The Kearsarge was cruising off Ushant, watching for the Florida, having received orders to attack the Confederate steamer on her quitting Brest. The Renaudin, which resembles the Florida, was going out to sea, and was passing Iroise, when the captain of the Kearsarge gave chase. The commander of the French ship having made himself known, the Captain of the Kearsarge hastened to apologize .tion of the French naval authorities, and proved to them that the Captain of the American steamer may involuntarily attack his adversary in French waters of which he is not well acquainted with the boun-

The Confederate corvette Rappahannock is still in the port of Calais under repairs.

According to the Independance Belge, when the British Government asked the French Government what attitude it would assume in the event of our being compelled to give material aid to Denmark in this emergency, the answer was in favor of the dispute being referred to the adjudication of England, and a corroborative proof is adduced by the Paris correspondent of the Morning Post, who declares that, in all the various propositions made by at noon. JACKSONVILLE, Dec. 30th 1863. I had, for five years, been afflicted with Chronic Diarrhea producing constant distress; more than two years ago I took a cold in my head which settled in my eyes, becoming afflicted with sore eyes that sometimes affected my sight, and for the greater part of the time I suffered with headache. These diseases were increasing in severity this fall, until I root, &c. commenced the use of Graham's Pain Eradicator and his Elixir Balsam, which gave immediate relief, and in less than two weeks made a complete. cure. I have found it to surpass anything I have ever known for curing burns. MRS. W. ARMSTRONG.
