I should be ashamed to take the money I have contributed back. No doubt some feeling favorable to Trinity Church dominated and led to the investment of the money as it was invested.

Hon. Capt. ROEINSON : The Bishop may not be influenced merely by personal motives, but from a desire to conserve the interests of Bishops who may succeed him in the see. I certainly had no desire to introduce the Bishop's name, unnecessarily .---The letter just read was not addressed to the vestry, but to a gentleman in St. John, and was not intended to be made public.

Hon. Mr. HAZEN : This letter was sent me by the Vestry Clerk. I do not know who it was written to, but it certainly gives the Bishop's views .---I am thoroughly satisfied that neither Mr. Wiggm. or any other gentleman would have taken the was committed and postponed 3 mos. loan on any better terms than those on which the money was invested.
