JAMES WATTS, Publisher & Proprietor.

Our Queen and Constitution.

SAMUEL WATTS, Editor.

WHOLE NO. 836.

WOODSTOCK, N.B., SATURDAY, JANUARY 21, 1865.

VOL. XVII.-NO 3.

poetry.

TERMS of the Carleton Sentinel per annum, $1,80, cash payment in advance. S2 if paid within 6 mos. Clubs of f1, $15, and one to the sender of the club. At or immediately before the end of each unpaid year, bills will be forwarded to subscribers, and such bills may SIR, — With your leave I will now state a few more of my objections to the proposed Confeder-tion. The first is, the expense of legislation. — ken to recover the amount of $3, which is the price when lature will be a somewhat costly machine; their ***Advertisements must be handed in on Thursday.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 21, 1865.

Carleton Municipal Council. ANNUAL SESSION,- Continued. JANUARY, 12th.

be are paid by the day they will find something to Councillor Delancy Tompkins, Peel, fyles his to fritte, away the time, so that, in my opinion, the qualifications and takes his scat. A great part of expenses of our Local Legislatures will be nearly the forenoon was occupied in discussing certain Rethe same as now, and I suppose we will have about solutions relating to the leasing of the Ferry between with a tear upon it. What is the dawn without as much Executive machinery to keep up as we now Woodstock and Northampton, based upon the pe-CARES.—Pack your cares in as small a space as is at hand when we will be expected to protect ourhave. Another objection I have is this, it is arguyou can so that you can carry them yourself, and selves, hence the necessity a consolidation, but it ernment to assist E. Shea and Louis Coombes to meditating and planning. The more I resolved the drive another. No one ever accurately knew what thing was right, nothing wrong. One day farmer circumstances and the peculiar character of his fa- had passed in that dreadful chamber before we en- Grundy told a neighbour that he believed his wife Sir,- With your leave I will now state a few, ther. which I had easily divined, the less probabil- tered it. The housemaid had heard high words ; was the most even tempered woman in the world, ity I saw of his application succeeding. I almost and after they had gone on some time two pistol for he never saw her cross in his life, and for once he regretted that I had advised it. Colonel Hardy's shots, with the interval of but a few seconds be- should like to see her so. "Well," said the neigh- It is admitted on all hands that the General Legis- not paid within the year. vice was intractable pride. That was clear enough. tween them. And that was all. I trust that the ber, "go into the woods and bring her a load of the sessions, no doubt, will occupy several months in Was there any chance then that one who had poor lad was mad; but that was my last sight of crookedest wood you can find, and if it don't make the year, probably four or five at least, and gentlecrookedest wood you can find, and if it don't make her cross nothing will." Lecordingly, to try the men of their cloth must be well paid for their servi-ces even though they may do little or nothing; experiment, he teamed home a load of wood every ces, even though they may do little or nothing; then again, the distance our members from Lower way calculated to make a woman fret. For a week Provinces will have to travel will be no small item Be simple, unaffected ; be honest in your speakor more she used the wood copiously, but not a word in the account; this, together with all the other of complaint escaped her lips. So one any the hus- expenses, will amount to a large sum, of which we ing and writing. Never use a long word where a band ventured to inquire of her how she hand the will have to bear our part. But it is asserted that short one will do. Call a spade not a well known wood. O, it is beautiful wood," said she, "I wish the business of our Local Legislatures will be so cut a friend's throat, or insulted a benefactor, or oblong instrument of manual industry; let home be small that the expenses will be very much lessened, you'd get another load, for it lays round the pot sol a home, not a residence ; a place a place, not a lobut of this I have strong doubts, for as long as memhave forgiven it all. But to have his name on the cality, and so of the rest. Where a short word will complete?"

Gems of Thought. A smile is ever the most bright and beautiful meaning; and in the estimation of all men who are competent to judge, you lose in reputation for abilits dew?

The only true way to shine even in this false world, is to be modest and unassuming. Falsehood

The following lines are pretty. A girl who can com-pose such, we think, should scarcely need ask a second time for a repetition of the kiss .- Ed. Sentinel. YOU KISSED ME.

your breast.

drunken with wine

moist with your hen, if death

nd night:

You kissed me ! my head had droop'd low on your breast With a feeling "or and infinite rest, ort to my cheek.

> ticles; and to pay him a salary. I entertained no te delight? doubts of him-no suspicions. His were not faults shelter as then ? which would render such confidence dangerous, and again ? nabel Montfort. I only waited to see him to make the offer.

was unpardonable.

all. LOUNG MAN

week after he had dined with me, to the very day, I was walking quietly to my chambers, thinking of other affairs, and had taken my way through a short lodging houses, leading from a great square. There passionate hold! young man a seat in my office ; to give him his ar-brought disgrace upon his name, who had set his William Hardy.

authority at naught, should obtain any compassion in misery and distress. Could William have gone tained pardon for sins more heinous than any he had committed. I doubt not in the least it he had seduced a lady of high rank, Colonel Hardy would police-sheet as a common gambler for mere bread

Such was the conclusion in which all my meditatory to myself at least. I determined to offer the ity.

tions ended. My plans were rather more satisfac-to him in splendor and success he might have ob-

Jonciuued). At length the ale came to its close in what might | was but one shop in the street ; that of a wax chanb expected. Step by step-or rather by waves and dier with whom I dealt, and who knew mo well : a pulsations, sometimes tossed up and sometimes cast man of the name of Shepherd. I walked along, on down, but left lower and lower at every fall, he had the same side of the way as that on which his shop suck into utter destitution. When I met him, he stood, and had met nobody till I reached it; but lad not tasted food for four-and-twenty hours; the just as I was coming near, I saw a servant in a day was his reat day, and then he would be home- striped morning jacket run across from a house opless as well as penniless. There was nothing left posite, and call Shepherd to the door. They were pronounce a name in reading differently from his for him but a lodging on the steps of a house or of talking eagerly, and apparently anxiously; but a church, a beggar's pittance, or the Thames. Bit- was passing on when Shepherd called me by name. ter and terrible was the telling of the tale, and it saying, "I beg pardon, sir; but I am afraid someended with a gran which spoke anguish of spirit thing serious has happened over there. This man more strongly than any thing I ever heard at a gal- William, sir, tells me he has heard two pistol shots in his master's drawing-room, where he was at raw school boys and one term freshmen to astonish in every child. lows foot or in prison cell.

My task was to come; but it seemed neither a breakfast, and he and the people of the house are very painful nor a very hopeless one. I had to con- afraid to go in, for the gentleman is very stern and the easiest words in their commonest meaning. Let ger; it lives on love, but it resembles those Alpine sole and to offer relief. I did the first as best I severe, and never suffers any one to come unless he the sense conveyed, not the vehicle in which it is flowers which feed themselves by suction from the might. Where mistakes and misfortunes have gone | rings the bell."

together it is the worst plan in the world to preach, " Nonsense," I said, " people do not fire pistols and I therefore made it my first business to see if 1 in their drawing-rooms without cause which should could not stir up the embers of the undying fire- be inquired into, and if they do they should be ta-, in the bosom of the afficted man, and warm | ken care of. Who is your master, my man ?" m into exertion and activity. I found this net so i "My master is Colonel Hardy, sir," he answered y as I had expected. He seemed quite crushed, with a very anxious look, and his words seemed to describe your walk as two miles out and back. asing glooming that there was no return for him, send all the blood in my body to my heart in a mo-. Suding the line of Dante on the fate of these mont.

who pass the gates of Hell as if he really believed "Was any one with him ?" I asked in a shaking that he had entered the place of the condemned. voice ; " was your young master with him ?" I did not give up the task, but I thought it bet- "Yes, sir," replied the servant, "the houseter to hold out something more substantial than maid says he walked past her when she was cleaning mere philosophical arguments upon the folly of des- the steps, and up-stairs straight, about half an hour pair. I assured him that I would do the best I ago."

could to serve him; that if he liked I would see his I walked across the street at once, followed by father and atempt to mediate : but I strongly ad- the servant and the wax-chandler, and ran up the vised him to go to his father and personally entreat stairs without ceremony. "Which is the room ?" "Put away all pride, my young friend," I said, tion was answered by my sight. There were two Martha, interpreted, is bitterness; Isabel, signifies great pleasures of life. as one passes by a rare flow- ticipate in the St. John market about four months Sunday. forgiveness.

"submit yourself to his will, and even hear his re- doors on the first floor; one apparently leading to a proaches without reply. The sight of a son's face bedroom at the back, and one to a front room fa- truth ; Eleanor, all faithful ; Ellen, originally the "I KNOW THAT VOICE."-A young minister went must have an effect upon a father's heart if it be not cing the street. From underneath the latter, as I Greek Helen, changed by the Latins into Helene, into the country to preach, and observed. during find the value of agricultural products imported in- ton, praying the Council to let Henry Foster have He shock his head, gloomily murmuring. "it dark red stream of blood. I instantly tried the of stone.'

I still pressed him to what I believed to be the right There was no answer.

may be a very thick crust but in the course of time not let them annoy others. truth will find a place to break through. Elegance of language may not be in the power of all of us, I had settled the matter in my own mind and dis- but simplicity and straight forwardness are.

Hardy ; but whenever an interval of business gave swer not only for his own offenses, but for a share Grundy was the most good me time for thought in regard to his case, I went on of all those to which his offenses lead, or tempt, or natured woman alive. Come what would, every-

The Words we Use.

do, you always lose by using a long one. You lose in clearness, you lose in honest expression of your

Write much as you would speak; speak as you tes the happiness of the poor. missed the subject from my thoughts, when just one Many regard themselves as moral, disinterested, think. If with your inferior. speak no coarser than you say, and within the rules of prudence, say what bly insist that others shall be so.

but wide street, principally consisting of fashionable you are. Avoid all oddity of expression. No one MEND Yourself. The best service that we can of the Mother country say, and very justly too, riage not to be made lower than at present. And nunciation. The truly wise man will so speak that, mends one, all will be mended. no one will observe he speaks. A man may show joy better health, and find more time for business, Less.

who lives on common air. When I hear a person use a queer expression, or conceptions. before it stands on the side of deficit, not of credit.

Avoid, likewise, all slang words. There is no greatmore than an endeavor to liberate by means of a er nuisance in society than a talker of slang. It is reeman, the ideal human being that hes concealed only fit (when innocent, which it seldom is,) for Love, like men, dies oftener of excess than of huntheir sisters with. Talk as sensible men talk ; use

Once more, avoid in conversation all singularity of accuracy. One of the bores of society is the vorc often found skulling under the clerical robe, with who is always setting you right; who, when you an outside all religion and an inside all political ranreport from the paper that 10,000 men fell in some cor. Things spiritual and things temporal are battle, tells you that it was 9,999; who, when you strangely, jumbled together, like poisons and antidotes on an apothecary's shelf ; and instead of a desures you that it lacked half a furlong of it. Truth wont sermen, the simple church going, people have pondents of that chy, are giving much considera- Council we decomposed tederation with Canada, and stituents. in conveying a right impression ; and there are va- labelled with a pious text from Scripture .- Wash-gue ways of speaking that are truer than strict fact would be. When the Psalmist said "Rivers of waters run down mine eyes, because men keep not thy deeper than fact, and also truer.

Signification of Names.

looks to me as if this very mesure is that which build and run a steam ferry boat. The final result HAPPINESS OF THE POOR.—Labors of the body free will bring about such a state of brings, for while of the discussion was the adoption of the petition, us from pains of the mind. This is what constitu- us as a little sickly child, but possessing such un- and a compliance with its prayer, and also the pasdoubted affection for the good old lady that she is sage of the following : Resolved that the right of quite willing to provide the dogs of war to guad ferriage at the Ferry opposite the Town of Woodus, and so prevent us from falling a prey to any ra- stock he granted to L. Coombes and E. Shea for the usual; it your superior, speak no finer. Be what truthful, and gentle, merely because they inexora- pacious monster who might be inclined to devour term of ten years, at the rate of one shilling per us : but let us once become united with the other year, on condition that they will provide and run a provinces and nationalized and will not the people steam ferry boat during said term, the rates of fer-

Communicated.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE CARLETON SENTINEL.

ever was a gainer by singularity of words, or in pro- render to the world is to mend ourselves; if each Here you are a nation of nearly four millions, active until such steamer shall have been placed on such and intelligent, possessing one of the finest countries route the ferry to be sold by public auction, in acin the world, and in altogether better circumstances cordance with the Bye-Law relating to Ferries.

HEALTH .- Pleasure of body consists in health, and than we are, now what right have we to tax our- On motion Mr. Shaw, seconded by Mr. Kirkpatgreat knowledge of chemistry by carrying about felicity of mind in knowledge; health, competency, selves to protect a people so much better off than rick, Resolved. Whereas much inconvenience and bladders of strange gases to breathe but he will en- and intelligence, form the chief sources of happi- ourselves? Again there is the paucity of our re- disorder in auditing arises from Parish Officers mapresentation in the General Legislature. What king returns, after the time prescribed by law, weight will 15 members have in an assembly of therefore Resolved, that this Council require the To think is not merely to have ideas-to be the 177? but it is said that our representatives can Auditor to strictly adhere to the law in regard to theatre across which images and emotions are march- unite with the weaker of the two great political the time of receiving all auditable documents of ed, but to sit in the midst as master of one's own parties, in case the stronger will not give us our County and Parish Officers County rights, and so nearly, will parties be balanced that The Council went into Committee of the whole our representatives will thus be in a position to on Parish returns. Scretal Tayorn licenses grant EDECATION .- The spirit of education is nothing oust the ruling party, but, I ask, will this be an ed. On the petition of Wm. Mallorr da a license oust the ruling party, but, I ask, will this be an honorable position for our members to unite with the French of Lower Canada, of different political views, to compel the Upper Canadians, of the same politics with ourselves, to give us our to the same will it not rather be. Mr. Upper Canada will have the next census is will be proven Canada will have the next census is will be proven Canada will have the next census she will be able to out vote us alto- ous to the place where this tavern was situated, and gether, and so have everything her own way, and as a young population springing up, and it was desirshe has shewn heretofore that she is not wanting in able to shield them as far as possible from incurring the principle of selfishness, what may we then ex- bad habits. There was a mill near by, and it was TELIGION AND POLITICS .- A cunning politician is peet but that our interests will be utterly disregard- greatly to be feared that if a tavern was opened a ed, whenever they conflict with hers. Yours, &c, good deal of the grist would find its way to the latter. He had understood that on Christmas day last, there was much intemperance and disorder at the house of Mr. Mallory. He, Mr. H., had no ill feeling toward the applicant, but was studying his best interests in refusing him a license ; he hoped as he

MR. EDITOR .- The nress of St John considera- Council would not force the tavern upon their conit is clearly to be seen that the scheme so far meets Mr. Shaw had not seconded the motion of his colwith a very unfavorable reception. To my mind, league because he was absent at the moment. He the powerful opposition made in those journals, so did not know of any section of the County more liearly in its progress, appears premature, and I am able to the worst evils which intemperance could THE BEAUTIFUL EYES OF CHILDREN .- A child's much inclined to think that the time given to the inflict than the neighborhood in which Mr. Mallory's law," he did not state the fact, but he stated a truth eyes those clear wells of thought what on earth people for its consideration, before its submission house was located. There were a great many young to the Legislature, will bring with it a reaction people there, and these naturally were disposed to greatly to be desired. It is plainly the interests of gather with their elders at a public house, and there the Counties of Oarleton and Victoria to support become initiated into all manner of evil. He, for est in joy, how sparkling ! in sympathy, how ten- any project that will open up markets for their pro- one, would do all he could to preserve them from

Mary, Maria, Marie (French) signifies exalted _____ der ! The man who never tries the companionship duce, and give greater facilities than they at pre- temptation. Mr. Shaw referred to the transactions, according to some, Mary means lady of the seas; of a child has carelessly passed by one of the sent enjoy in commercial pursuits. The steamers said to have been committed at the tavern on Christin the year, and those of Victoria much less, so Mr. Hayward's motion was passed. that we may be said to be shut out of that valuable Mr. Morehouse presented a petition from Samuel market for at least eight months in the year. I Dickenson and 139 others, inhabitants of Brighlovely ; Julia and Juliet, solt-haired ; Gertrude, all | er without plucking it or knowing its value.

put my foot upon the top step, I saw cozing a small signifies alluring, though according to Greek au- his discourse a poor woman who scemed to be affect- to the City of St. John in 1863, as follows :

In the set what were und fresh, poultry, &c..... I did not clearly understand what he meant; but I did not clearly understand what he meant; but I did not clearly understand what he meant; but I did not clearly understand what he meant; but I did not clearly understand what he meant; but I did not clearly understand what he meant; but I did not clearly understand what he meant; but I did not clearly understand what he meant; but I did not clearly understand what he meant; but I did not clearly understand what he meant; but I did not clearly understand what he meant; but I did not clearly understand what he meant; but I did not clearly understand what he meant; but I did not clearly understand what he meant; but I did not clearly understand what he meant; but I did not clearly understand what he meant; but I did not clearly understand what he meant; but I did not clearly understand what he meant; but I did not clearly understand what he meant; but I t was decided, on the application of Mr. Deher-Strah or Sally a princess; Sonhia wisdom; Ame ngton Irving. can be more beautiful? Full of hope, love and curiosity, they meet your own. In prayer, how earn-over the world. Girls love something to pet, love, and fondle, comb, wash, above all, dress, and-own soil.

Wicklow, Jan. 13, 1865. A COUNTRYMAN. [FOR THE CARLETON SUNTINUL.]

write to him first and ask permission to wait upon me in !"

him-ob, he is a very punctilious gentleman, and Ali was silent. may not find it convenient to receive his own begot- Shephead, who was a stout man and a famous punever ventured to take him unaware."

my manner when I replied, " You know your fa- followed him closely.

subdued pride on your part, will harden his heart stretched upon the hearth-rug, lay the stern father against you." He grasped my hand tight in his, and answered left stretched out as if it had been grasping at in a low, earnest tone, " Don't mistake me. There something-the bell perhaps. He was dressed in a shall be no pride. I have drunk the cup of degra- brocade silk dressing-gown, with slippers on his dation to the dregs. I have acknowledged to him feet, and his coffee-cup stood half full upon the tamy faults, my follies, and my vices. My next letter ble near. His face was somewhat distorted but not shall be merely a humble request that he will see disfigured; but it was the face of a dead man, and may open the letter, and I will try to move him by dressing-gown told the manner of his death, though the most abject entreaty." "Stay, stay," I cried, as he turned toward the toward the back, was not at first apparent. He door; "you forget you must have some temporary was deadly pale, of course : the flush of passion, if own house, you would have thought them almost Fistance till we see how this plan answers." 1 know how it will answer," he said, in a barsh, knitted in one of the fiercest frowns I ever saw. grating voice, " but it is the last act. and it must Not far from him lay on the carpet a discharged strangers, we hold ourselves with self-respect, and be done."

you with what money you may want at present." He started, gazed full in my face for a moment or door was the body of William Hardy, and it was but with a very strange expression upon his hand- and dabbled with the spouting blood, and the ball

Two guineas will be enough.'

with a ghastly suile. "That is one-and-twenty shop ticket bearing the words, "Second-hand .-- short engagements."

days' life at a shilling a day. three guineas, and promising that I should hear the that I gave him !

a merard to which I had some misgivings. thing? No, sin ! sin breeds sin, and crime begets moles, or at best as a colony of muskrats, having a scribed one of his children as born " in the parlour," church maintain it, and that in the present Episco- sider the matter, and report to-morrow, with referpal prayer-book there is at least one instance of it. fence to the feasibility and propriety of the County THE FOURTH SIGHT. For a whole week I heard nothing of William erime; and every guilty human being has to an- wonderful providence and industry. and the other " up stairs." 4 - ten wegar. No one was ever admitted to his pre- gilist, stepped forward, turned the handle of sence without an appointment. His dearest friends door and put his shoulder against it. It gave way suddenly; but then caught against something. The

There was an angry sarcasm in his tone that I did violence of the first push, however, had forced it not like, and though I would not give up my good open sufficiently for a man to pass. Shepherd offices, yet there might be something reproving in went in first with an exclamation of horror, and I ther best; but depend upon it the least sign of un- Never shall I forget the sight. There before me with his right arm bent underneath him, and the the wound being in the side of his head, and rather

" No; no ;" I replied, " there may be many other having given one glance at the first object which resources. But in the mean time, let me supply struck me, I turned to another still more horrible. That which had prevented the full opening of the two, and then casting down his eyes remained silent his blood which had trickled underneath. He for some time, while his face worked with many had fallen partly against the door, and lay on his chargenons, Oh that I could have read upon his side with his head toward the windows. Oh, what countenance what was going on in his heart. At a frightful sight that head presented! The temple length he looked up saying in a mild, sweet tone, was blacked ; the beautiful curling hair was singed some countenance. "You are very kind-very kind passing right through from side to side had spatter- scintillations of the ripest wisdom. The last is in indeed. I cannot, however, be a dependent upon ed the brains against the wall; and yet his face the form of advice to a young lady as to how she While Dr. Samuel Johnson was courting his inable to repay it some day. That I will answer for." deed, that we had difficulty in removing it; and its own course. There is one thing I hav alwas "Well, make it another guinea," he answered hanging to the guard of the trigger was still the stuck tew. and that iz, give me long courtships and Egg's best make. Only £2 10s."

lia and Amy, beloved, Matilda, a noble maid; had was a donkey. Husband, he died, and then me Margaret, a pearl, Rebecca, plump; Pauline, a and poor donkey was left alone. At last donkey, he the little one; Hannah, Anna, Annie, Ann and Nancy, died; and, to tell you the truth, your voice put me P. E. Island, which are the common products of our port, which was adopted, and the accounts recomall of which are the same original name, interpret- so much in mind of that dear old critter, that I ed, mean gracious or kind ; Jane signifies dignity ; couldn't help taking on and crying about it. Ida, the morning star; Lucy, brightness of aspect;

Louisa, or Louise, one who protects ; Emma, tender; Catharine, pure, Frances, or Fanny, frank or Iree ; Lydia, severe ; Minerva, chaste.

FAMILY COURTESIES .- In the family the law pleasing ought to extend from the highest to the like destruction-anything that smokes or smells lowest. You are bound to please your children ; and your children are bound to please each other; and you are bound to please your servants, if you expect them to please you. Some men are pleasant in the household, and nowhere else. I have known such men. They were good fathers and kind hus. where he had been with his master, was asked in but if you had seen them in the street, or in the a drop of the crater," was Pat's witty reply.

counting-house, or anywhere else outside of their it had been there, was gone; but the brow was still demoniac. But the opposite is apt to be the case. When we are among our neighbors, or among pistol, but I stopped not to look at it, for after endeavor to act with propriety; but when we get home we say to ourselves, "I have played a part long enough, and now I am going to be natural." So we sit down, and are ugly, and snappish, and blunt, and disagreeable. We lay aside those little courtesies that make the roughest floor smooth, that make the hardest things like velvet, and that make life pleasant. We expend all our politeness in places where it will be prefitable-where it will bring silver and gold.

Josh Billings, in the Troy News, gives us weekly

I urged him, but in vain. He would only take Good Heaven, how had he applied the money NATURE .- What sort of a naturalist is he who flies from society to nature, trying to ignore man? preference and rational design.

result of his letter to his father, he left me to think There he lay, that bright, warm-hearted, ener- Men have their place in nature as well as the woodover what could be done for him if that plan failed, getie, willful boy-a parricide-a suicide! Was chucks, and their habits deserve to be studied, even A householder, in filling up his schedule at the palian weekly, advocates praying for the dead, in- compelled to make annual returns. it altogether by his own fault he had become that if we only succeed in looking upon them as bats, last census, under the column, "Where born," de-

Here we have over half million dollars in cash, by proxy could not be taken.

Committee on County Accounts submit their repaid for productions, chiefly from Nova Scotia and Now when we consider that the amount of money On motion of Mr. Dibblee, seconded by Mr. Hayabove referred to, far exceeds in value the whole ward, Resolved, that no tavera license be -granted CHILDREN .-- The tastes of children are alike all amount of all the logs and timber that we send for a shorter period than 6 months. down the river annually, it will give our farmers a Mr. Ahern moved, seconded by Mr. Lloyd, that comparative idea of the extent of that market which | the British shilling be taken at 25 cents .- lost.

JANUARY 13th.

will be opened immediately to those who chose to crowning glory and power of motherhood-put to settle along the line of the proposed railroad. And On motion of Mr. Kearney, seconded by Mr. bed. Boys prefer an article with which they can what a greater degree of satisfaction must this trade Gallop, ordered, that an architect be employed to do mischief-a sword, a gun, or a cannon-they prove to be, compared with our present unprofitable prepare plans and specifications, with an estimate of cost of such alterations and improvements, on Whatever view the people of St. John take of the Court House building, as would render it betlike gunpowder. As a young friend of ours observ- federation, it behoves us to look out for ourselves. ter adapted for its purpose. Mr. Kearney observed ed, "If fire-works are so nice, what must a battle They generally claim that western extension is that the strongest possible argument in favor of the more important to their interests. They already proposed change was found in the present appearhave regular communication by water to Boston ance of the Court House. Mr. Scholey questioned

An Irishman who had just returned from Italy eight months in the year, and are interrupted the the propriety of expending much money on this remaining four months only. I claim then that building, and suggested that it would be cheaper to our position to St. John is just as important to us erect a new building of brick. Committee to atbands. If you had seen them in their own home the kitchen : "Yes, then, Pat. what is the lava I as theirs to Boston. and as the period of interrup- tend to the matter. Messrs. Kearney, Dibblee, and > Boston, we feel it more. I think, Sir, that a con- Mr. Merrit moved, seconded by Mr. Simpson, a nection with St. John by rail is to be the imme- resolution for a bye law, in amendment of the pre-A Persian poet gives the following instruction diate benefit to our Counties, and ought to be sent ferry law, to give the Council power-to let ferupon this important subject :--- "When that art strongly urged by our own people, and whatever ries by contract for any term of years above 1 year. benefits the vicissitudes of trade may bring to us Mr. Shaw cautioned the board from opening a door married, seek to please thy wife; but listen not to from Canada, let us be content that it ever will be for the introduction of petitions to them, which all she says. From man's right side a rib was taken increasing, and being brought nearer to its people, would greatly increase their labors and retard geto form a woman, and never was there seen a rib our resources will have a better chance of being de- neral business. Mr. Scholey said, if necessary, raquije straight And wouldst thou straighten it? veloped by the capital they possess, than their pre- ther than interfere with the right to petition by the sent isolated position can possibly command. people, it would be better to ask the Legislature to TRADE. pass a law allowing the Councillors pay. On the list of Parish Officers for Simonds being offered for confirmation by Mr. Merrit, Mr. Scholey said he would second the motion, except as re-The death is announced of Admiral Romanlated to the name of B. Travis, which he desired to FLUCK .- There is a man in Maine, the owner of was opposed to the Turkish flotilla, and the steam be struck out. He said Bernard Travis was elected > highly necessary that he should remain in office for another year. Mr. Merrit explained that Mr. Tra-A professor of natural history named Walker vis, in the strict discharge of his duty, had rendered himself obnoxious to certain of his subordinates guineas, I will take them. If I can ever repay you there was no trace of either. It looked far more kind, looking down hill, with an expression about no property, and once had an uncle that was hanged. made in South America. It is that the great River parish purposes, one was asked for to obtain the I will. If not, you have done an act of charity. If not you have done an act of charity. To which the lady replied that she had no more proit between my first and last sight of him. A pistol if yure laver wants tew kiss you, I don't think I perty, and, although she never had a relative that been opened between the Atlantic and the Pacific. The Committee appointed for the purpose recom-"Take more_take more," I said, "you will be was grasped firmly in his right hand-so firmly in- would say yes or no, but let the thing kind ov take was hanged she had a number that deserved to be. The Morona, a Peruvian steamer, which was sent mend that $1,700 be assessed on the County for to explore the Amazon, has arrived at Mayro, County purposes for the year. Report received and Exvy .- To diminish envy, let us consider not about 300 miles from Lima. The Morona navigated assessment ordered. more than, 2,000 miles of the Amazon proper, and Mr. Hayward, chairman, presented Report of what others possess, but what they enjoy: mere 600 of the Yeavali and the Pachitea rivers, which, Committee on Parish Returns, which was received, ricles may be the gift of lucky accident or blind until then, had seen only Indian canoes. The and on motion of Mr. Scholey, was ordered to be chance, but happiness must be the result of prudent country is of course, inhabited only by savages, but printed in the Carleton Septimel.

Islands are gradually sinking into the sea. A most important discovery. far more so than &c.

Mr. Dibblee urged the necessity that all Highit is of wonderful fertility. A writer in the Northwestern Church, an Episec- way and Statute Labor Commissioners should be

It breakes, but bends not. Since, then, 'tis plain that crooked is woman's temper, forgive her faults, Gordon, V. C., Jan. 10, '65. and blame her not, nor let her anger thee, nor coercior use, as all is vain to straighten what is curved."

says that when the minister was hugging and kissing his wife, he peeped through the crack of the door most enterprising officers of the Russian navy. and saw it all; and as long as he had the spirit of Finland. He was also employed during the defence persons, but in the discharge of his duties, he has of Sebastopol, and was looked upon as one of the been put to costs in law, and Mr. Merrit thinks it a man remaining he would peep on such occasions ! writes to the. English papers that the Channel and had been prosecuted and mulcted in damages off, who commanded the Russian fleet that, in 1829, a piece of crinoline, who shows decided pluck. He vessels that opposed the British force in the Gulf of last fall, he believes, against the wishes of several