SCOTTISH AMERICAN JOURNAL A FIRST CLASS FAMILY PAPER.

Devoted to the Dissemination of Scottish Literature and News. SIXTH YEAR.

The Sixth Volume of the SCOTTISH AMERICAN JOURNAL commenced January 1, 1863, each year constituting a complete volume of convenient size for binding; and each number containing a most entertaining and instructive repertory of reading matter, calculated to interest all readers of British origin. The SCOTTISH AMER-ICAN JOURNAL, though decidedly international in its diess A. N. HENRY, Guelph, C. This feature is a unique one, and has For sale low by been found very acceptable to the people of the United States and British North America, and supplies a long needed desideratum on the American Continent. In reference to the "editorials" of the SCOTTISH AMERICAN JOURNAL it is a significant fact that the British press frequently acknowledges their intrinsic truth and force by copiously extracting from our columns and declaring that the SCOTTISH AMERICAN JOURNAL is the most able Remain no longer in the Dark, and interesting paper published in America. A concise weekly summary is also given of the principal items of American news, and a similar narrative of events transpiring in the various British Provinces. In the forthcoming volume of the SCOTTISH AMERI-CAN JOURNAL, increased space will be devoted to the literary department in the publication of serial tales and sketches, vividly illustrating the customs, habits, sentiments, and general characteristics of the people of Scotland; each tale emanating from the pen of an author of celebrity. As heretofore, particular care will be exercised in the choice of original poctry, composed by writers of acknowledged genius and purity of thought, resident here or abroad. The third number of the new volume contains William Blair, and Rev. John Brown Johnson, D. D., acted as adjudicators, awarded the prize to BRUCE ED-WARDS. This tale will prove to be one of the most interesting ever published, and will be appreciated by all classes of readers.
