HOW OUR SOLDIERS SHOULD BE PREPARED TO

HEALTH AND DISCIPLINE. Health and discipline are the most important elements in an army to insure success. Discipline without health, will prove as ineffectual as shot without powder. Health is the propelling force of the army, and is the symbol of

It is, therefore, of the greatest importance, that the sys tem of medication best adapted for the protection of soldiers against sickness, as well as that known to be thmost speedy and effectual in restoring the sick to health, without regard to professional prejudice, be adopted. This is no time for medical martinents to quibble about professional dignity. All the dignity the profession can bring to bear will neither prevent sickness among the troops, nor cure those afflicted. Our armies to be successful, must be kept in a healthy condition; and the most Having personally selected our Stock in Boston, Portsure means of securing this desideratum is through the remedial powers of.

SMALL POX, and other malarious and infectious diseases. Bear in mind, we say, that Radway's Ready Relief will protect, the troops exposed to these diseases against attacks. Now, it is conceded by all the medical men in our army, that they have no reliable means to prevent attacks of these diseases, neither have they any positive assurance of curing the sick; but, on the contrary, the majority of the sick, seized with fever and ague typhoid, bilious and other fevers, either die, or linger skeletons. Experience has established the fact that the treatment of calomel, quinine and mercury, in cases of fever an ague, typhoid fever, and other fevers of this Soap at 10 cts per lb. class, is more injurions in camps than in private practice, when we take into consideration that canvas walls and expesure to heavy dews and the malaria from pools of sick, we may readily conjecture that the penalties of mer- articles. eurial and quinine treatment will, in the majority of pains and stiffness in the joints, enlargement of the liver, jaundice, yellow janders, dyspepsia. pleurisy, coughs, colds, &., which will cling to the unfortunate patient for
