TO MR. DAV'D. RAYMOND.

SIR,—Your card offering yourself as candidate is my apology to the public for asking of you an explanation of a circumstance which, unexplained, stamps you as a char-acter unfit to be entrusted with power or office. I despise the practise so common in elections of clandestinely circu-triver which are accessed by the stamps of the practice of the lating reports unfavorable to candidates, and prefer giv-ing you a fair chance publicly to explain, what I am compelled to consider a black evidence against you. It would evidently be unfair to circulate this unfavorable circumstance without giving you due notice of it, because I have never considered it or you as of sufficient consequence to seek an explanation, and as you were unsuccessful in your attempt would yet consider it so, but that some well disposed persons ignorant of what I am afraid an exhorbitant over tax upon my property in that parish. Mr. Corbet explained to you and the rest of the Council, that he had received information from the Assessor or Woodstock, June 3, '64. Collector, that the tax was illegally assessed, and was done under a mistake, which he also explained. Upon this the vote by the Council to remit the tax was unanimous, with the exception of your vote. Why did you de-sire to enforce the payment of a tax which was declared illegal by the proper officers to make the statement?
