

Mr. Editor.—As the people of these provinces are getting crazy about Confederation, I fear our little branch railway, the special confederation we require, will be overlooked in the general confusion. I will now by your leave lay before the people of this County a few statistics, dry in themselves, but of importance, when speculation is to be undertaken. The St. Andrews railroad is said to have cost $20,000 per mile; this would make at that rate our branch, say 10 miles, cost $200,000. The government pays $100,000, leaving us to provide $100,000. The population of the County by the census of 1861, was 16,373—divide this number into families of six persons upon an average, you have 2728 families. The tax upon each family is $36.43. It is contemplated to borrow money by issuing debentures upon the security of the County; let these debentures run over a period of five years; then we must provide, each year, a sum to pay $290,000, and interest, which would be a tax of about 60¢ and interest, which would be a tax of about $7.20 each year upon a family. Suppose each family would sell 50 bushels of oats per annum the extra price at an outside market, by means of this road, might be set down at 20 cents per bushel, amounting to $10 each year. They would then be able to pay the annual tax and interest, leaving all their other farm produce clear profit. I think therefore is a fair estimate of the cost and benefits we should derive from the road. For the period that would elapse, from the time of commencing the road, we should be amply compensated by the large amount of cash to be spent among us. If we succeed in this object the people of St. John will soon say the St. Andrews road, that they may not enter into the same, this alone, a Confederationian may step into the cars here after breakfast, take his dinner at St. John, see the lions, sell his produce, purchase his year's supplies, and return home again to tea at night, or the next day as may best suit his convenience. As to the profit of the road, I may state one fact, we see every morning teams passing our doors, hauling iron from the Foundry to the Richmond Station, I am told from ten to fifteen tons per day. This would all pass over the road, and from the probability of the company much extending their operations, would form a small item of profit, and that continues as long as their profitable work continues. I hope the people will reflect seriously upon this to them momentous question, and not be deterred by the fear of taxation from embracing it, and vigorously carrying it out. The road ought to be commenced next summer, and finished with all possible haste.

Colonial News.

We learn from the Fredericton Herald that the buildings in Fredericton occupied by Messrs. Harvey Strickland, John Edgcombe and John Dennis, were destroyed by fire on Thursday morning. Mr. Edgcombe was uninsured, he lost his dwelling house, and his large three-story carriage and sleigh factory with its contents in stock of the same value. He saved his furniture. His property was uninsured, as was Mr. Strickland's who lost his dwelling house and heavy stable, nearly all his furniture and one of his horses. Mr. Dennis saved most of his movables. He was insured for $1000. All four large three-story buildings, and a number of outbuildings and sheds were burned. It was only three or four years since Mr. Edgcombe was injured by a falling wall upon him that he has since died.

Attorney-General MACDONALD, said these resolutions were in the nature of a treaty, and, if not adopted in their entirety, proceedings would have to be commenced de novo. If each province undertook to change the details of the scheme, there would be no end to the discussions and the conferences which would have to be held. Then, as to having a debate three days a week, it would extend the session beyond all bounds, especially as, after the Confederation scheme was disposed of, there would be a measure for organizing local Governments under that scheme.

Of course he could not answer what the policy of the Imperial Government might be. All he could say was this, that the representatives of the various Colonial Governments were to meet in London, made, agreed to go home and press upon the Legislatures of their respective Provinces this measure as a whole, and to present in all the Colonial Legislatures addresses, identical in their nature, to Her Majesty, asking her to pass an Act based upon these resolutions, such address being an expression of the deliberate opinion of the Colonies. It would then become the duty of the Imperial Government and Legislature to act as they pleased in the matter. He hoped and believed they would not make any alterations in the scheme adopted by the Conference. It was quite satisfied that if the local Legislatures agreed to pass the scheme as it stood, they would leave us to be the best judges of our own affairs, and carry the measure through.

The London Times, we find, thinks the decision of Judge Colborne, to be correct, but blames the judge for discharging the prisoners in such haste:—"A Colonial Act can have no force of itself as against an Act of the Imperial Legislature. That is the authority of an Order in Council. When that Order in Council comes to apply the Imperial Act must clearly prevail. So far, therefore, we think that America has no cause of complaint against us. The Judge appears to have decided the point, to well recognized principles of law, and though the point was highly technical it appears to have been clear enough. The fault was not in him, but, in the first place, in the blunder of the Colonial Legislature, and, in the next place, in the oversight of the legal adviser of the Canadian Executive. But, admitting that the Judge was right in his law, was it clear that the Judge was bound to treat the matter in the summary manner that he did? Was he bound to discharge the prisoners for him? And if so, was he bound to discharge all the other prisoners whose cases he had not heard?"

By Telegraph to "Carleton Sentinel." New York, Feb. 18 p.m. Cashing made a reconnaissance up Cape Fear to the very wharves of Wilmington, where he gained valuable information. Gen. Schofield landed his force of 20,000 veterans at Masonboro, and now slowly advances Wilmington. Richmond papers of the 16th say, Sherman has crossed the Congaree River and is 25 miles south east of Columbia.

A despatch from Quebec says the Canadian House of Parliament last night, in Committee, passed the estimates for $320,000 for expenses of the Volunteers to be sent to the frontier to prevent Southern raids on the United States; also $50,000 to make good the money improperly returned to St. Albans raiders. Gold closed at 204.

New York, Feb. 20. "Saxonia" from Southampton arrived. Parliament opened the 7th, speech said Mr. Johnson remained steadfastly neutral in relation to the American War. Express satisfaction with the Canadian Conference in respect to Confederation, and if approved by Provincial Legislatures a bill will be laid before Parliament for carrying the measure into effect. Breakfast daily and despatches quiet, mail to 8.15.

Gen. Beauregard has officially announced capture of Columbia, the capital of South Carolina, by Sherman without further resistance. He estimates that this necessitates the evacuation of Charleston. Divisions of Sherman's force are threatening both Charleston and Augusta. There is good reason to believe that Lee contemplates evacuation of Richmond, as his army is being rapidly cut off from communication with the Gulf States. Gold 202.

New York, Feb. 20th p.m. Gen. Grant telegraphs as follows:—"The Richmond Examiner of to-day, just received, announces the evacuation of Charleston, S. C. last night. Mobile Register says, the Southern people are not so cowardly; their souls and not their hands are at stake; our strength is not sapped but our courage is out at the finger tip. The Potomac states that the loss from the army of 10 days have averaged 75,000. Gold closed this p.m. at 200.

New York, Feb. 21 p.m. Despatches from Admiral Dahlgren dated 21st. Feb. 15, confirms the evacuation of that city, and that he, Dahlgren, was about landing to take possession. In capturing Columbia, the Federals obtained possession of all the Treasury printing material of the rebels, and a large amount of other stores. Sherman was rapidly pushing forward one column toward Charlotte, N. C., and another toward Charleston. Rebels are removing supplies from Wilmington, supposed preparatory to evacuation. Gold closed at 197.

New York, Feb. 21 p.m. By the arrival of the steamer "Fulton," at this port, we have the particulars of the evacuation of that place by the rebels, and its occupation by Admiral Dahlgren. The rebels left the fortifications unharmed, but spiked the guns, previous to evacuating them.

freed the upper part of the city, by which 6,000 bales of cotton were destroyed; supposed before flames could be subdued two-thirds of the city would be destroyed. A fearful explosion took place, by which 200 rebels lost their lives. The rebels blew up two iron-clad monitors, "Bicentennial" and "Cyrene," just arrived from Nassau, full into Dahlgren's hands. The rebels evacuated the city on the night of the 17th. The old flag now floats over all the forts in the harbor, also Federal city. A large quantity of fine ammunition was captured.

New York, Feb. 22. "Nova Scotia" from Liverpool 10th, and Portland and China with dates 12th, arrived at this port. Lord Lyons dispatches in referring to St. Albans raid are published; Earl Russell dispatch to Lord Lyons notices the handsome terms in which Seward acknowledges the cooperation of Canadian Government, and adds that Her Majesty's Government trusts that such faithful cooperation in performance of friendly offices may long continue on both sides. Breakfast daily, provisions quiet and steady; consols 204 a 50.

A Quebec despatch says, the upper House of Parliament voted to reject the Confederation scheme by a vote of 45 to 15.

The St. Albans raid also still continues at Montreal. No special war news this morning. National salute fired to-day at all Government Armories and Government Headquarters in honor of capture of Charleston. No gold reports to-day being anniversary of Washington's birth-day.

New York, Feb. 23. The following despatch has just been received by General Schofield and Admiral Porter. Though the fort and all the guns were left in good condition. The arrival of the following on towards Wilmington accompanied by two monitors, and it was expected that Wilmington would be in our possession on Monday. Several hundred rebel soldiers, who deserted themselves in Charleston just before being evacuated, came forward and gave themselves up to the Federals on their entering the city.

New York, Feb. 23. Deal, the Lake Erie Pirate, to be hung to-morrow. Late Richmond papers state that Grant's army in mind to deal with Lee cannot move for some time. Rejoicings over the fall of Charleston were general throughout the United States yesterday. No late war news this morning. Gold closed 198.

New York, Feb. 24. Richmond Whig of the 20th says, it was Wheeler who was whipped at Aiken, near Augusta, instead of Kilpatrick. The paper says a formidable Federal expedition has left Newburgh for Kingston, N. C. Richmond Examiner proves that the Government take as much caution in taking the war as they do in the prosecution of the war. It says the situation of the country is too serious to waste in windy denunciations; we have heard nothing here of the loss of the Georgia. No news from Sherman or Grant to-day. Gold closed this afternoon at 200.

Neglected Coughs and Colds.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "Common Cold," in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon grows upon the Lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Trochies," or "Cough Lozenges," afford instant relief.

Wellsville, Conn. Jan. 20, 1865. I had my wife severely hurt by a fall some four or five years ago, for which I had been under the treatment of several physicians, and used various patent and popular remedies without benefit, and never free of pain until last September, that I commenced the use of Graham's Pain Expectorant, and was completely cured before I had used one bottle, and have not felt any symptoms since.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY OF CARLETON.

GENTLEMEN.—You are again called upon, second, perhaps, the question of your consent to elect two representatives for the General Assembly of this Province. Having been solicited by a large number of the electors of Carleton County, and by the Legislature in nomination as a candidate for your suffrages, I have decided to comply with their request.

Carleton County has been my home for the last thirty years, and during my long residence amongst you, my interests have always been identified with yours. I have served my County in a public capacity for a length of time, and during the last three years have had the honor to represent you in the Provincial Legislature; all the acts of my public life are open for your inspection, and from the most rigid scrutiny I have nothing to conceal.

My past actions, therefore, rather than my present declarations must be taken as the pledge of my future conduct. The Confederation of the British North American Colonies is a question of the greatest importance to us, in this Province, and from all I have heard, and seen written, on this subject, I have come to the conclusion that it will be highly advantageous to New Brunswick to adopt this scheme.

On the day of nomination I will give you, more fully my views on this important question and also my reasons for adopting it. If, on a full discussion, any new phase shall appear, I shall reserve the right of acting in such manner as shall best serve your interests.

All measures for the good of the Province, shall have my earnest support, originate with whom they may, keeping in view my motto "Fair play, equal rights and equal privileges, to all Her Majesty's Subjects."

Hoping to have the pleasure of meeting you at the hustings on Saturday the 25th inst., and of addressing you personally on the great question of the day, I beg in the meantime to remain, Your obedient servant, Wm. LINDSAY.

Woodstock, Feb. 14th 1865.
