Our Queen and Constitution.

JAMES WATTS, Publisher & Proprietor.

Doctry.

SPEAK OF A MAN AS YOU FIND HIM.

BY F. G. LEE, ESQ. If Rumor has scattered his statements untrue, Belying some friend, never mind him; Take truth for your motto whatever you do,

And speak of a man as you find him. Of those who have large faults never utter loud cries, So step in the proper direction; Oft Silence is welcome, and oftimes she's wise, No woman or man is perfection.

If Poverty frowned on a man well-to-do, With icy like mantle embound him, Remember that Fortune may deal thus with you,

So speak of the man as you found him. There are who would point at the wretched in scorn-Religion, they say, bids them do it; I'll warrant, if ever they pass through life's morn Unremorsed, that in even they'll rue it. To purveyors of scandal, who deem themselves wise. Of a snow-ball in winter remind them, Which, being rolled onward, increaseth in size: Bid them speak of all men as they find them.

So, if Rumor scatters his statements unfrue. Of friend, undeserving, ne'er mind it; There are some who'll add to the tale beside you So let it alone as you find it!

HONEST HEART AND WILLING HAND.

Said honest heart to willing hand: Let us our strength unite. And at our station let us stand In the world's rude fight. If we together steadfast go, and all our fortunes share, Why, then we'll conquer every foe, And banish dread despair.

We'll give a smile of happiness, We'll always strive for peace; And those who love us we will bless, And give them wealth's increase; Yea, other joys we will impart, For what foe can withstand The man who to an honest heart Unites a willing hand?

Select Tale.

MARRYING FOR LOVE.

BY AMY RANDOLPH.

" Now mark what I say to you, Susy Barton, I can't have no more of this nonsense about Henry smiling. "I wished to marry one who would love Grayworth. Nobody ever heered of him until he me for myself alone, not for my wealth or station. came hanging round last summer, calling himself and so I came to the village as a poor young artist. an artist and sketching' every old stun he come under the name of Grayworth, and wooed and won across! Abel Powers is worth a dozen on him; this precious wife of mine. She never knew my and I expect, when he comes to-night, you'll tell real name until we stood side by side at the altar!" him you're very much obliged for his kind offer, and you'll try to make him a good wife. Either ad down agon her with a core of executionate price, you promise Abel Powers this very night to marry answered by the living light in her own eyes! him, and give up all this ridiculous nonsense about that other feller, or you leave my house quicker'n vehemently. lightning'!"

The Widow Stone's eyes sparkled, and the snuffcolored ribbon on her cap quivered ommously. Susy rose without a word, her cheek glowing, and stranger than fiction ! deliberately walked out of the house, scarcaly staying to tie her little sun bonnet under her chin.

"True as I live and breathe, she's gone!" exclaimed the widow, half relenting. "I didn't calculate shl'd fire up so quick! But let her go-1 don't care. She'll be back agin, soon enough.'

blown about by the sunset wind.

not?" asked the stranger.

Susy nodded, wonderingly.

chose, in preference, one like me, who only offers quires no less than ten years to reach us! you his loving heart.'

Susy, earnestly putting both her little palms in confirm the correctness of Prof . Bessel's calculations Henry Grayworth's outstretched hands. And so But this distance great as it is, is nothing to be comshe placed the seal upon her fate, for richer for pared to the distance of the Milky Way. Sir Wilpoorer for better for worse!'

clear, with snow on the hills, and the woods all light going at the rate of 12,000,000 miles in a misnapping and crackling in a sheath of ice. The wi- nute, 120,000 years to reach the earth. And he dow Stone, trudging along the road that led to El- says there are stars or rather nebulae five hundred lerton Hall, began to speculate rather uneasily as times more remote! Now make your calculations; whether she should reach her destination before 120,000 years reduced to minutes and then multiply dark. For she was carrying a famous recipe for that sum by 12,000,000, and the product by 500, Christmas pies to the housekeeper at Ellerton Hall. What an overwhelming idea. The mind sinks under

· It's a fine place, solioquised the Widow Stone as she sat down to rest herself on a great boulder by vast even to comprehend. David says Psalm cviii the wayside, 'and only to think that Mr. Ellerton 19: "The Lord hath prepared his throne in the heahas lived away from it all his life! I don't see vens, and his kingdom (or government) ruleth over what folks find so drefful nice in travelin' about, I all." must say. However, Mrs. Peckham-a clever old lady she is. and wears real handsome caps-she says he's comin' home to-morrow with his young wife. It's a great thing to be born rich? 1'd like to get a peep at Mrs. Ellerton-I wonder if she'll be at church Sunday! I do s'pose she wears a silk gownd every day of her life, and white embroidered skirts! Mrs. Peckham says they've been fittsn' up the house wonderful fine for her!'

The widow was plodding on once more, when there was a chery jingle of sleigh-bells in the road behind, and two fiery horses were checked close to her. A sweet face, set in a frame-work of auburn curls, leaned out of the window, and two cager flower was so much in vogue that the cultivation of the Prophet you may come to look like that."

'Aunty!' 'Law sakes alive !' ejaculated the Widow, 'it's Susy Barton. Child, where have you been all this time, and where are you going now!'

have just come from your bouse, where the door was most inhospitably locked!'

The Widow had intended to play the role of relentless guardian, but she could not resist the infection of Susy's kiss and hug.

'Going to the Hall, eh? O, you've got a situation there-I s'pose you're Mrs. Ellerton's lady's maid? wait on Mrs. Ellerton.

'Well, I'm glad you've got a tol'ably respectable place, though you'd better have married Abel Powers-and why haven't you let me see you afore?

first minute I could slip away.'

Got pretty good sitution?"

· Very!' said Susy.

dy, said the Widow patronizingly. I'll speak a ers that plow the Northern Lakes and Western lars. good word for you, it you like!"

neath their long lashes. · What sort of a person is Mrs. Ellerton?' pur- the mechanic. sued the widow. She must be easy tempered, if Not an edifice for devotion, for business, for com-

"O, she's very kind to me," returned Susy.

" Is she pretty?"

"Well-I don't know-I can't say exactly," hesitated Susy, slight embarrassed.

The old lady was just turning round to demand lead them to the highest fame and renown. an explanation, when the sleigh dashed up in front of the broad flight of marble steps that led to the ortico of Ellerton Hall, and they descended.

Susy led the way through the arched vestibule into an elegant drawing-room, where a clear fire burned on the marble hearth, and the purple velvet curtains swept to the very floor. The chandelier was already lighted, and the gold and amethystine tints of the frescoed ceiling seemed like a canopy of precious jewels to Widow Stone's unaccustomed

"This ain't the housekeeper's room?" whispered the old lady, twitching her niece's dress in dismay. "S'pose Mrs. Ellerton should come in ?" The door opened beyond and a tall, slender gentleman entered the room, with a bright, welcoming glance to Susy. " Let me introduce my husband, aunt?"

"Why, bless me, it's Henry Grayworth!" ejacu lated the amazed Widow Stone, doubting the trans missive accuracy of the silver spectacles she had confided in for ten years. "You have got the first two names right, Mrs-Stone," said the gentleman, laughing; but my name happens to be Henry Grayworth Ellerton."

"Are you Mrs. Ellerton?" exclaimed the widow, wheeling round so as to face her niece once more. "She is Mrs. Ellerton!" returned her husband,

He passed his arm around Susy's waist and look-The widow sat down and rubbed her spectacles

"It's jest like the books I used to read when I was a gal!" she exclaimed at last. The Widow did not know that truth is sometimes

The Depth of Space.

A short time afterwards, Susy Barton sat on a nection with a powerful telescope, in his experi- often, vill you no tell me ze name of ze dam street fallen log in the woods, the sun bonnet pushed back ments, was called a Heliometer, (sun measurer.) eh?" "Watts street, I told yer. Yer drunk, Tom Thumb is-becoming decidedly interesting. from her glossy auburn hair, her tiny feet, stirring After three years hard labor, he was so fortunate as ain't yer?" " Mon leethe fren, ver von lif, eh?" the withered fern-plumes below, and her blue trust- to obtain a parallex, but so minute that he could "In Vandam street." "Eh bien. You lif in by Maccaroni, has handed to the Mayor of Liver- ished in number by fighting and disease. By the ing eyes turned upon the face of a tall, slender hardly trust his reputation upon it. But after reyoung man, who stood beside her, his dark hair peated trials, working out the results, he was fully satisfied that he could give the true distance to 'This Abel Powers is a rich farmer, dearest is he sixty-one sygin. But who can comprehend this immense distance? We can only convey an idea to the mind of this distance by the fact that light . Then, he pursued, I searcely know why you which travels 12,000,000 of miles in a minute. re-

Just let any one try to take in the idea. One 'Because,' returned Susy, innocently, 'I loved hour would give 720,000,000 of miles; one year, · And you are willing to share my lot, hard and this multiplied by ten gives 63,072,000,000,000 selves. comfortless as it may be-I do not say will be!' This according to Prof. Bessel, is the distance of 'I would go with you to the world's end,' said the nearest fixed star to the sun. All astronomers It was the evening before Christmas-cold and pose the Milky Way, are so remote that it requires such a vast thought; we can't realize it; it is too

The orange is the symbol of poetic inspiration. with saffron, and Theognis, the early Greek poet, many men you have killed in your life?" was clothed with an orange mantle. Orange also "Sire," replied the physician, "Some three The young bethrothed formerly presented them- less glory." selves at the altar covered with an orange veil, called the flammeum, being the color of flame. The oath of fidelity could not be taken unless the head was covered with the flammeum, or orange veil. beautifully by its orange blossoms does the bridal wreath symbolically prefigure the kindling flame. During the past century the odor of the orange Louis XVI's orange trees was a source of considerable expense; for the great king would have one of these favorite shrubs in each of his apartments.

"Well, my good fellow." said a victorious gene-· Jump in, aunty—I'm going to the Hall, and ral to a favorite soldier after a battle and what did One trains the mind, the other minds the train. you do to help us gain this victory!" "Do! may it please your honor, why I walked bouldly up to one of the innimy and cut af his foot!" "Why didn't you cut off his head?" "Ah an' faith yer honor, that was aff already."

> A piece of bread soaked in vinegar and applied to "It is impossible," said Dean Swift, "that anya corn on the foot, going to bed at night, and bound thing so natural, so necessary, and so universal as

WOODSTOCK, N. B., SATURDAY, JULY 18, 1863.

Mechanics. Mechanics are the palace builders of the world. Not a stick is hewn, not a stone is shaped, in all 'How could I, aunt? we only arrived at the the lordly dwellings of the rich, that does not owe Hall this morning, and I started for your house the its beauty and fitness to the mechanic's skill. The spires that raise their giddy heights among the and symmetry; the thousands of noble ships that 'Yon'll find the housekeeper a dreadful nice la- cover the seas of the world; the magnificent steam-Rivers; the swift locomotives that traverse through | Prince William of Denmark, as King of Greece, 'Thank you!' said Susy, veiling her eyes be- the States with the rapidity of lightning, are all receives an annual salary of $240,000. the construction of that noblest of human beings-

she lets you go cuttin' round in this velvet-cushion- fort, but bears the impress of their handywork .-ed sleigh, with a feller in a gold banded hat to llow exalting is their calling-how noble their pursuit—how sublime their avocation! Who dares to weighing five hundred weight, has recently been plied for at all while others are given away without nors should be punished in all. Now, although our Who dares to cast odium on such an eminent and patriotic race? Their path is one of glory, ambition and honour, and it is their own fault if it does not

Norwegian Legend.

Two little boys were playing by the side of a ri- Brown's Tract." ver, and they saw the Stromkarl or water spirit, sitting on the shore, and playing on his harp. Then Garter. the children called out to him, and said, "Stromkarl, why do you set here playing? There is no just made the fastest time recorded under the saddle, salvation for you." Thereupon the Stromkarl fell to weeping bitterly, threw his harp away, and sank waters. When the boys returned home, they related to their father, who was a godly man, what sion of a notorious robber, the cover of which is had befallen. The father said, "You have sinned made of the skin of the criminal, which was stripagainst the Stromkarl; go back and comfort him and tell him that he too shall be saved." When they went back to the river, the Stromkarl sat on the shore, weeping and lamenting; and the children said, "Weep not so, Stromkarl, our father says that thy Reedeemer also liveth." Then the Scotia Government. The design is the same as on Stromkarl joyfully took his harp and played sweet- the five cent stamp. but the tint is lilac. ly till sunset .- Jacob Grimm.

An over-worked woman is always a sad sight, sadder a great deal than an over-worked man, because she is so much more fertile in capacities for suffering than a man. She has so many varieties Maine, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday last.— have received a liberal education, will eventually community as nearly civilized as ours I think the letting her work with half her brain, while the other half throbs as if it would go to pieces -- sometimes tightening round the brows as if her cap band ysms which men speak slightly of as hystericalwhen she is placed in conditions which develop her nervous tendencies.

A Frenchman stopped a lad in the street to make enquiriy of his whereabouts. .. Mon fren, vat is ze name of zis treet?" "Well who said 'twant?" ... What you call zis street?" "Of course we do." " Pardonnez! I have not ze name vot you call June, and in Fredericton also last week. him." "Yes, Watts we call it." "How you In 1837, Prof. Bessel, of Germany commenced a call ze name of zis street?" .. Watts street, 1 told ratory steps have been taken towards the cession of ments composing the Banks' expedition were nine series of astronomical measures for getting the exact her." "Zis street," "Watts street, old feller; distance to the fixed stars, a thing that had never and don't yer go to make game.o' me, ' "Sacre been done. The instrument which he used, in con- mon bien! I ax you von, two, tree, several times. week, in the 79th year of his age. one dam street, and is von dam fool."

Would you wish to live without a trial? you would wish to die but half a man. Without trial you cannot guess at your own strength. Men do not learn to swim on a table; they must go into on them in the fight at Milliken's Bend, stole over It is a Gibraltar or rather a Malakoff; and yet Gen. deep water and buffet the surges. If you wish to understand their true character,-if you would know their whole strength, of what they are capable-throw them overboard! Over with them, and London, weighs five thousand pounds, and is six feet then-8760 hours-gives 6,307,200,000,000, and if they are worth saving they will swim ashore them in diameter. Workmen are engaged in rebuilding

A VALUABLE VICE. The following is attributed to an eminent personage, perhaps the most cmmi nent of the French empire: A lady was declaim- the people of Pennsylvania, in consequence of the ing in his presence against the use of tobacco, and rebel invasion, will amount to fifty million of dolprayed that he would arrest the encroachment of a lars. liam Herschel says that the stars or suns that com- habit which had grown to be a vice. A vice it may be, madame," was the reply; "but find me a virtue which yields the Treasury one hundred and twenty million of francs a year.

> A London paper describes the Princess of Wales' ear as singularly delicate, small and beautiful in its convolutions, and exquisitely set on.

"Why, Mary, what does make one of your hands so red? They both used to be so white and beautiful. What can be the matter?" "Oh, nothing!" replied Mary, innocently, "only your brother has been squeezing it."

Frederick the Great one day called his physician The muses were represented with tunics colored to him, and said, "Come sir, tell me frankly how

AN OPINION OF THE FASHIONS .- " My son," said an old turbaned Turk one day, taking his child by the hand in the streets of Cairo, and pointing out to him on the opposite side a Frenchman just imported, in all the elegance of Parisian costume; "my son look there! If you ever forget God and

A young woman in New Orleans shot a fellow for asking her if she would marry him. He popped the question, and she the questioner.

When pride and poverty marry, their children are the barrel, and the guns could not be fired.

want and crime. Why is a blade of grass like a note of hand?— to the 30th June ult.—fifty days-for license &c... Because it is matured by falling dew.

Items, Foreign & Nocal.

The commerce of the world requires 3,600,000 From the Encanian oration delivered at the Uniof able-bodied men to be constantly traversing the versity, Fredericton, by Prof. Bailey, we take the sea; of this number, probably 7.500 die every year. following:clouds, depend upon the mechanic's art for strength The amount, of property annually moved on the Another most important matter is an increase in water is from fifteen hundred to two thousand mil- the number of students, not only because instructi-

> Gold has been found in British Guiana. This is the region which Raleigh believed was an El

Louis Napoleon has finished two volumes of his Life of Casar. Two more are under way. It is said he means to break up and divide the Academy if the members do not admit him in consideration

A silver mine has been discovered in that part of Northern New York which is known as . John

"Gen. Butler," a celebrated trotting horse, has gradual increase. having done a mile in two minutes and twenty-one

At the library of the Athanaum in Boston, there is said to be a volume containing the dying confesped and tanned after his death.

The Protestant population of Belfast has far outgrown the church accommodation. An oil well of limited extent has been discovered in the village of Biaina, Monmouthshire.

A two cent stamp has been issued by the Nova

Anthony Trollope was offered two thousand pounds sterling a year, for five years, if he would lend his name as editor to a magazine, without having the labor of being the acting editor, but de-

It will give you some idea of the stampede from Washington to New York in consequence of the rebel invasion, when we tell you that, in addition to York Herald takes a very gloomy view of Banks' be chosen as Councillors, if they are the best qualiroute, Adams' Express brought to New York to-day, were Luke's iron crown—and then her neuralgias, no less than ninety millions of dollars, upon which ance of a short and brilliantly successful campaign, either principle or ability. I must remark here have been found in Bucharest. The blade has on road 'nos' occur cerzed, after valle. one side the following words traced in Hebrew city cut off; the west-bank of the Mississippi is further that the people in many places are not cacharacters :- " Present from Gessur to Absalom, son of David-Jeho. Jeho.

The Princess Alexandra has become a "Fellow" f the Royal Horticultural Society. for the table, were dug in Gagetown on the 28th be contraband.

Earl Russell has formerly announced that prepa- must be remembered that the majority of the regithe Ionian Isles to the Kingdom of Greece.

father of Hon. George Brown, died in Toronto last A New York letter writer is informed that Mrs

Mr. Naylor, the owner of the winner of the Der- exceedingly arduous duty, and were much diminwhere he resides, $5000, to be distributed among time Gen. Banks was able to take the field the the charities of the town, and at a place called Hoot term of enlistment of at least two thirds of his army ten, Mr. Naylor has built a church at his own ex- was fast drawing to a close, and in point of numpense for the free use of the parishoners.

to Richmond, La., and massacred every Confede- Banks has been expected to take it by assault withrate in the hospital there, about two hundred in out any previous bombardment or siege. Vicks. The ball on the top of the dome of Saint Paul's it, and they are watched by crowds of people through telescopes as they work at the giddy height. It is estimated that the loss now sustained and that which wfil be necessarily sustained hereafter, I am to day more than ever inclined to think that the Red River of the North.

Two hundred and nine commissioned officers are reported killed, wounded and missing in Wednes-

The Toronto Globe of the 3d, says that out of the 65 members elected in Upper Canada, 44 will sup- thirteen inch shells bursting in Washington Street, port the present administration, and six others are considered doubtful. The returns for Lower Canada sums up 27 ministerial, 33 opposition and 4 in- the ground, by vessels clad with seven inches of Sergeant Matthews, of the 15th Regt, died in the hospital Fredericton, on Tuesday afternoon, after a short illness.

The members of the new Government of Nova ness such a scene as never was before the eyes of any Scotia have been re-elected without opposition by American whose father or grand father fought at the different constituencies which they represent. Bunker Hill, Lexington, or New Orleans. This na- Samuel Hempfill. Commissioner. A French work, recently published, argues that tion (England) can go to war in just exactly one every 10,500 years the waters of the sea pass from minutes notice She can lay Portland, Boston, one pole to the other, submerging and overwhelm- New York and Washington in ashes, and raise the symbolises the power and durability of Hymen. hundred thousand less than your majesty—and with ing the earth, According to the author of this theory, M. Paul de Jouvencel, the last of deluges oc- you are prepared for that, get your shot ready, close

> The colored male population of Detroit has skedaddled, to a man, to Canada to avoid the draft. The latest Mexican News is that the French had possession of the city. Juarez had retired to San Luis Potosi, and the French are now besieging that place. The keys of the city of Mexico have been sent to France.

Why is a schoolmaster like an engine driver? more than eight hundred guns of General Free- they said that, being married to a man like the Clergy, who were in danger of being deserted by collected at the Mayor's office from the 11th May is $9,042.74. We believe this is a much larger

General Achrs.

A Polish giantess, seven feet tall is on exhibition and if any proof were wanted, it will be found in

But, however desirable an increase in the number of students may be, it would be unreasonable to expect any large or sudden increase; the circumstances of the Provinces are such that comparatively They can levy such taxes as they think proper, few persons can afford the time requisite to obtain whether the public weal demands it or not, and a degree. In this way we stand in a very different when such monies are embezzled or squandered there position from that in which we should be placed, is no one to call them to an account, but according if situated in a thickly populated country, where to the vulgar adage the people who pay the taxes wealth has been realized by many; and therefore have nothing to do but to grin and bear it. Again, Prince Alfred has been gazetted a Knight of the it would be unfair to complain of the smallness of I hold that it is necessary in order that equal jus-

Already every possible inducement would appear to interests of one will conflict with those of another: be held out to the young men of the Province, to besides men residing in one Parish are not supposed entice them to reap the benefits of their own Pro- to know the ways and wants of another so well as vincial Institution; and the University authorities residents of such Parish, so that an injustice may cannot go out into the highways and bye-ways and be done unintentionally, for want of proper knowcompel them to come in. We must look partly to ledge of the condition of such Parish. - Lesides no the growth of population and to the realization of other person will be found to have so deep an intewealth, as well as improved means of communica- rest in the welfare of any locality as the man who tion between distant parts of the Province, and per- lives in it and owns, perhaps, his whole property haps even between this and the neighboring Pro- in it. It is also most reasonable to my mind that vinces. But, above all, we must look to the effect the people who pay the taxes for parish and county on the minds of the inhabitants, by the University purposes should have the selecting of the men to itself. It any real and lasting benefit is conferred disburse such monies, and should have it in their upon a student, that benefit will be apparent, power to confront them in case they prove themselthrough his whole life, to those with whom he may ves to be unworthy of the trust reposed in them. come in contact, and his visible improvement will in- This, it is obvious, can only be accomplished by cite in others a wish to imitate his example; more- having Counties incorporated. It may be argued, over, he will be competent to educate others, and, however, that this is throwing the power too much although not specially engaged in the work of edu- into the hands of the mob, who will outvote the cation, he will involuntarily heighten the standard more intelligent part of the community, and elect. of intellectual acquirements of those with whom he men of their own cast; to this I answer that al-A large portion of the town of South Wayne, associates, so that a few men in the Province who though this evil may sometimes occur, yet in a

PORT HUDSON.-A correspondent of the New public business. And now that Magistrates may

and her backaches, and her fits of depression, in their freight charges alone were forty thousand and a certainty almost of Louisiana being restored that I think it most inconsistent for men who offer dollars; and a complete rush of the "valuables" to the Union, if not by the act of its citizens by the as candidates for Legislative honours to appeal to from Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, &c., to force of the Union arms. Now everything presents the people as the source of power, declaring that New York is daily going on; crowding the hotels a contrary appearance. The capture of Port Hudconvulsions, that is all, though not commonly fatal also with "living freight," anxious and determined son appears to be indefinately postponed—if it will men as can best subserve their interests in General be taken at all. The Attakapas country is reoccu- Assembly, and almost with the next breath tell lined with armed rebels, and every boat that runs pable of doing their own business, if so, where are between this city and Baton Rouge has to be armed the magistrates to be found; but, admitting this the last regiment has arrived that can be drawn to be the fact, which is best for the people, to refrom any part of the department, and the hospitals main forever in a state of statu quo, or to be placed are filled with sick and wounded. Such is an out- in a position where they will learn to do their own The Alead Quarters says that new potatoes, fit line of affairs here. More could be said but it would business. But I must close for the present.

"The question may be asked, why is this so? It months men; they left the North in November Peter Brown Esq., of the Toronto Globe, and the last after seven or eight weeks of their term of enlistment had expired; they were comparatively Parish of Wicklow for the year 1863. green troops, requiring much ' setting up' before SAMUEL GIBERSON, Commissioner. they could be of use in the field. The regiments that Gen. Banks found here on his arrival, three years men, had been subjected to nearly a year of bers he has about half the men necessary for the John Tweedie, Commissioner. It is reported that several negro companies, learn- work to be performed. The actual strength of ing that the Confederates had raised the black flag | Port Hudson has never been properly understood. burg is no stronger than Port Hudson in its natural as well as artificial defences; it may have more men within the fortification but not many, yet Gen. Grant, with at least one hundred thousand men, finds it necessary to approach the position in a regular manner, erect formidable batteries and use them before he attempts any further assault. We may take Port Hudson with the force we have; but by Gen. Banks will be compelled to fall back on Baton Rouge, if not upon New Orleans and the surrounding defences. It looks very much like it, to say the least."

AN ENTIRELY NEW VIEW .- The London correspondent of the Boston Post, discussing in a recent A force of Chippewas are being organized to ope- letter, the probability of war between England and rate, in conjunction with a body of white mounted America, says; " It is all very fine to talk of war soldiers, against the Sioux who infest the valley of with a nation that has seven hundred war steamers mounting over 10,000 guns, and carrying some 45,-000 seamen, but unless you are prepared to see and see the churches, stores and mansions of Wall Street, Broadway, and Fifth avenue levelled with iron, then pause. Delenda est Carthago; it was the second Punic war, not the first, that swept Carthage as a political power from the face of the earth and that after she considered herself invincible. You are on a volcanic mine : spring it and you will witcurred 4,500 years ago: the next is due 6,000 years your port holes, look straight into the wind's eye,

A RIVAL OF THE PRINCESS ALEXANDRIA .- A respectably dressed woman 28 years of age, made an xtraordinary application to the Marlborough-street (London) Police Magistrate on the 8th. She said that in 1861 she was married to the Prince of Wales Cardinal Wiseman performing the ceremony. Im- in another column, it will be seen that trouble is in mediately after the rite the Prince wished her to store for the Church of England. A motion has The sea serpent has turned up again. It was enter a convent, but she refused, and her applica- been made in Parliament by Mr. Buxton to relieve seen on the 6th May by some parties on board an tion to the Court now was for a warrant against the English Clergy from subscribing to the Thirty. African mail steamer, whilst on her passage from Father Wroe, to force him to deliver up to her the nine Articles, and the Prayer Book. In introducring and marriage certificate. She had applied to ing the motion Mr. Buxton said the restrictions of The New York Journal of Commerce says, that her friends to assist her, but they refused, because the Church were telling upon the quality of the mont's European purchase, have lately been found Prince of Wales he ought to maintain her. She the intelligence of the country. From recent reto have no communication between the tube and had been in Marylebone Workhouse for five weeks, turns, he said, it appeared in the last twenty years but they said they could do nothing for her, and the young men from Oxford and Cambridge who The St. John Morning News says, the amount she wished to know whether she was to die from wished to take orders had fallen from 242 to 120 at want because the Prince of Wales would not do Oxford, and from 270 to 178 at Cambridge. He what he ought to do. He was no better than any had direct evidence that this decline was mainly due other man and ought to be made support his wife. to the attempt to increase the restriction on the She had written to him, and also to her Majesty, Clergy at a time when the general tendency of the sum than has ever before been collected in the same but they had not condescended to answer her letters. age was toward greater independence and increased In answer to the Court, the applicant said her liberality among religious men .- Courier. 'Why yes,' laughed Susy. 'I do sometimes with a piece of oil cloth, will remove the corn in death, should ever have been designed by Providence and New Brunswick and Nova Scotia do. at 108 a Court to go back to the Marylebone Workhouse, and Mackie, were drowned a few days ago by the The London Times of June 20 quotes Canada name was Margaret Guelph, but her maiden name and she left, promising to do so.

Communicated.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE CARLETON SENTINEL. Sir,-Having noticed a requisition to the Sheriff of Victoria, to call public meetings at the several polling places in that County, for the purpose of testing the public feeling as to the utility of getting lions of dollars; and the amount lost by the casua!- on is thereby given to a larger number, but because amiss to make a few remarks on the subject. In ities of the sea averages twenty-five millions of dolficient emulation amongst a few students. Allu- fit to be trusted with absolute power, but that every sion has already been made to the beneficial results man should be held responsible for his acts; and of competition, but this competition cannot exist to although I do not consider that all should be directa proper extent in a small number. It is almost ly responsible to the people which, in my opinion. amongst forty students, divided into three classes; the tools of a party, and prevent, rather than comthe fact that several scholarships appropriated by that no public officer should be above the reach of Magistrates can be called to an account for any fraudulent or illegal act in their private courts, yet in public session I might almost say that there is > the number of students or to expect anything but a tice be meted to all, that in a Court which is auth-And how is even this gradual increase to arise? fairly represented, for it will often happen that the people will ever exercise enough discretion to choose at least a majority of such men as are fit to do the osition at Port Hudson:—

>
> "A month since everything presented the appeara commission from Government will give no man

Yours, &c;, A RATE PAYER.

Carleton, July 7th, 1863. Apportionment of the Bye Road grant for the To repair road passing Wm. Crane's leading to Corbett's. To repair road from Post Road to James Craig's Mills. To repair road from A. Tweedie's to Casper Caldwell's, $28.00 To repair road from Robert Kerr's to Thos. Wakem's $15.00 To repair road from Thos. Wakem's Vandike's. 7.00 To repair road from the School House near Wakem's to Irvine's.

$32.00 GEORGE WEST, Commissioner. To repair road from the River De Chute road to Irvine's Corner. From Trafford's Corner to Big Brook, so From Lindsay's Corner to N. Beckwith's 10.00 From Sherman Tracy's to Parish line

From N. Beckwith's to Tracy's Corner, 5.00 Total $100.00. $40.00 JEREMIAN LLOYD / Councillors C. E. DRYER for Wicklow. Bye Road appropriations for Richmond :--

HUGH MONTGOMERY, Commissioner. Road from Forrest's to Hand's, $8 00 Road from Jacob McLellans to (Scotch) John McLellans farm, on road from Creek to Watson Settlement, 6 00 Road to Thomas Stewart's, 6 00 Road from E. Cunliffe's to Creek. 6 00 Road from Jackson's to John I tapa!ricks, Road from Daileys to McMonagles, 6 00 Road to Little's Road to T. McGeorge's, Road to Ray's, 3 00

$16 00

10 09

Road from Robert Benn's to Knowltons Road from Richard Crabb's to John McDougald's, Road from Wetmore's to A. Dickenson's. Road from McQuarrie's to Swamp Road

Road from Samuel F. Crawford's to passing Lenehan's,

By reference to an article from the London' Times

accidental upsetting of a boats near Montreal.