VOL. XVII.—NO 33.

WHOLE NO. 866.

Noetry.

BACHELOR'S HALL.

Bachelor's Hall! what a quare looking place it is Keep me from it all the days of my life; Sure, but I think what a burning disgrace it is, Niver at all to be getting a wife.

See the old Bachelor, gloomy and sad enough, Placing the tay-kettle over the fire; Soon it tips over-St. Patrick ! he's mad enough, (If he were present) to fight with the Squire.

Now like a hog in a morter-bed wallowing, (Awkward enough) see him kneading his dough; Troth ! if the bread he could eat without swallowing, How it would flavor his palate you know. His dish-cloth is missing, the pigs are devouring it, In the pursuit he has battered his shin-

A plate wanted washing, the cat she is scouring it; Murder and turf! what a pickle he's in! Pots, dishes and pans; sich greasy commodities, Ashes and other things kiver the floor, His cupboard's a storehouse of comical oddities, Things that had never been neighbors before.

His meal being over, the table's left sitting so; Dishes, take care of yourselves if you can! But hunger returns, then he's fuming and fretting so; Och! let him alone for a baste of a man! Late in the night he goes to bed shivering-Never a bit is the bed made at all; He creeps like a terrapin under the kiverin'-Bad luck to the picture of Bachelor's Hall

Select Cale.

A NIGHT IN THE MUD.

If any man enjoys a holiday, it is a clerk in a public office; and in 184-, no one started for his winter trip with more pleasant anticipations than those with which I locked my desk in the Title-Deeds office, and started for North Lincolnshire. I have never been there since indeed if I ever have a nightmare, I wake from awful dreams of having been smothered under the wolds of that county, as the giants of old were whelmed under Ætna. But to my

Does the reader know Great Grimsby? Why it should be called Great Grimsby, I cannot tell as no one was ever known to have found his way to Little Grimsby. But let that pass. A popular novelist of the present day, when he wished to send the villain of his story to a place where he might reasonably be supposed able to escape observation, relegated him to Grimsby. His selection was most judicious. Does any one even know of a friend who has ever been at Great Grimsby? Dull and dreary is it, twining its slow length along one long street leading to the sea, like some wounded serpent dragging it self to the water, doubled up here and there into a convulsive row of houses, writhing at another part into a knot of two or three dingy cottages. North and south of it are spread out extensive tracts of mud and waste land, called "fytties," always dismal in the midst of summer, and tenfold more lonely and dismal when the tide of the Humber runs down, and invites numerous flocks of water-birds to their favorite house I was staying, I used frequently to resort to these mud-flats after nightfall, and we seldom failed to obtain a shot or two at wildfowl.

The modus operandi of the gunners of these shores is very simple. They dig a hole during the day in a mud-bank some way above low water mark. Towards nightfall they deposit a bundle of straw on it, on which they stand .-They may wait in the cold for hours without seeing a feather, but generally patience is rewarded by getting a flying shot at a party of ducks or curlew coming to feed.

One night (shall I ever forget it?) my cousin had to spend at Lincoln on the Grand Jury. After dinner an immoderate desire took possession of me, to ramble towards the Humber with my gun. It was a bright frosty night, and all rect for the "fytties."

bank, kept up at great expense by the proprie- some cold and slimy serpent, the pit slowly tors of the land to prevent the waters overflow- drew me downwards; button after button of my ing the rescued meadows, at the back of which waistcoat disappeared. I spread out my hands Romans. Beyond the low wailing of the green The other reached firm ground too. Oh joy! plovers overhead, I had heard nothing during I was on the gravel subsoil, and though I could mated scene presented itself. Some 800 yards previous despair. I shouted wildly for delight. off, at the edge of the Humber, where the tiny It was like once more being restored to life. wavelets glittered in the moonlight, there was a ment, I crept noiselessly along, keeping well in Hour after hour of that pitiless night passed ner-good-bye." and a sound a sound along the ment, I crept noiselessly along, keeping well in rousing their suspicions. A flock of teal came overhead, flying towards Spurn light that had glared all night so fixedly married Anno Domini 1835, and that isn't mothe sea from some inland pond, and without a on my misery, that I had been tempted to curse ther's name, for her name was Sally Smith." their centre. Much to my delight one bird the deep dark blue behind it. At last day was | Many men dedicate business to the defluttered to the ground sixty yards in front of coming; but my senses were so deranged, I vil and polities to the devil, and shove religion me evidently winged, but still, from the speed hardly knew whether it was not all a hideous into the cracks and crevices of time, and make with which it made for the water, likely yet to dream. Was I alive, or a disembodied ghost? it the hypocritical out-crawlings of their leisure escape me, as I had no retriever. No form of punishment that even Dante's pro- and laziness.

air and made off. Over shingle and over banks perished in the hateful ooze.

waterproofing capabilities to the full. mud-bank. To my horror I slipped back at passed beyond the limits of my view. every step. My previous foot-tracks were little Then I gave in. It was useless to struggle was two miles away. It was half-past eleven of dashed the boat on to me and I fainted.

trying to get out of the muddy prison in which how sincerely I detest Lincolnshire. I found myself. One side was just as bad as the other. I heard the far-off lapping of the sea in the deathly silence of that intensely bitter night; behind me, on the opposite side, the call of a duck or curlew occasionally rendered the stillness more intolerable. I am not one given to despair, so I made up my mind to wait till morning, and trust either to my absence creating a hue and cry, or else, I knew the coastguard boat passed down at dawn, haunts. In company with the cousin at whose and I could hail them as they rowed by. I had wasted all my powder and shot already. Wrapping my plaid still tighter round my breast, cold and wet as I was, I lighted my pipe and rested > Soon I began to perceive myself sinking into the mud. I extricated myself, only to sink about ten yards off. Once more I madly es- of the fingers when the arms are extended. sayed to climb the bank. Down on my knees I crawled, and driving the gun into the yielding mud, strove to use it as a lever. Vain thought! I slipped down again up to the Richmond, relates an incident as follows :knees in water and mud.

the time my hostess was singing to amuse me, I ous quicksands on this coast. The water was tions to one of our relief agents a few days ago, Portland Star. sat on thorns longing to start for the shore. — up to my thighs now. No plunging was of any was asked if she had ever taken the cath. 'No, At length she wished me "good night," when avail; it seemed to do harm. I had dropped indeed, sir,' was her terrified reply, 'I never I informed her that an uncontrollable liking had my gun; reason almost left me; in unutterable swore in all my life.' 'But you must take the come over me to look up the ducks. Would despair I looked to the skies. The stars twin- oath, my good girl,' said the agent, 'or I canshe trust me with the key, and I could let my- kled brightly, and here and there a fleecy cloud not give you the rations.' 'No, indeed, I can't self in after an hour or two without disturbing passed majestically along. There was no sym-sir, said the girl; 'mother always taught me any one? She tried to dissuade me, urging pathy with them. Far over a purple waste of never to swear.' The agent mildly persisted, the charms of the chimney corner and a cigar sea, I saw the spurn light at the extremity of and the maiden as pertinaciously refused all atto no purpose. Then she reminded me that I the Yorkshire coast. It was just seven miles tempts at persuasion, until overcome at last by might easily lose myself, but I assured her that off, but I screamed and shouted to it for help. the dreadful conflict between necessity and her it was bright moonlight. Finally she gave me Now I had settled down to my waist. A burst high sense of moral duty, she stammered out, the key, and saw me off literally on a wild-goose of tears came to my relief. To die when so full with downcast lids, 'Well, sir, if you will make chase. I took my double-barrel, and made di- of life and strength and hopes! Oh, horrible! me do such a horrid, wicked thing-d-n Another plunge; I settled down deeper still, the Yankees!" A walk of half an hour brought me to the and bade farewell then to the world. Like been constructed for the same purpose by the one foot? I kicked and felt something hard.

fluttering of innumerable wings, a screaming, arms in deadly cold water; the reef I stood on calling, and clanging sound of many flocks of fell away, I found by experiment, on all sides. waterfowl. I thought of Homer's account of My pipe was hopelessly wet. No one could see a Yankee who was refused a dinner at one of "I'm sitting on the style, Mary," as the Cayster's banks, and longed to be nearer the my head and shoulders from the land. The the taverns down East until he had showed the envious girl said, when she plumped down on water's edge, as little companies of eighteen or ordinary path was two or three hundred yards landlord his "puter." Boniface then did his her sister's new hat and feather. twenty ducks and curlew flew along every now behind me. The wind was rising and blowing best, and at the sound of the bell, in walked and then parallel to it. A little way to my seawards. All possibility now, even if I sur- the Yankee, and taking a general survey of the right a range of stakes and large boulders ran vived the cold, of being heard by a chance pass- table, turned to the host and said, "Mister, the shade, and with great trouble getting a hun- on. Only my head and shoulders seemed alive dred yards nearer the wildfowl, without as yet so intense was the chill that had seized my body. wife beside mother?" "No, my boy, what

With a noise like distant thunder, and a lific imagination shadowed out can equal the loud screaming and whistling, all the wildfowl sufferings of that night. Youth is full of hope. for a mile or more, either way, rose up into the or I had flung myself forward many times, and Brandon were the Congregational and Baptist, ing in the tenacious mire, at other times plung- over the river disappeared, and from one end of at once each society undertook to build a new ing deep into a pool that tried my Cording's my prison I saw two outward-bound steamers brick church. Deacon Spooner took the job of The moon was just passing behind a bank of stinctively to the other, the inland narrow view church-I think it was to build the windowclouds as I made my way to the reef of mud on between the two banks. In the far distance, frames. He wanted a hundred and fifty dol- thieves. which the teal lay seemingly dying. It had joy of joys! a man approached! Long before lars, while the committee wished it done for a fluttered on some way, and drawn me four or he could possibly have heard me, I shouted hundred. At last it was settled between him burned to death a few weeks since, at the baths the fact that the government bonds are non-taxa- grown up from generation with the five hundreds yards from the embankment .- wildly. It was my cousin's groom, evidently and the chairman, a shrewd lawyer, and some-

The mud was particularly yielding here; but I looking for me. He turned away; and my thing of a wag, that a hundred dollars should day with a woman and $26,000; both the proppushed on to the edge of a little dip, six yards heart sank within me; no, he is turning again, be the price; but if, on the completion of the erty of another man. down which lay the bird, dead, as I now saw. and scanning the mud flats. I shouted and job, the Deacon said he had had "an all-fired The descent was not inviting, but I went on screamed in a vain attempt to make myself hard bargain," he should be paid twenty-five bravely over the ankles in the hateful black heard over the raging wind that so often sweeps dollars more. The good Deacon found that he and the Jadges are reduced to fishing in order to avow the statements, while the Berlin Zeitung nufactures had not put down that higher literaslime. As I seized my bird, being rather out over the "fytties." I raised my hands and had lost by the job, and claimed the additional of breath, I slipped and fell on my hands and plunged in the mud once more, but to no pur- five-and-twenty dollars. knees, luckily saving my gun from getting pose. He seemed again to be drawing towards "Well, Deacon," asked the lawyer, "can $21,575. damp. With a little difficulty I recovered my me. Had he seen me? I redoubled my you honestly say you have had an all-fired hard | English papers say that ten thousand pounds | ted, and in many localities there will be a full feet, turned, and commenced ascending the shrieks. Alas! he turned his back, and soon bargain?"

pools. The treacherous water filled them in any more. I must have swooned. When I bargain?" immediately. With perspiration breaking out revived, horror of horrors! the tide was coming coldly over me, I once more madly essayed the in !-cheerily rippling up against the breeze, ascent. It was only three yards in height, but and circling round some large boulder or stake, Will you say you have had an all-fired har that hid the country and even the moon from and then swallowing it up. It was but a hun- bargain?" me. It was preposterous to be foiled at such a dred yards from me now, and the distance mo- 'No, Square; I can't say that. That would for this he might live to be a pretty old man. trifle. For a full five minutes, I tried my best mentarily lessened. Anything is better than be swearin'; and I won't swear for any money to mount the incline; but only made about a to be slowly drowned, I thought. Oh, for a but it was a most outrageous hard bargain." vard of it, the mud higher up the slope being dry death! One more plunge, and all was "Then I don't see, Deacon Spooner, how Hon. John A. Macdonald being made Minister of sed away within a few days of each other the free cheap press had exercised in its influence less tenacious than where with some difficulty I softening round me. The first ripple came into we can, under the agreement, pay you the twenmaintained my stand. Now I began to wish I my prison. Perhaps (as I could swim) I ty-five dollars." had listened to reason, and remained at home. might manage, after all, to wriggle out. Hope The Deacon left, preferring to lose the money However, there was nothing for it but, weak as revived; the first wave washed over my mouth rather than violate his conscience by saying I felt myself becoming, to drain my flask, (it and nose; as I opened my eyes, a boat passed "all-fired." But the upshot was that after the feet high, and when in position will be on a granluckily retained a few mouthfuls from our last along not thirty yards from me, and turned her lawyer had enjoyed the telling of the joke for a expedition,) and once more essay to return. head near me. I could just raise my hands few days, he paid the sum. So the good Dea After long struggling and expending all my and arms. More amazed than words could tell con saved his conscience and did not lese the little remaining strength in vain, I became se- a hardy coast-guardsman leapt into the ooze, money .- Vt. Record. riously alarmed, and fired several times by way holding on by the boat with one hand, and of bringing help. Alas! the nearest house grasping me with the other. The next wave a bitter March night, and even professional gun- rope was flung round my body, I heard afterners, I felt, would hardly come down from Grim- wards, and two or three of the men pulled me by, so far down the river, except by the merest in, minus shoes and stockings, and nearly dead with exhaustion and terror. After a long at-Then I shouted myself hoarse, and once tack of brain fever, I slowly came round; and more wasted my little remaining strength in now you will not be surprised to hear me say,

The Human Figure.

The proportions of the human figure are according to this rule. The face from the high- thy parents to roam the streets by day or night, est point of the forehead, where the hair begins to run to fires, smoke cigars till they no longer to the chin, is one-tenth of the whole stature. make him sick, and come in and go out when which is played by steam. The hand from the wrist to the middle finger, he pleased. That boy has been long lost, and the chin, be divided into three equal parts, the found any day until they go off on a spree, but meet, and the second the place of the nostrils. and ductile spirit of boyhood and youth? Lost deeper. Thoroughly alarmed, I put away my The height from the feet to the top of the head All the advertising in the world will not bring pipe, and paced to the other end of my prison, is the same as the distance from the extremity these back. Only correct parental control will

Taking the Oath.

Then the full horror of my situation dawned joke which my pen cannot resist recording. A thieves so long as boys of twelve summers are upon me. I had heard that there were danger- modest young country girl on applying for ra- allowed to be roaming the streets after dark .-

first transplanted from our native soil, when the ion, many a headache. through life. There are after griefs, which time, to know it. wound more deeply, which leave behind them scars never to be effaced, which bruise the spimy walk. Now, as I cautiously wormed my- not stir, I could not sink deeper! The revul- rit and sometimes break the heart; but never self up the bank, and raised my head, an anision of feeling was as dreadful as had been my do we feel so keenly the want of love, the necessity of being loved, and the utter sense of desertion, as when we first leave the haven of Soon my raptures abated. I was up to the home, and are, as it were, pushed off upon the that the path of rectitude had been traveled so

The Bangor Advertiser tells a good story of grass towards the sea. Trusting to them for conceal- er-by was utterly hopeless. you've seen my money and I've seen your din-

A Conscientious Deacon.

WOODSTOCK N.B., SATURDAY, AUGUST 19, 1865.

two of the awkwardest and most dilapidated, of black mud, I ran towards my prize, now stick- With grey dawn the thin mists that floated unpainted wooden structures in the State. All year on an income of $1,300,000. majestically passing along. Then I turned in- doing some of the work on the Congregational

"Yes, I have had an awful hard bargain."

"Yes, it was a tremendous hard bargain." "But that is not according to agreemen

"Boy Lost."

Not long since we saw an advertisement with the above heading in a daily paper. A description of the missing youngster was given, and a reward offered for his restoration to his parents. We subsequently learn that the boy had been on a spree with some other precocious bloods, and after exhausting the money he puroined from his mother's purse, returned of himself, like the prodigal to his father's house.-His parents were rejoiced at his safe return, and flattered themselves that he was found. We strictly mathematical. The whole figure is six differed from them. From what we know of another, and of the robbery of the passengers on sing. The coffenders were Sarah Tuttle and Jatimes the length of the foot. Whether the form the matter, we think the boy is still lost. In be slender or plump the rule holds good, and fact, he was lost before his parents missed him deviation is a departure from the highest beauty He is now scarcely more than a dozen years old, of proportion, the Greeks make all their statutes and yet has been allowed by his fond and weal-

From the top of the chest to the highest so have thousands of others in our large cities, point of the forehead, is a seventh. If the albeit they attend their meals regularly, and do length of the face, from the roots of the hair to their sleeping at home. Their bodies may be first division determines where the eye brows where are the boys! Where is the innocence in which they are now wandering, and place which female curiosity would ask. them on the sunny road of virtue, which leads > Punch tells some home truths in sum ming up, some of the sweet uses of adversity: You wear your old clothes.

You are not troubled with visitors. You are exonerated from making calls. Bores do not bore you Sponges do not haunt your table.

Tax-gatherers hurry past your door. No tradesman irritates you by asking, there any other little article you want to day? Impostors know its no use to bleed you. You practice temperance.

Home.—The pain which is felt when we are You are saved many a debt, many a deceptliving branch is cut from the parent tree, is one And lastly, if you happen to have a true

> I have noticed that he who thinks every man a rogue is very certain to see one when be shaves himself, and he ought, in mercy to his neighbors, to surrender the rascal to justice.

> A clergyman said in a recent sermon, little of late years it had completely run to for him; he should make himself worthy of it, A man who had a scolding wife, being

"Father, did you ever have another asked what he did for a living, replied that he frightful extent, "hells" existing by the dozen track. They will never effect the desired reformación in the red hot crucible. The diluted acids kept a hot house.

> TIME, patience, and industry are the three grand masters of the world.

writ of attain'd her.

holds a lady's hand without squeezing it.

For a long time the only meeting houses in Items Forcian & Forci

There has been four deaths from excitement about the elections in England.

A brother of Stonewall Jackson was drowned near Mobile lately. essful enterprise in Illinois. It insures against

A broker in Philadelphia absconded the other tion of the State is 4,350,000.

The total expences connected with the late Camp of Instruction, Fredericton, is said to be will not reimburse Mr. W. H. Smith for his recent effort to defeat Mr. John Stuart Mill. "But can you say you have an all-fired hard vised register, in England and Wales, is 1,027,-017; in Scotland 101,807, and in Ireland 203,- 845, total, a million and a third. A man named Joseph Creed who was a lad of Canada, with the office of Receiver General; and cient custom continues. there has been a re-arrangement of the Ministry.

funds to procure a statute of Mr. Lincoln for Jef- Council; and Sir E. P. Tache, whose death was ferson square. The figure is to be of bronze, six announced last week.

of 1100 per cent in forty years.

aided him in the work, and was fined a like residence in New York.

things is evidently about restored on the Missis- and hard reality.

creased to a marvellous extent, so that a band of adjusted it forthwith. The facts were clearly six instruments can make as much noise as sixty. Among the novelties which are to be shortly produced at the Paris hippodrome is a piano A woman horsewhipped her husband in the meekly submitted to forty or fifty blows, but

Papal bulls or decrees without the previous sanc- boys receive fifteen per cent. on all sales, and ously estimated. Five years since, they were being ready to fight for him. thought to be 60,000 in number; now perhaps called upon to appear as a witness could not be been expressed in private for Gen. Grant's safety. port of the Emigration Commissioners has been found. On the Judge asking where he was an But these apprehensions were unreasonable.— published. The commissioners state that, since elderly gentleman rose up, and with much emphasis said, "Your lordship, he's gone!"— ciated in every civilized land, and especially will he who unites them all be welcomed and admired 3,450,531 have gone to the United States, 1255,— gone?" to The Learnest inform you?" and Service apprendictions were differentiable were differentiable were differentiable with the year 1814, the numbers that have left the United Kingdom amount to 5,691,709, of whom he who unites them all be welcomed and admired 3,450,531 have gone to the United States, 1255, lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure, in a very short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure, in a very short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure, in a very short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure, in a very short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure, in a very short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure, in a very short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure, in a very short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure, in a very short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure, in a very short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure, in a very short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure, in a very short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure, in a very short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure, in a very short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure, in a very short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure, in a very short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure, in a very short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure, in a very short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure, in a very short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure, in a very short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure, in a very short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure, in a very short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure, in a very short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure, in a very short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure, in a very short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have sure short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have short lie the remains of an old dyke, that may have short lie the remains of an old dyke This is considered the best guarded answer on real friends of the Union are more numerous in the United States has been, therefore, nearly

> The animal is killed, his heart removed, and an very gratifying to the people of this country, and was, no doubt, the inability of the British Provinstrument inserted in its place by which sweet pickle is sent through the main artery into every amity which ought always to exist between the large number of Irish who emigrated in the part of the pig. It is estimated that this will two-Boston Journal. reduce the price of food fifty per cent.

scended from Osceola, the celebrated Indian to meet you. Towards Canada and the British chief, of that State, whose name was Powell .- Provinces I cherish only the kindest feelings."-Payne looked like an Indian.

tained a verdiet in the court of Queen's Bench, No man ought to enjoy what is too good in England, against Mr. Windsor, an absconding "Fenians" had a grand turn out in this city, the most volatile of known bodies, possesses the teller, for £26,973. The defendant had property and their "Head Centre" made them a long singular property of remaining fixed in the red in Staten Island, which the bank had seized. It at the place of health. More than $3,000,000 ation by speechifying three thousand miles away gets into immediate contact with the heated meare invested in the pursuit, and the profits are from the abuses which excite their indignation. tal, instantly fiashes off, and such is the rapidity All at once I heard a loud rustle behind me. gleefully over head. The stars grew dim, the stars grew dim,

The present is the sixth time that Egypt has been visited by the cholera—renewing in destructiveness the mortality of the ancient plague.— The first outbreak of the cholera was in 1831; the Wm. B. Astor, of New York, pays a tax this next in 1838; the third in 1840; the fourth in 1840; the fourth in 1850; the fifth in 1855. The period of exempt-Press."—At the annual dinner of the Printer's ion has never exceeded ten years, the term be Almshouse Asylum, the Chancellor of the Exche-The census of the State of New York is now in progress, and the returns of New York city show from the national life of England. They could

A Donegal grand juror writes to the London to convoke a conference of European powers to In the present day a truth which was indisputatives boasting that in this assizes there has not, revive the treaties of 1815, and to arrange the ble before had acquired new vitality and force, among 240,000 people, been a single case to try, basis of general disarmament. Paris writers dis- namely, that the expansion of commerce and mais not damaged to the extent that was anticipater than usual. Corn never gave greater promise than it does at present. Rye and barley are gen-The number of voters, according to the last re- erally in good condition. Harvesting is progressing with vigor. It is this: Immediately after the arrival of the house of every working man. (Cheers.) two or three years when Washington was born. daily mail, a man passes through the principal Through the medium of the press he was inis now living in Wisconsin, and is consequently streets of the town, blowing a horn to attract at- formed from day to day of the course of public a hundred and thirty-nine years old. He is a tention, and then cries the news. The good peo- affairs; he felt a new interest in all that was gogreat smoker; and the doctors think that but ple when anything exciting is expected, rush to ing on, and became aware, by a new title, that

Militia, and Hon. Mr. M, Dougall Minister of Ed- Hon. Judge Morin, aged 62, of the Superior over the masses of the country, in attaching them A number of gentlemen in Philadelphia by was a member of the Hincks Ministry; Hon. knowledge, and by yet more devoted affection, to private subscription, have collected sufficient Mr. De Beaujeu, a member of the Legislative the laws and constitution under which they lived.

Some Canadian negroes went to Rochester a short time since, and went to the theatre. Under In 1800 the population of the United States the mistaken notion that they were members of was 5,305,925. In 1850 it was 20,260,000. a party of wealthy Cubans stopping at one of Showing an increase of upwards of 300 per cent. the hotels, they were given first-rate seats in the In 1811 the population of Upper Canada was dress circle. Great was the consternation when 77,006, and in 1851 it was 952,000, an increase it was found, the next day, that they were only niggers.' Major General Prentiss was arrested at Quincy. Hon. C. H. Carroll, the last male representa-Ill., the other day, and fined five dollars for thresh- tive of the family of the famous Charles Carroll ing a young man who kept company with his of Carrolltown, (and one of the signers of the Dedaughter against the General's wishes. His son | claration of Independence,) died recently at his

nount.

Lily Cooper, a good-looking Miss of eighteen, dressed in boy's clothes, got on board a sleeping go patronized the opera to an amount of nearly car at St. Louis in a berth above a rich old gen-$90,000. In a season of sixteen weeks the great | tleman, whom she plundered of a watch and city of New York patronized the same institu- wallet; was arrested in Chicago and her sex discovered, and in a prison cell is now musing upon An exchange says, the normal condition of the difference between yellow-covered romance sipi. A single despatch brings us the report of In 1654 a trial took place in Connecticut, unone steamboat explosion, of the blowing up of der the section of the blue-laws prohibiting kiscob Newton. It appears that Sarah dropped her Sax, of Sax-horn celebrity, has just finished gloves and Jacob found them. When Sarah ask-proved, and the parties were each fined twenty For the privilege of selling books and newspapers on the Hudson River Railroad, it is said no less than $5,000 a year is paid. For the same streets of Warren, R. I., recently. The man so, 55,500 per year. This seems a large sum, and showed opposition when his son followed up the the operations. On the Hudson River Road the sales average $100 to each through train. On the Central the average is $150 per train. The The editors of the French papers have been di- books and papers are not sold by the owners of rected by the Home Minister not to publish any the right, but by boys employed by them. The make large wages. In ancient times, an abbess was allowed to The ship of the line, the Victory, Nelson's Ball, who now occupies a large farm near Leamconfess her nuns. This was discontinued (says flag ship at Trafalgar, was launched in July, ington, but who was formerly engaged in the nadrag them from the dark and slimy labyrinths Dean Martene) in consequence of its having been 1765. but is still kept in good order as a receiv- val service. The noble visitor was on terms of proved that there was no end to the questions ing ship in Portsmouth, Eng. A splendid cen-which female curiosity would ask. Ing ship in Portsmouth, Eng. A splendid cen-tennial ball was given on board of her on the 5th him in politics, and being both tired and hungry Out of 1,600 male clerks, messengers and oth- at which dancing commenced at 3 and ended at he said, on seeing the remains of a round of beet A correspondent of the World, writing from through pleasant lands. Boys are to be the ers employed at present in the Treasury Depart- 7 p. m. The company were therefore in morning on the table—the quantity enough for one and a ment 600 are disabled officers and soldiers. The costume, and some of the ladies were their bon- half or two men—"That's a nice piece of beef ichmond, relates an incident as follows:— men of the land, and we need to have them good five hundred lady clerks are chiefly Union refuin the land, and we need to have them good five hundred lady clerks are chiefly Union refuin the land, and we need to have them good five hundred lady clerks are chiefly Union refuin the land, and we need to have them good five hundred lady clerks are chiefly Union refuin the land, and we need to have them good five hundred lady clerks are chiefly Union refuin the land, and we need to have them good five hundred lady clerks are chiefly Union refuin the land of two men—"That's a nice piece of beef in the land, and we need to have them good five hundred lady clerks are chiefly Union refuin the land of two men—"That's a nice piece of beef in the land of the land, and we need to have them good five hundred lady clerks are chiefly Union refuin the land of the land of two men—"That's a nice piece of beef in the land of the land of two men—"That's a nice piece of beef in the land of the land ments of the vessel.

those who apprehended a different reception on Flatterers do not shout their rubbish in your In an English court lately a man who was the other side of the line, and even fears have Emigration Statistics.—The twenty-fifth regone?" "That I cannot inform you," replied wherever the Anglo-Saxon race exists. But aside 554 to British North America, and 867,802 to Experiments are being made in Philadelphia in the noise of a few secession orators and organs. America; but this excess has arisen only in the inflitration, a process by which a live hog may be converted into corned pork in twenty minutes. At any rate, the hearty ovation that has been acconverted into corned pork in twenty minutes. Corded to Gen. Grant by the people of Canada is

Loud cheering greeted this sentiment, and the A CHEMICAL FREAK. - A platina crucible is The Mercantile Bank of New York has ob- train moved away amid much enthusiasm-Globe. made and maintained red hot over a large spirit

Why is a muff like a fool? Because it fine looking woman, and has heretofore borne a tude of all who read English or American news- a high temperature, and of the rapid abstraction papers. - New York Paper.

General Achs.

A horse insurance company is the latest suc-essful enterprise in Illinois. It insures against 189,581 since 1860. The total valuation of out a press it would cease to be England, and property in the city is $608,784,355. Real es- become something else and very different. The tate increased $16,655,399, while personal estate press was a power which had not been called in-The young and lovely duchess of Alcadia was nominally fell off $46,000,000, owing largely to to action by any arbitrary decree of man. It had ble. It is estimated that the aggregate popula- advancing strength, the opening intelligence, and the increasing power of the country. It had upon Three of the Continental papers are giving pub- it all the marks of being not an adventitious aclicity to rumors that France is again endeavoring cident, but an essential property of the country. In the present day a truth which was indisputathinks that there is some truth in what has been asserted respecting the Conference.

Of crops in the north west it is said that wheat is not damaged to the extent that was anticiped.

Except the incomparable period of Shakespeare, no epoch in the history of England had added so much to our permanent literary treasures as the hundred years since which commerce and manufactures began to assume their gigantic mensions. While that had been the case with average yield. Of oats, the product will be greather higher literature, with regard to the press it was true that, important as had been its action in this country for several generations, since it had become almost like a new creature, such had it been its vast expansion. It had descended A Nantucket correspondent describes a primi- from the upper classes, who first possessed it, and tive custom there for circulating impotant news. from the middle class, that next acquired it, into doors and windows to learn the news. Although he was indeed a citizen of England. Even the Sir Narcisse Bellean has been made Premier of the newspapers reach the town daily, yet this an- most sanguine of those who had promoted the liberation of the press from fiscal restraints never Three distinguished Canadians have just pas- could have anticipated the immense power that a

STATISTICS OF THE RELIGIOUS WORLD .- The religions of the world may shortly be summarised

4. Brahmenical Hindus - - 120,000,000 5. Parsees - - - 1,000,000 7. To which may be added the

Fetichism of the aboriginal tribes of Africa, America, Polynesia, &c. - - 189,000,000 which, according to statistical writers, is the present population of the globe. Protestants.—The following table, drawn up from reliable data, shows the numerical strength of the principal churches and sects into which the Protestant part of Christendom is divided :-1. Lutherans -12,716,958 3. Anglican Church 14,459,000 203,091 12,000 157,925

656,000 13. Minor Christian Sects :-108,422 Plymouth Brethren Campbellites Christian Chartists 2,471 Christian Disciples 10,319 Evangelical Union 340 Free Christian Brethren 6,000 Irvingites 100,902 Mormons Sandemanians

A laughable story is told in relation to the outh Warwickshire election. Lord Duncan, in the course of his canvass, called, and not for the first time, at the house of a gentleman named do-if you like to sit down and eat it, I'll give The population of India is two hundred mil- A Paris journal says that France and England you a plumper at the election." Lord Duncan lions, embracing about thirty distinct peoples, have a good understanding, and will act together sat down and tackled to his work, and when he who speak upwards of fifty dialects. More than to preserve the peace of the world. They are had got three parts through with it, he said he six hundred native chiefs were present recently at agreed upon the principal questions that now would die if he ate any more. "Ah!" said the a levee given by the English minister at Lahore. trouble nations, but whether this agreement re- elector, "I've been too far North for you." "I A Marseilles paper states that 6,000 young men between twenty and forty years old, have met on some waste ground outside the city, and pledged themselves not to marry until young lapledged themselves not to marry until young la-dies abjure crinoline, expensive dresses, and in Belgium. It is not at all probable that England I'll plump for you, and I'll appear in front of short turn over a new leaf and prepare to become bas agreed to back the French game in Mexico, the hustings on the day of nomination with the though she might be pleased to see Emperor Max piece of bone in my hand." Lord Duncan there-The number of Chinese in California is vari- succeed; but that is something different from upon called for some Scotch whisky, and then disposed of the remainder of the beef. True to his promise, on the day of nomination the voter 70.000. They are also found in other States and GEN. GRANT IN CANADA. - The Lieutenant Gen- appeared in front of the hustings with a piece of territories, as Washington, Oregon, and Nevada, eral seems to have excited almost a sensation, and bone in his hand, as a trophy of the way in spreading abroad, and moving from place to to have been received as kindly, in Canada, as in place, as they are allured by the prospect of the Northern States of the Union. There were treating his candidate.—Eng. paper

Canada than we have been led to suppose from three times as numerous as to British North years immediately following 1847. The stream, once diverted to the United States, continued in The Canadians managed to get a speech from the same channel. Those who went first sent Considerable mystery attaches to the assassin Grant, the only one he has made, publicly, since funds to enable their friends and relations to fol-Payne, lately hanged at Washington. His real has been suggested that he may have been de-lamp. Some sulphurous acid is poured into it. Nor on the Right Track .- Last week the This acid, though at common temperature one of in Staten Island, which the bank had seized. It was, however, claimed by a relative under a recent deed of sale.

Gaming is carried on at Saratoga to a most frightful extent to hells, and not a drop of it evaporates, in England's oppression of Ireland, vengeance, retribution, &c. We sympathize with Ireland.—

But the Fenian brethren are not on the right drops of water are now added to the sulphurous drops of water are now added to the sulphurou conventicle or a camp-meeting, for the moment, back to his estates-builds no cottages, no school a hot crucible! from which, seizing it the mohouses, drains no bogs, alleviates not a single ment before it again melts, it may be thrown out A Mrs Hall, residing near Fishkill, N. Y, de- case of suffering, restores no rights unjustly taken before the eyes of the astonished observer. This serted her husband and four children last week, away-in short, is mere wind and fury, signify- is indeed a piece of natural magic, and as much and eloped with a negro named Wells. The negro ing nothing. Instead of expending money and like a miracle as any operation of the forces of A legal wag calls his marriage certificate who had been in that neighborhood but a few energies in empty displays, these enthusiastic nature could produce. It is certainly one of the weeks, represented himself to be a preacher, and Irishmen would really do something practical for most singularly beautiful experiments imaginable as such officiated at the Zion Pilgrim (colored) the moral and physical improvement of their na-church at Baxtertown. Mrs. H. was rather a tive island, they would be entitled to the grati-repellant power of heat radiating from bodies at fof heat produced by evaporation.