Prospectus for 1865.

A FTER two years of uninterrupted success, the Propri-tor of the St. John TELEGRAPH is enabled to state that, during the coming year, his Paper will be conducted with more vigor than ever. Neither ability, money, nor enterprise, will be spared to make the Telegraph worthy of the people of the Province, and deserving of the very extensive patronage it has received from all classes of society and all parties in polities. Within the past six months a DAILY has been added to our other editions; and we have great pleasure in stating that it has been well received in all quarters, and has become an institution of the country. We continue to send TRI-WEEKLIES to all who choose to order them, and have made arrangements to forward Subscribers, by mail, papers published on any

One, Two, or Three days of the Week they may choose to name.

Between the DAILY, TRI-WEEKLY and WEEKLY

The largest Stock of Stoves ever brought into this 12,000 copies of the TELEGRAPH are issued every week from our Printing Establishment, and our circulation is constantly on the increase. The popularity which our journal has enjoyed, we are convinced, is due in a large measure to its non-party and independent course on political questions. We can assure all of our present patrons, and all who feel inclined to become · Subscribers for the coming year, that this SHEET LEAD, Sheet ZINC; Chain PUMPS, Cistern Do., course shall not be departed from in the future. The acts of our politicians shall be carefully scanned, as usual, their merits receiving the proper meed of praise, and their faults being held up to public censure as they de-

The TELEGRAPH for '65 will be well supplied with Correspondence and other contributions from all parts of British America, and especially from all important points in the Lower Provinces; and the Editor will be assisted by gentlemen of talent and sound judgment in its management.

THE WEEKLY TELEGRAPH. Published at the very low price of One Dollar a Year:

Gives its Subscribers the largest and best collection of Foreign and Local News to be obtained in any paper in the Lower Provinces-together with Editorials on all the leading questions of the day; complete and cor-rect Country Market Reports; details of City News; Cor-Queen-street, Fredericton respondence from the Country Districts; and all other news matter in which the people of the Country Districts are interested. Particular attention is paid to the matter furnished in this Country Edition, and the tastes and wants of its Subscribers are most carefully consulted. As we publish in our Daily Edition some forty or forty-five understood that we are thus allowed a wide margin for a choice of matter for the WEEKLY. Although the issues of onr Weekly have given such general satisfaction that all our old friends are renewing their Subscriptions, we can confidently promise that THE WEEKLY FOR '65 will be a great improvement on the past.

Our features for the issue of 1865 shake the pillars of whatever has heretofore been deemed imperial in serial literature. Both sides of the Atlantic render us tribute. We shall continue the thrilling romances of Miss M. E. BRADDON, necromancer of the strong dark passions, to whom we pay more money annually than the entire capital of our imitators, and add to our American ries of his well known imitable comic papers, written expressly for us, in his irresistably convulsive vein. HAR-RIET E. PRESCOTT, the most polished and imaginative sketch-writer living; P. T. BARNUM, the world-famed showman and autobiographer; Miss M. A. EARLE, FAIR-

In addition to its crisp and telling editorials; its delectable Gossipers' Club, in which the aptest and wittiest poems, caricatures, and burlesques of the time first appear, and its coquettish Ladies' Promenade, to which all BOOTS and SHOES, Rubbers, Gent's Beaver and Felt the mothers, sweethearts, daughters, wives, and widows of the land subscribe their experiences, the NEW YORK
