The Winter Evening. The time has come when we are irresistibly impelled to think, how shall we spend our winter evenings. The term we is used not in the limited editorial significance, but as embracing the public feeling. Of course every community, every family, has its quota of reading matter and books and newspapers are a ready and useful resource against the tedium of the many by the heads of families, the younger members seeking to employ a portion of the time socially, ment, and unless care be taken to provide proper means the young ladies may be led to spend too much time in idle or unprofitable gossip, and possess the ability, if they would resolve upon it, the same direction by the County. bors; and gentlemen of one district would gladly | Monday evening next. visit other districts, and thus by an interchange men that make the country, and that

In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most EXPERIENCED and SKILFUL NURSES in New England, and has been used with never failing success in THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the shild from pain but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve Griping in the Bowels, and Wind Colic, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speed ly remedied, end in death. We believe it the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of DIS-ENTERY AND DIARRHOEA IN CHIL-DREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause.
