Cethin, or Gethin pit, the property of Mr. Crawshay, the extensive iron master of Cyfartha, is the largest in the district, employing upwards of 200 men, and is about equidistant between Merthry, Tydril and Troedyrhiw. At noon on Wednesday, the over-looker at the pit's mouth had noticed that something unusual had occurred in the pit, which was soon followed by information that an explosion of gas had taken place. Means were at once adopted to render assistance and to ascertain the extent of the calamity, which, unfortunately, has proved to be the most direful that ever happened in that valley. Up to Thursday morning 44 persons were brought up dead, and three alive, but so severely burnt that one has since expired, and the other two are not expected to survive. About half of the number were severely burnt, but the rest had not a hair singed, having been sufficated by the choke damp.

ENGLAND'S PROSPERITY NOT DEPENDENT ON AME-RICA .- A London correspondent of the New York Commercial Advertizer has the following remarks on this subject :

"One deplorable influence against the preserva-Prints, Coburgs, Lustres and tion of good relations between us consists in the utter ignorance of some of your leading journals regarding the actual position of England. Take for instance the statement that without the usual supply of American breadstuffs England would find her AT ONE HALF THE ORIGINAL PRICES millions in a state of starvation, that her Government would become bankrupt' and that a revolution would ensue All these predictions appear in Dress Lengths, which will be offered at the latest columns of your chief morning papers, and have been reproduced here, to the incalculable damage of the reputation of your people for the debted to him, calling in and paying up. As to the supply of breadstuffs, every reader must be well aware that the question even in ordinary times 8 barrels fresh Biscuit, as simply one of a few cents per bushel between America and Russia. The latter power even at this moment is calculating her prospective gain at the prospect of a rupture which may extinguish the rivalry she experiences from your Western farmers. Again, as to bankruptcy, the case with which England went through the Crimean war, which at its close found her stronger and more prepared than ever, ought to have finally dissipated the delusion which had previously encouraged for many years, that she could never more venture upon any very enormous expenditure. " Lastly, with regard to the revolution, it may be stated with literal exactitude that there never was a country so united in its political sentiments as England is at this day. Out of the daily London papers the aggregate circulation may be estimated at two hundred and fifty thousand, there is only one exception, and this has the smallest circulation of the whole, probably not more than fifteen thousand and is kept up by its promoters at a personal pecuniary sacrafice.
