The Carleton Sentinel.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1862.

About What?

At this season of the year it is not a slight difficulty, that experienced by the Country Editor...

Writing has not come yet, after it does our Junior will not doubt have something to say of red ears...

Of general politics it were easy to fill a sheet, especially if we were anxious to find fault...

Intercolonial Railway.

So far as we have learned, the Delegates at Quebec lost no time in entering upon the business of their mission...

Liquor on the Brain.—A woman named Walsh was found dead in her house in St. John last week...

The sum of human happiness is made up of trifles and the smallest item of pleasure sometimes seems greater in its excellence...

The Honey crop, notwithstanding the very favorable prospect with which the season opened...

We have received the prospectus of a new paper to be started in St. John, the last of this month...

The Colonial Presbyterian has not been received for several weeks. We feel satisfied the Editor is not aware of the fact.

Brother Ellis, of the St. John Globe, honored our sanctum with his presence on Tuesday morning...

Read the notice of a Public Dinner in another column. Go! and depend on a good time.

Prince of Wales' Cup.

It has been decided upon and directed by the Commander-in-Chief that the competition for the Prince of Wales' Cup will take place near Fredericton...

- 1. Each Company of Class A, of the Active Militia, may send one competitor for every six efficient members. 2. There will be three ranges, -200, 300, and 400 yards...

Writing Soldiers to Desert.—Oliver Warren, aged 20 years, an American, who has been, and perhaps still is, a corporal in the U. S. Army...

American News.

By Telegraph to the 'Carleton Sentinel.' BANGOR, Sept. 15.—Reported that General Lee and Jackson crossed the Potomac near Martinsburg...

It is supposed Longstreet would cross further up, the whole Confederate force retreating across the Potomac.

This is not credited at Harrisburg which is under martial law, and every able bodied citizen is going to the front.

Confederates have fallen back from Cincinnati beyond Florence. Only 10,000 advanced this side of Florence.

Nashville despatch, 5th, says Buell was hastening to support that city, which Danz menaced.

Several Federal regiments were after Kirby Smith's rear.

Several Confederate officers bagged by the Baltimore police feasting at a house 7 miles from the city.

Barnside passed through on Saturday pushing after enemy. Federals were received with well-entrenched positions.

Confederate expectation of receiving large accessions failed. They left forty-five hundred sick.

Reported that Longstreet was repulsed on Saturday at Harper's Ferry. Commanding lasted all day.

Also reported that the Confederates were attempting to cross the river near there on Wednesday were repulsed.

It is supposed that Jackson's command had crossed the river at Williamsport.

Severe fighting had taken place in Karraway Valley. Federals retreating towards Ohio.

Confederates under Gen. Dimmock attacked Federal positions near Paducah, Ky., yesterday afternoon, being repulsed with heavy loss.

Gov. Todd ordered the Militia sent for the defence of Cincinnati, Ohio.

LATER, 15th.—Gen. McClellan telegraphs Halleck that a general engagement occurred yesterday.

Generals Hooker and Reno carried the height commanding Hagerstown town.—Gen. Reno killed a second official despatch says, Franklin's success on the left is as complete as on the right and centre.

A third despatch says the enemy were making for the river in a perfect panic. Gen. Lee was looking being shockingly whipped.

The Federal army was pursuing the retreat to utmost.

McClellan's fourth despatch, 10 a. m., further confirms the victory and rout and demoralization of the enemy.

Hooker has 1000 prisoners. Lee admits a loss of 15000. Jackson whipped in three battles. Gen. Lee wounded. Tremendous rejoicing and furor in Philadelphia.

Business again resumed in Cincinnati.

BANGOR, Sept. 16.—Sunday's battle was four miles from Middleton, at the foot of the mountain, up and over which the enemy were driven. Franklin was heavily engaged.

At Mumfordsville, Ky., fight the Confederates lost about 600 killed and wounded.—Federals 8 killed and 27 wounded.

Confederates took Benfield, Mo., last Thursday. Capt. Wood shot and retort it next day.

Advices from Cumberland represent Gen. Morgan's Federal force in fine spirits. Enemy in front but not in rear.

Indians made two desperate assaults on Fort Ridgely and were repulsed.

Trouble imminent with Chippewas.

BANGOR, Sept. 17th.—Federal forces 6,000 under Col. Miles at Harper's Ferry, surrendered to Gen. Jackson and Loring on Monday morning, after 3 days vigorous fighting. Miles was killed.

Whole force paroled and arrived at Frederick, Md. Gen. Franklin was within 2 hours march of time of capitulation.

Confederates do not intend holding the place. McClellan on Monday pursued retreating Confederate army with destructive rigor, routing them from point to point, securing greater results than in Sunday's battles. He had sent to rear 8,000 prisoners, and 4 batteries.

Clayton's South Carolina Brigade annihilated. Howell Cobb was wounded and taken prisoner. Fighting resumed at Mumfordsville, Ky., yesterday.

A portion of Buell's army arrived and engaged Rebels' forces.

HARRISBURG 17.—Despatches just come in here state that the whole Confederate army has been driven away on a new retreating to Hagerstown.

QUARTERING ON THE ENEMY.—The Rebels have used our telegraph wire in Virginia recently with even more signal success than they had in Kentucky...

The order was promptly filled, and the Rebels were soon gladdened by the appearance of a train laden with what they wanted.

INDIAN TRIBES.—Mr. J. W. Taylor, of St. Paul, one of the Reciprocity Treaty Commissioners...

champion, but to be like him who, when the lightning is upon you, defends your purse by taking your life.

The Secretary Stanton ever heard of the Bastille, whose key hangs on Mount Vernon? Has he yet to learn how it was leveled by hands that could no longer hold off, and how its stones built the Bridge of Revolution over the Seine...

Done in the name of public authority, it is only calculated to embetter the people against the public authority. Professing to establish unity, it only promotes discord.

Zealous loyalists are pained and humiliated. The lukewarm release into captivity.—The ill-fated peace officers are encouraged. These gain a defence of strength indignantly beyond anything they could otherwise command.

Secretary Stanton must pause, or he will soon hear thunders more dread than any which are now peeling around Washington.

Arrival of the "Arabia." HALIFAX, Sept. 16, 1862. Arabia from Liverpool 6th arrived at Halifax at midnight.

Times editorially says of President Davis.—Can't deny him credit of being as moderate in prosperity as he has shown himself bold and unyielding in adversity.

After pointing to horrors which may be expected from Davis' threatened retaliatory measures, to convince of war which require extension and conscription, and to dangers which the South runs if they fail from their limited resources to conciliate the Indians on frontiers...

One of Gen. Burnside's most brilliant campaigns was against a band of the Dakotas (the British in 1855). Mr. Taylor's remarks that military duty in a part of the Northwest be at once constituted, and that it be given over to the stern and resolute hands of Gen. Harney.

By Mr. Taylor's expectations are justified by the event, we should know of it in a very few days. The Black Hills, the fortress of the Dakotas, will be the main seat of the campaign.

PERSONAL LIBERTY ENDANGERED.—The N. Y. World of Wednesday contained the spirited article that follows. It was headed "Substitute Insurance Agents in Fort Lafayette."

The Secretary of War, with the fatality attending all he puts his hand to, drives the iron horse to the very marrow. The ten citizens who he last week threw into the stonion houses by an ad hoc draft...
