shed, &c., St. John, for the use of Her Majesty's troops, last winter, this statement the Morning News denies as follows:—

We deem the publication of this expression necessary in order to remove the false and injurious impressions obviously created by the report which has been circulated, and we trust that a sense of justice will secure the insertion of this protest in all such papers, at least as have assisted in promulgating the slander.

EXTRAORDINARY CIRCUMSTANCES Connected with the last moments of Sir Allan McNab.—The Toronto Globe of the 12th inst., contains an account of the death of Sir Allan McNab, which is so interesting that we cannot resist the temptation to give a brief summary of it. It appears from the statement in the Globe, that soon after the death of Sir Allan, startling reports became current of interference by the Catholic clergy during his last moments, and also as to the disposition of his funeral. It is stated that the Rev. Mr. Geddes, of the Episcopal Church, was the first to appear, and he was followed by the Rev. Mr. McLean, of the Roman Catholic Church, and the Rev. Mr. Gault, of the Baptist Church, and the Rev. Mr. Gault, of the Baptist Church, and the Rev. Mr. Gault, of the Baptist Church.

The main portion of McClellan's force reached Alexandria, and will soon reach Pope. Confederates who took Clarksville attacked Fort Donelson, and were repulsed. Federal Gen. Morgan captured a large Confederate force near Cumberland Gap. Senator Pomroy will organize Emancipation Societies of colored persons, for settlement in Central America, agreeably to the views of President Lincoln.

Two hundred Guerillas were routed near Danville Ky. Two hundred Federals encountered a large force near Cape Girardeau, Missouri, and after a severe fight routed them, killing thirty and capturing sixty.

Confederate Gen. Johnston with 5000 Red Bankers, suffering defeat and loss of prisoners. Steamer Acacia, was smugged below Memphis on Thursday night, 75 persons mostly Federal soldiers lost. Slidell's property, New Orleans, confiscated. The Grenada Appeal still asserts that Tennessee and Kentucky will soon be in possession of the Confederates. Riot occurred in England. Brigades encamped at New York, the barracks were torn down, a hotel guarded, and the soldiers stampeded.

A Hoax.

The Quebec Gazette says that the report of the Canadian Parliament was called to meet on the 28th inst., is false, and says the mistake happened by confounding the pro forma advertisement proposing the Legislature for six weeks to six weeks, with the usual notice calling the House for despatch of business.—It appears now that there was no meeting of Parliament until the 29th inst., and this question is settled by the Quebec Mercury, the Government organ. That paper deals with the subject in very bold terms, and says:—

The days of Downing-street interference are past; and the talk of noble lords and hon. members, who see in the province of to-day the colony of half a century ago, about a mandate issued from the Colonial office for calling our Parliament together to meet a Middle West high pressure, is regarded here as so much idle wind. Our rulers, we are happy to learn, are more wisely influenced than British statesmen seem to be on this question. They are not so much afflicted with a fear of invasion as their would-be dictators have been; and further, we believe that both they and the people of the province are agreed in opinion that the Articles of the British Parliament on this subject are alone sufficient to invite the very calamity which they undertake to warn us about.—Globe.

A TORNAO.—About half-past eight o'clock on Saturday evening the city was visited by a violent tornado which lasted for a short time only, but sufficiently long to blow down trees, fences and chimneys, tear off the roofs of small buildings, and pitch things about considerably. The Ferry-Boat "Prince of Wales," was struck midway in the harbour, and careened over so that her starboard bulwarks and the seats on that side of her were completely submerged. Bill under high pressure, is regarded here as so much idle wind. Our rulers, we are happy to learn, are more wisely influenced than British statesmen seem to be on this question.

American News.

By Telegraph to the "Carleton Sentinel." BANGOR, Aug. 23rd.—Confederate Gen. Hindman reported having 18,000 infantry, 6,000 cavalry, 50 guns, at Little Rock, Arkansas. Intends awaiting an attack from Curtis. Curtis is strongly fortifying Helena.

The Baron ROTON VICTORY.—The fight made by our little army at Baton Rouge, under Gen. Williams, was one of the best managed and most creditable of the whole war. In the first place, Gen. Williams took pains to find out in season that there was going to be a battle, and then he made the most judicious preparations for it. Thirdly, the men fought the thing straight through. Although they were but 3000 to 5000, they won a clean victory, inflicting tremendous punishment on their assailants.

Nor should Com. Porter's brilliant services in destroying the rebel ram Arkansas be forgotten. Considering the havoc made by this vessel at her first entrance into the Mississippi river, it was certainly a proof of striking valor on the part of Com. Porter that he should have advanced with the Essex alone to engage such an antagonist. But he had formed his plans for dealing with the enemy, and the entire success with which he carried them out reflects the highest credit on his originality and skill as a naval officer. Life is worthy of the old hero from which he springs, and it is doubtless destined to win yet higher honors. On the whole, therefore, we think the rebels of the Southwest must have derived some salutary ideas from the recent Union operations at and around Baton Rouge.—Boston Journal.

A COWARD REBUKED.—A Nova Scotian, living in a neighboring city, who has resided in this country for many years, recently sent word to his relatives in Nova Scotia that he intended to claim British protection and return home, in order to avoid a draft. His father replied to the following effect:—

Tell my son that his father has been a colonel in the British army for forty years, and if he will not stand by his adopted country's flag I will go myself. We are glad to be able to add that all our citizens who came from Nova Scotia are not of the cowardly, picaune stamp, as the one above referred to. One in Roxbury, of whom we have heard, has relinquished a profitable business, and enlisted in the maintenance of that government which has been a blessing to him and millions of other foreign born citizens. He not only leaves his family and the endearments of home, but makes a serious pecuniary sacrifice. All honor to such men.—Boston Journal.

Arrival of the "Teutonia."

CAPE RACE, 3 P. M., Aug. 22.—The steamship Teutonia, from Southampton, with dates to the 13th was intercepted off Cape Race this afternoon.

The Italian squadron at Ancona ordered to watch the Adriatic Coast. Garibaldi, with 500 volunteers, was marching in the direction of Patra Pezzi and Sancaudo. His object appears to be to reach Messina.

Palermo tranquil, public opinion favors conciliation. Discussion points out to foreign powers the danger of prolonged occupation of Rome by the French. ITALY.—A Garibaldi manifestation took place at Lascalla Theatre, Milan. Shouts were raised,—Rome or Death. Garibaldi volunteers number 3,000 Garibaldi commands.

One slight encounter took place between the Volunteers and the Royal troops. Garibaldi occupied Rocca and Palunna.—He spoke as follows:— "The present state of affairs cannot continue. I go against the government because it will not let me go to Rome. I go against France because she defends the Pope. I will have Rome at any price. Rome or Death. If I succeed, so much the better. If not, I will destroy Italy which I made myself."

Departure of volunteers from Palermo had ceased. Batazzi's dismissal considered the only means for the solution of the present difficulty. Mazzini held conference with Garibaldi, and returned to Malta. Garibaldi is at Caluzetia. Rumors that England had given support to Garibaldi's scheme denied.

France.—Constantinople conference decided on principal that Turks should continue to occupy Tripoli Citadel. Asserted the confederate envoys in London and Paris demanded the recognition of the Confederacy. England refused to accede, while France has given no reply. The Prince of Wales' marriage is to take place next year. No positive arrangements are made. Princess Alexandra is in Denmark probably. Agents are now in England getting contracts on behalf of the Federal Government for a supply of arms, &c. The contracts are proposed with a clause that they are void in case of a war with England.

The Kangaroo off Cape Race.

AUGUST 23rd, 1862.—The steamship "Kangaroo" from Liverpool, with dates to the 14th, was intercepted off Cape Race at half-past eight evening of 22d.

The "Fusarora" suddenly left Queenstown owing to orders from the Customs officials. Garibaldi's movements are unchanged—excite much interest. The Crown Princess of Prussia is confined of a Prince.

Another correspondence between Adams and Russell is published. Adams wrote in May when the Federal cause looked very hopeful. Russell writes July 28th. The Times characterizes his remarks as dry and caustic. The Times editorially endorses Roebuck's late Sheffield speech, as far as his lecture to the North is concerned, but totally dissents from his arguments in favor of mediation, which it considers would do more harm than good.

The Daily News bitterly reproaches Roebuck and characterizes his course as the lowest depth of moral degradation. It says happily Roebuck's opinions have long ceased to have the smallest value or interest for any body but himself. The article concludes by complimenting the American Government for its friendly and straightforward dealings with England, and says nothing is wanting but a little general consideration towards the North to establish thoroughly cordial and friendly relations between the two countries.

The St. Petersburg Journal reiterates the desire of the Russian Cabinet to see the conflict ended by prudent and honorable compromise. Russia's desire is not to divide but to bring together and reunite the adversaries who ought always to remain brothers.

Hannell's Cough Remedy excels in one of the most important characteristics, namely, that of containing no materials of opium or antimony, which are so debilitating to weak constitutions. When by its perfect simplicity it is done with the Cough and Lung Complaint its splendid Tonic qualities distinguish themselves in giving strength to weak systems, broken by disease, a peculiarity very important, but often lost sight of. In a preparation like the Universal Cough Remedy may be found a great necessity for every nursery, every medicine chest, or counting room, and from infancy to age it may be used with perfect impunity. See advertisement and read pamphlet.

Special Notices.

RIVERS or BLOOD. The circulation in the system is not unlike the flow of rivers to the sea, which more smoothly until they are clogged or obstructed. But when drift wood or alluvial deposits dam them up, then comes the tearing and devastation that follows the destruction of a force which cannot be stayed. So the blood circulates in sensibly through the system until it becomes clogged by disease, then burst at the ulcers, sores and disorders which follow that condition. Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla and purify your blood to save yourself from the floods, freshets and deluges that sweep unnumbered multitudes upon that shoreless sea which swallows all mankind.—Londoner, (P. O.) Register.

A THING OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOR EVER. Who can be beautiful with a sickly pale complexion? Keep the pores of the skin free, and the blood pure, and your cheeks will vie with the rose and lily. The skin is formed with thousands of pores in every inch of surface where office it is to carry off the impurities of the blood.—

The acknowledged cause of all diseases of mankind—when the skin is dry and parched—when it is covered with eruptions—when it is cold and clammy—when there is inward fever or inflammation—it is impossible for the skin under these circumstances to perform its proper functions, and to carry off the impurities from its surface as designed by our Creator.

JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS remove these obstructions, and produce free and healthy blood, remove the eruptions from the skin, and cause it to brighen with the flush of youth and beauty. Beauty is such admired and loved. Beauty without paints and cosmetics—but beauty produced by health and happiness. Judson's Mountain Herb Pills are sold by all Medicine Dealers.
